

Daniels Reviews Current Needs At PTA Meeting

By DIANA KINCAID

IONE — Ron Daniels, Morrow county school superintendent, was the featured speaker at the Thursday evening meeting of the lone PTA. He spoke on the school budget and on the mental health clinic to be set up jointly by Umatilla and Morrow counties.

Founders' Day was observed with a clever program by Mrs. Jim Pettyjohn who was dressed as a potted lady. Mrs. Jim Barnett participated costumed as the housewife of the 21st century.

Also appearing on the program were Connie Emert, Teresa Tucker, Jim Swanson, Chuck Nelson and Neal Christopherson who sang folk songs with guitar accompaniment.

Refreshments were served from a lovely tea table decorated with hand made artificial flowers.

The Cemetery Board and the budget committee met last Tuesday. Budget committee members, Dave Rietmann, Oris Padberg, and Roy W. Lindstrom, have posted the proposed cemetery budget. Board members Carl Troedson, Dean Hunt, and Roy A. Lindstrom, announce there will be a hearing and a discussion of the budget on February 27 at 8:00 p.m. in the lone City Hall. Date for the budget election has not been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Beggs of Boise, Idaho, were here recently visiting with their son, Harold Beggs, and his family.

Cheryl Lundell, a student at the University of Oregon, was home this week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell.

Paul Tews returned home Monday from Seattle where he has been with his father, Frank Tews, who is hospitalized there. Rikka remained in Seattle for a longer stay.

Beta Omega sorority met at the home of Mrs. Martha Peterson last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom presented an education program on the new man-made fibers and the selection of carpets, upholstery, and draperies. Following the business meeting a candlelight memorial service was held for Mrs. Betty Hausler who had been a member of the group for many years.

Bill Melena suffered a heart attack Wednesday morning and was taken to Pendleton Community hospital by Rev. A. H. Hazard. His condition is still listed as critical.

Wayne Rietmann returned home last Wednesday after a week's vacation in Huntington Beach, Calif., with his sister, Julie Rietmann. Miss Rietmann teaches first grade in Costa Mesa.

SCHOOL NEWS

On Saturday, February 10, members of the 7th grade class entertained the 8th graders with a Valentine party held at the cafeteria between the hours of 7:30 and 11:00 p.m. The room was gaily decorated in a Valentine theme with the red punch bowl on the refreshment table adding to the color scheme. Mrs. Darrell James was school advisor for the party with assistance from Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and Mrs. Bob Rietmann. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hoskins, Mrs. Louis Carlson, Bob Rietmann, and Mrs. Jim Pettyjohn.

Basketball games this week include a Junior High game here on February 23 at 2:00 p.m.; a high school game with Echo there also on February 23; on February 24 the high school plays a home game with Hills, and on February 27 the G.A.A. plays Heppner here at 3:30 p.m. Karen Nelson and Dick Hynd, both students at Oregon State, were home this week visiting with their respective parents.

VALBY CHURCH NEWS

Dick Andrews of Portland has been leading a series of five morning lessons with the Valby Lutheran congregations this week with the subject being "Conversations about the Christian Faith."

Lenten services will not be held at Valby this year but rather there will be weekly discussions led by Jaymen throughout Lent. The Bethel series will not be held during this time either.

Last Sunday evening the congregation gathered for a potluck supper and a program on the Lutheran Ingathering For Education, which provides funds for Lutheran colleges and universities. Paul Tews is the local LIFE chairman.

Are you moving? Subscribers are reminded to notify The Gazette-Times of new addresses, and please include your old address.

