

Items of Business Covered at Regular Sans Souci Meeting

At the regular meeting of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 on Friday, March 1, members who had not attended for some time were extended a special welcome by Mrs. Tom Huston, noble grand, Mrs. Eugenia Huston, who had been absent for some time due to ill health, was greeted. Mrs. Huston served as lodge musician for many years, attending each meeting and practice, and wears the Decoration of Chivalry jewel. Also welcomed was Mrs. Veva Becholdt of Hardman, who was initiated into the Rebekahs in 1945.

At the request of Mrs. Jessie Darra, state president, a donation was made to the Educational Fund. Many students have made use of this IOOF benefit.

Announcement was made through a letter from Mrs. Blanche Imel, Portland, president-elect of the Oregon Assembly, that Mrs. Larry Cook had been selected as one of her officers. Mrs. Imel will be installed as assembly president of Oregon at the close of the grand lodge sessions in Corvallis in May, at which time Mrs. Cook will be installed into the station of outside guardian to serve during the state assembly in Baker in 1963.

It was announced by Mrs. R. G. McMurry, secretary of Area No. 16 on United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth project, that the speak-off will be held in Pendleton IOOF hall on March 10, with the winner to have a month's educational tour to the United Nations. It was with regret that Mrs. McMurry stated that Heppner High school would not have a contestant, the first time the local school has not been represented since the start of the program in 1952.

Mrs. Altha Kirk reported on the Wasco District No. 21 meeting which she and Mrs. Earl Eskelson of Hermiston attended February 28, comprised of Grass Valley Lodge No. 118 and Miriam Lodge No. 127, and well attended by dignitaries of the Order.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kirk following the close of the meeting.

Society AND Clubs

ELAINE CARLSON, extension clothing and textiles specialist, Oregon State University, and Mary Speckhart, standing, Umatilla county extension agent, examine a tote bag which is one of the articles made in the beginning 4-H clothing project. A leaders training session will be held at the Lexington school on Friday, March 8, starting at 10:00 a.m., with the Umatilla agent in charge.

Initiation Planned For Elks Meeting

Initiation ceremonies are planned by Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 for Thursday evening, March 7, for three candidates who were unable to be present for the ceremony at the annual celebration on February 24. Exalted Ruler Claude Graham urges a good turnout of members to be present to welcome the new incoming members.

Slate of officers for the coming year will also be announced by the nominating committee, with election set for Thursday, March 21, and installation on Thursday, April 4. Among other coming events are a crab feed on Saturday, March 16, followed by a dance with music furnished by the Western Gentlemen.

Umatilla Agent To Give Leaders 4-H Help Friday

By GAIL L. McCARTY
County 4-H Agent

Mary Speckhart, Umatilla county extension agent, will conduct a 4-H clothing leaders training session in Lexington, Friday, March 8. The meeting will be 10:00 a.m. to noon in the library of the Lexington school. Miss Speckhart will also be available after lunch for individual consultation.

She plans to cover such topics as "what we are trying to accomplish in the 4-H clothing projects; project requirements; and planning a club program of work in 4-H clothing." Also stressed will be how to use project and resource materials to broaden the 4-H club members' experiences in clothing.

Public to View Work Of Local Art Students At Shows This Month

With the winter term of art instruction offered by Dr. Margaret McDevitt to persons in this area soon to come to a close, two public showings of recently completed works of her students are planned for this month. Interest was so great in the first show staged in the Bank of Eastern Oregon in Heppner last year, that displays will be made in both Ione and Heppner during the coming weeks.

First public showing will be at Bristow's store in Ione on Friday, March 8. For the convenience of those who will be unable to attend the showing during the day, the store will be kept open on Friday evening from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. The public is invited to visit the show on that evening, or at any time during store hours for the week following, March 11-16.

A show will be set up in Heppner at a later date at the completion of the winter term of classes.

Dr. McDevitt's classes have aroused such interest in this vicinity that it was necessary for her to conduct two classes during winter term. She is also conducting two such classes in Arlington and a ceramics class in Irrigon, in addition to her regular classes at Blue Mountain Community college in Pendleton. Students in her classes here have felt very fortunate to have had her instructions.

Present plans are being made for a spring term course, and those interested should contact Dr. McDevitt or Dick Carpenter at the Heppner High school.

