State Chairman Visits Lexington WAC Meet

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—The Lexington Grange hall was the scene of a Morrow County Women's Activities Committee conference last Wednesday. The meeting was called by the newly appointed Pomona chairman, Mrs. Pat Townsend of Willows Grange. A luncheon was served by women of the Lexington Grange from beautifully decorated tables, carrying out the Valentine theme, with cleverly arranged floral centerpieces of red and white flowers.

Following the luncheon a meeting was held, at which time Mrs. Charles C. Jones explained the work planned by the National and State Granges for the coming year.

She then introduced Mrs. Josephine Cross, state chairman of Women's Activities Committee, who explained that the name HEC or Home Economics Committee has been changed to the Women's Activities Committee by the National Grange. She displayed the quilt that had been presented to her at State Grange Session with a block from each county in the state. Mrs. Florence McMillan, Lexington subordinate chairman, presented Mrs. Cross with a gift from the local W.A.C. group.

Mrs. Pat Townsend was introduced and gave a few words on the activities she has planned for the coming year, and asked that reports be sent in to her each quarter.

Those present from Greenfield were Patsy Seehafer, Martha Baker, Madge Bishop, Anne Warren, Mabel Allen, Phoebe Hays, and Hazel Carpenter. From Rhea Creek Grange were Mrs. Mildred Wright and Mrs. Mary Wright, and from Lexington Grange were Ella Burgoyne, Florence McMillan, Frances Smouse, Frieda Majeske, Marie Steagall, Delpha Jones. Willows Grange was represented by Pat Townsend, Dot Halvorsen and Margaret Akers. Guests were the state chairman of Madras, Mrs. Cross, and her husband Lyn Cross.