Flatt's Truck Service
PHONE 989-8420
For Fast and Dependable FREIGHT TRUCK SERVICE
Daily Overnight Service From Portland Including Saturdays
MOVING? CALL US
GENE ORWICK

Families Greet New Arrivals

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Janna Janita, born Friday, February 16, at Pioneer Memorial hospital. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., of The Dalles and paternal grandmother is Mrs. Norma Marquardt of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Messenger of Medford are the proud parents of a baby daughter born there Saturday, February 17, and has been named Hollie Michelle. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., who have been living at their home in Lexington are caring for their grandchildren at the Carl Marquardt home while Mrs. Marquardt is confined to the hospital. The Messengers have been living at their home in Lexington while he is recuperating from major leg surgery at The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske are spending a few days in Portland with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mounst, and family.

Dale Whitney, Miss Diana Krustin, and Charlene Jones, all of Portland, and Vicky Irvin of Hood River were week-end visitors at the C. C. Jones home. On Saturday other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske and the group watched slides taken by Miss Krustin on her recent three-week trip to Europe. On Sunday the group returned home accompanied by Mrs. Florence McMillan as far as Hood River where she will visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Irvin, and family.

Mrs. Norma Marquardt has returned after a few days spent in Portland on business. The Women's Activities Committee of the Lexington Grange met last Thursday for their regular meeting at the Kenneth Smouse ranch. Those present for the afternoon were Mrs. Nora Turner, Mrs. Martha VanScholck, Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne and the hostess. Lovely refreshments were served and games were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Breeding and sons of Portland have been recent Lexington callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith have been recent callers in Glendale.

Carroll Messenger, who has been spending sometime with relatives in Lexington after his discharge from the Air Force, has come to Portland where he will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris McCall were business visitors in Madras on Saturday.

Mrs. Dean Hunt and children were Walla Walla business callers on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson heard from their son, PFC Herbert Davidson while in New Jersey where he was enroute to Germany, scheduled to leave there at 10 a.m. Monday.

Mel Boyer of the Lexington Airport has been demonstrating a new 300 Cherokee from the airport this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Boyer have as their guests this week a cousin and wife of Mr. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Snyder of Rushville, Neb.

Mrs. Mel Boyer entertained with a pinocle party at her home this week. Guests were Mrs. Eldon Padberg, Mrs. Pat Cutsforth, Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, Sr., Mrs. Darrell Padberg, Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mrs. Roy Martin, Mrs. Tom Martin and the hostess. Prizes were won by Mrs. Darrell Padberg, high; Mrs. Eldon Padberg, second high; traveling, Mrs. Hunt, and low, Mrs. Martin.

SCHOOL LUNCH MENUS
Heppner High School and Elementary School
Monday, February 26—Spanish rice, tossed salad, quick bread, fruit with graham crackers, and milk.
Tuesday, February 27—Salisbury steak, potatoes, carrot and raisin salad, bread and butter, fresh fruit and milk.
Wednesday, February 28—Chili, celery and carrot sticks, corn bread, and milk.
Thursday, February 29—Macaroni and cheese, harvard beets, rolls, carrot sticks, pudding, and milk.

TYPEWRITER RIBBONS for most makes on sale at The Gazette-Times—98¢ each.

Jackson Service Held Wednesday

Mrs. Leona Jackson, 81, a 20-year resident of the lone community, died Sunday night, February 18, at Pioneer Memorial hospital.

She was born in Indiana, Penn., on January 27, 1887. She and her husband, Artie H. Jackson, came to the lone community in 1948, where she had since made her home. He preceded her in death in 1950.

She had been a member of the Gervais Rebekah lodge.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, February 21, at the Sweeney Mortuary Chapel. Officiating at the 1:30 p.m. service was the Rev. Melvin Dixon, pastor of the First Methodist church. Interment followed in the Heppner Masonic cemetery.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Bergstrom and Mrs. Doris Gollyhorn, both of lone, and one son, John Jackson, also of lone. Also four grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Panel Discussion On Narcotics Set

Elementary PTA meeting for March has been cancelled in favor of a PTA-sponsored panel discussion concerning the use of narcotics, Al Martin, Heppner elementary school principal, states. The topic to be considered is "Use and Effects of Narcotic Drugs."