During the showing at the Bank of Eastern Oregon, there were many inquiries as to whether the paintings were for sale. For the convenience of anyone interested, a list will be posted showing which paintings are for sale and their prices.

Dr. McDevitt is remembered in this area as having been a rural school teacher before her studies and teachings called her to other areas. She has studied extensively both at home and abroad, and has been mentioned many times in "Who's Who Among American Women". Dr. McDevitt grew up in the Juniper Canyon area and retains her love for this area. When she retired from her position as superintendent of art education for the Salem school district, she returned to this area to be near her family and to resume her teaching career at the Pendleton college.

Those who have been enrolled as beginning students in this term's classes are Irvin Anderson, Alena Anderson, Gloria Cook, Willa Johnson, Jerry Keithley, Phyllis Piper, Dick Robison, Mark Tullis, Fred Nelson, Don Bristow, Barbara Clough, Ardeth Hunt, Nancy Miller, Milly Rauch, Carleen West and Doreen Jacobs.

Second term students are Doris Graves, Judy Laughlin, Lucille Peck, Camilla Samples, Donna Bergstrom, Betty Brown, Birdine Tullis, Betty Bunch, Sue Duncan, Irene Swanson, Margaret Evans and Pauline Mathe-

New Church Members Padberg is Honored Are Special Guests At Family Gathering

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg was the scene of a family gathering on Sunday, March 3. The occasion was in celebration of Mr. Padberg's birthday, with a pleasant afternoon of visiting following the dinner and serving of the special birthday cake.

Together for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Elden Padberg and daughter, Jill; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Padberg, Larry, Debbie and Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Padberg and Jodi, all of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg, Heppner; Mrs. Doris Vinson, Kimberly; Mrs. Lewis Corley, Sandra and Sara of Monument, Mrs. Floyd Vaughan, Anna and Jimmy of Monument, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg.

Guest speaker for the evening was Elby Boosinger, national field director of Christian men's work, who works through the United Christian Missionary society in Indianapolis.

Desserts for the evening were provided by members of the Christian Men's Fellowship, who baked and served cherry pies. Before serving, a judging contest was held to determine the best pie baker. First place honors went to Jim Wishart; second place to Vernon Munkers, and third to Clyde Allstott.

General chairman for the event was the Rev. Al Boschee, who was assisted by members of the Deaconesses Society, with Mrs. George Griffith of Cecil, chairman.

Club Constitution Reviewed at Meeting

Members of the Heppner Mothers club gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert Jones for their March meeting.

Mrs. Loren Lucore, president, called the meeting to order and minutes were read by Mrs. James Wishart, secretary.

The nine members attending were given revised copies of the club's constitution, which was reviewed and discussed by the group. Mrs. Lucore and Mrs. Herman Winter were co-chairmen in this project.

Mrs. Lucore appointed a nominating committee composed of past presidents of the club to meet and nominate officers for the coming April election. Mrs. Anita Stockard, Mrs. Winter, and Mrs. Jones were chosen for this, with Mrs. Winter to serve as chairman.

Members greeted Mrs. Paul Arbogast, who was present as special guest for the evening.

Refreshments of warm blueberry cake with whipped topping were provided by Mrs. Gene Winters, who was unable to attend, and served with coffee and tea by the hostess, Mrs. Jones.

Tom Howell and Mrs. Clarence Wise traveled to Beaverton last week to attend funeral services for their brother-in-law, Charles McLaughlin.

Mrs. Gray Entertains

Mrs. Mike Gray was hostess to members of her pinochle group, who met last Friday evening, March 1, at the Gray home.

Winning high for the evenings play was Mrs. Bob Mahoney, second high by Mrs. Verlin Hughes, and low was held by Mrs. Robert Laughlin, with the pinochle prize also going to Mrs. Mahoney.

Other members present for the evenings play were Mrs. Dan Brosnan, Mrs. Dick Robison, Mrs. Ron Currin, and Mrs. Len Ray Schwarz. Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Laughlin.

Put your dollars to work at home—trade in Morrow county.

Notice of Candidacy

I hereby announce my candidacy to succeed myself for the office of Sheriff of Morrow County subject to the will of the Republican voters of Morrow County at the Primary election, May 28, 1968.