The panel discussion is being arranged by Circuit Judge Henry Kaye of Pendleton. It will be in the elementary school building on Wednesday, March 6, at 8 p.m. Members of the panel are now being selected.

The discussion will be open to parents, students and the public at large.

Refreshments will be served by the PTA following the meeting.

Return of Berkeley Film on Program Of Church Dinner

A program of interest for all ages is planned to highlight the all-church Family Night of the Heppner Methodist church on Sunday evening, February 25, it is announced by the Rev. Melvin Dixon.

The usual family potluck dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., with those attending asked to bring a hot dish and salad or dessert and needed table service.

By special request, a repeat showing of the film, "The Berkeley Revolution," will provide the program, starting at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to come and see the enlightening film of what is happening on the college campus.

The 50-minute sound movie was filmed on the campus of Berkeley University under the sponsorship of Campus Crusade for Christ, Intl., showing the work of Christian young people in coping with problems of today's unrest and confusion which exists among college students. Many in this area were unable to take advantage of seeing the film when it was shown here last November. It has been very well received by groups throughout Oregon where it has been shown by members of Campus Crusade of the University of Oregon and Oregon State University.

Parish is Visited By World Traveler

Members of All Saints' Episcopal parish enjoyed slides shown by Mrs. Hazel Perkins, wife of Rev. Louis Perkins of Cove, on Sunday morning, February 11, during the 11 a.m. worship service.

Mrs. Perkins gave an interesting talk along with her pictures of their recent trip around the world, with interest centered on Pakistan. Money from weekly birthday offerings at All Saints' parish is used to support a child in Pakistan.

Mrs. Perkins was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Morrison, also of Cove. The two women were guests over Saturday and Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Dirk Rinehart and Ann.

TYPEWRITER RIBBONS for most makes on sale at The Gazette-Times—98¢ each.

Ione Grade Students Urged to Participate In Anti-litter Work

IONE—Mrs. Gar Swanson and Mrs. Fred Martin, representing the Anti-Litter Committee of the lone Garden club, visited the classes of Mrs. Franklin Ely, Edwin Kessler and Jack Lloyd this week to encourage the students to join C.R.U.D. (Campaign to Remove Unpleasantly Debris).

These 4th, 5th, and 6th graders were asked to design posters with their own illustrations and by using "Haiku," a Japanese form of poetry. These posters and original poetry will be on display in the community.

The two garden club members stressed in their talks that one out of every five persons is an innocent but habitual litterer! Litter prevention is more than a clean-up day. It involves a complete change of attitudes and habits among our city, county and state citizens.

"We need a lot of people who have been silent and passive to become noisy, busy and aggressive against the rising tide of litter." In this Mess-Age, students were reminded to keep lone and all of Morrow county beautiful, and to follow Phil D. Basket's advice, "Just a drop in the basket helps keep America clean."

Cast is Chosen For 3-Act Play

"Arsenic and Old Lace," by Joseph Kesselring, will be presented as the Junior class play on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 22 and 23, in the Heppner High multipurpose room. The play is a three-act dramatic comedy.

The cast includes: Lynda Orwick as Abby Brewster; Vernon Fredrickson, Dr. Harper; Steve Pettyjohn as Teddy Brewster; Terry Peck as Officer Brophy; Pat Kilkenny, Officer Klein; Teresa Harshman as Martha Brewster; Sara Miller as Elaine Harper; John Rawlins as Mortimer Brewster; Jerry Healy, Mr. Gibbs; Larry Belenbrock, Jonathan Brewster; Bill Baker as Dr. Einstein; Larry Pettyjohn as Officer O'Hara; Don Cossitt as Lt. Rooney and Steve Munkers as Mr. Witherspoon.

The stage directors and crew for the play include co-director, Mark Tullis; stage manager, Chris Watkins; stage building, Melvin Ashbeck; props, Sue Greenup; chattel props, Sheryl Britt; make-up, Jill Chitty; costuming, Jill Padberg; lighting, Dale Cooper; and publicity will be handled by Martha Pierce.

Miss Cecilia Delmore is in charge of the production of the play.

Arbuckle Patrol Receives Praise

Ski patrol at Arbuckle Mountain is "doing an excellent job" in the words of Warren Sulliff, regional chairman of the National Ski Patrol System.

Sulliff, who is on the White Pass Ski Patrol in Washington, visited Arbuckle Mountain course February 10 at the request of Al Martin of the local patrol.

The visitor thoroughly inspected the area, its facilities, and its preparation for emergencies. He said that considering the size of the area, the people served, and the equipment used, he could make no recommendations for improvement.

Firemen Advised By State Marshal

Stan Phillips, deputy state fire marshal from John Day, was a featured speaker Monday evening, January 29, at a meeting of volunteer firemen from Heppner, Condon and lone at the lone fire hall.

Phillips discussed fire control with a minimum use of water and different types of apparatus used for fire control.

The school is second in a series of several provided by Phillips for volunteer firemen of the area to aid in the study of fire control.

Volunteers from Heppner who attended the school were Jerry Hollomon, Wayne Harsin, Tom Wilson, Charles Walker, Darrel McLachlan, Vern Nolan, Clyde Allstott, and Richard Vinson.

Coffee and refreshments were served to those attending by the lone department at the close of the evening meeting.

Muzzy Wedding Held in Portland

By VIRGINIA KESLO

KINZUA—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Muzzy and granddaughter Cheryl Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Muzzy went to Portland Friday night for the week-end and to attend the Saturday afternoon wedding of Paulette Bailey to Terry Peterson of Portland. The ceremony was at 3 p.m. in the Beaverton Lutheran church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Muzzy of Kinzua, wore a full length gown of blue satin with a blue veil and blue and white accessories. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Muzzy of Portland at whose home the reception was held after the service.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, the couple will be at home in Portland where Mr. Peterson is employed by the Gypsy Restaurant and Mrs. Peterson at Meier and Franks.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Saddler spent the week-end in Seattle visiting with relatives. They were accompanied by Longview by Mrs. Jiggs Bowman and daughter Cindy who visited there with Mr. Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor were business visitors to Bend Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Benson were in The Dalles Saturday on business. Also there Saturday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Roe of Pendleton were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Browning and Linda. On Sunday, the Brownings hosted a birthday dinner for Mrs. Roe on her 21st birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Roe of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ness of Hermiston. Mrs. Browning returned to Pendleton with the Roe's and went on to La Grande Monday for medical care.

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter on February 12 to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Davis of Hillsboro, former residents of Kinzua. The little girl weighed 7 lb. and has been named Trina Lynn. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Vester Hams of lone, Mrs. Edith Davis of Albany and Henry Davis of Lafayette. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bothwell of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. James Hamm of Hardman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams are the parents of their second daughter born February 9 at the Heppner hospital. She weighed 8 lb., 11 1/2 oz., and has been named Dawn Rose. She joins a sister, Denise. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitely of Beaverton and Mr. and Mrs. John Gale of Portland.

Mrs. John Nelson and Mrs. Mike Wright and daughter Crystal were in The Dalles Wednesday on business.

Miss Susan Wright of Portland spent the week-end here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wright, Sr.

There will be a "Singspiration" Sunday, February 25 at the Kinzua Community church at 2:30 p.m. Everyone who likes to sing and those who just like to listen are invited to attend and participate. This will be preceded by a potluck dinner in the church annex at one o'clock and everyone is invited to attend, and asked to bring own eating utensils.

The Friendship Club held its regular meeting February 14 at the grade school with a "Come as you are" party with Dinah Jackson as hostess. High and pinocle were won by Deena Reid, low by Roberta Conlee, and the second pinocle by Ruth Jordan. Others playing were Patsy McMinn, Carol Norris, Pat Van Arsdale, Rose Merry Nelson, Naomi Rice, Sharon Bell, Barbara Mortimore and Sue Mattison.

Mr. and Mrs. Slim Rhoton were in Heppner Friday for dental care for Slim.

The regular meeting of the Camp 5 Womens card club met Friday at the Camp 5 Community hall with Marie Hulett as hostess. High was won by Rose Merry Nelson, low by Sue Mattison, and pinocle by Sharon Bell and Betty Murdoch. Others playing were Dolores Wilmer, Ruth Jordan, Barbara Mortimore, Carol Norris, Terry Todd, Marie Rhoton, and Pat Van Arsdale.

Visiting at the Frank DeMerritt home Friday were Mrs. Bob Orway of Spray and Mary Madison of Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sharp returned home Thursday from several days spent visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grogan at Weston.

Spending from Monday through Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Todd was his brother Clifford who was on leave from the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph James have received word that their son David is stationed with the U. S. Army at Sinthen, Germany, which is near Frankfurt.

Mrs. Tom Jordan and children went to College Place, Wash. Saturday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Don Potter.

The 4-H cooking club, the Cocoa-Kids, entertained with a dinner Thursday evening at the church annex. The menu included a meat loaf and featured noodle soup with the girls having made the noodles. Afterward they presented a skit. Those enjoying this dinner were Mrs. Marian Tripp, Mrs. Rachel Dove, Mrs. Pat Hyatt, Mrs. Dolores Meadows and their leader, Mrs. Wanita Hubbell. Girls in the

Monument News

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT — Roy Shaw of Toronto, Canada, was visiting the past week with the Herb Hynds of Cecil. He then drove over to visit his two nieces and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. George Stubblefield.

Shaw was a brother to the late Louise Scott of Top, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson spent the week-end in Prineville visiting their sons-in-law and daughters and families.

Kay Harris drove to Portland Thursday to spend a few days with her baby, who is hospitalized there. She returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matteson drove to Long Creek Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Couture of Fossil drove up Saturday, bringing her mother, Mrs. Delia Sweeck back up to stay for the summer with another daughter, Doris Capon.

Mrs. Freda Tubb and son Ricky of Long Creek were in town Saturday on business and to visit.

Dale L. Matteson of Pendleton was over for the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Matteson.

Ronnie Croker, who is stationed with the Marines, is visiting his parents for a few days.

club are Nancy Benson, Judy Hubbell, Theresa Hyatt, Sharon Hubbell, Dianna Meadows, and Lorelei Hubbell.

On Thursday of last week the teen age class of the Kinzua Community church had a Valentine dinner with 21 present. The group was assisted by their teacher, Edwin Derrick and by Mrs. Bob Dove.

The 4-H Cookie-Cutters met at the home of Molly Day recently and Rhonda Sargent and Debbie Dove made potato soup to serve to the group. Kathy Jellick and Joy Matyear made deviled eggs for the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Dick Sargent.

NEW, BRILLIANT COLOR
IN EVERY ROOM
At the new SALEM Holiday Inn
745-785 Commercial S.E. Phone: (503) 363-2451
RESTAURANT WITH 24-HOUR COFFEE SHOP

FARMERS!
THIS IS OUR SLACK TIME OF YEAR
Get Your Farm Tires
(CAR - PICKUP - TRUCK - TRACTOR)
Recapped Now--
KRAFT RECAPS:
● HIWAY TREADS
● LUG TREADS
● BANDAG TREADS
SEE US FOR YOUR FARM NEEDS
General Tires — Kraft Recaps
--STANDARD BATTERIES--
FORD'S TIRE SERVICE
GENERAL TIRE
HEPPNER PH. 676-9481

"Need to know the area code for Scarsdale, New York?"
Look in the "CALL GUIDE" section—in the front of your TELEPHONE DIRECTORY