Grange Schedules Saturday Meeting; Full Evening Planned

Regular meeting of the Lexington Grange, previously planned for Saturday, March 9, has been changed to Saturday, March 16, with a full evening program and business planned, according to announcement by C. C. Jones, grange master.

Members are urged to attend the potluck dinner at 6:30 with a surprise program arranged by Mrs. Ola Ruggles, lecturer, at 8:00 p.m. Business meeting will follow at 8:30 p.m., and among reports of interest will be that of Mrs. Pat Brindle on the work of the Community Neighborhood Center in Heppner.

Items of interest to grange members will be discussed, including material on the new property tax law, the National Farmer's Organization's membership drive, Morrow county's ten-year planning conference, and resolutions which should be considered at Pomona and state grange meetings.

Altar Society Plans For Coming Events

Several items of new business were under discussion at the last meeting of St. Patrick's Altar Society, as they met Tuesday evening, March 5, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Curnutt, president.

A vote was passed approving a donation to Heppner High school pep club to assist with their efforts in raising funds to go to the state basketball tournament in Coos Bay.

Plans are being made to conduct a public card party on April 29, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Joe Balfe.

A committee composed of Mrs. Harold Curnutt, Mrs. Robert Laughlin and Mrs. Jerry Sweetney were named to prepare and serve the Holy Names Men's Society breakfast, to be held March 10.

Members of St. Patrick's Catholic church are planning a potluck dinner March 17, for members of the parish.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. John Mollahan and Mrs. Carl Thorpe.

WSCS Has Bakeless Food Sale Project

Mrs. Bill Farra and Mrs. Lincoln Nash were co-hostesses to 15 members of the WSCS group of the Methodist church as they held their regular meeting last Wednesday evening, March 6.

Program topic chosen for the evening was the review and study of the book of Acts, under the direction of Mrs. James Hilderbrand, president.

Among items discussed during the short business meeting were formative plans to hold a bakeless food sale as a money raising project for the month of March.

Mrs. Hilderbrand reports that the group has received many letters expressing thanks for packages of cookies sent to college students and to servicemen from Morrow county serving in Vietnam. This project was carried out by the members at their last meeting.

Relatives Visited By Ruhl Families

Mr. and Mrs. Skip Ruhl traveled to Salem on Saturday to visit with her mother, Mrs. Wilma Staley, and with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frickie and family. On Sunday the Ruhls traveled to Roseburg to spend time visiting with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ruhl and Dana. On Monday, the group traveled to Coos Bay to watch the Heppner Mustangs participate in the state A-2 basketball tournament.

The Dick Ruhls will come to Heppner for the remainder of their spring vacation, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl in Lexington. Also expected at the McQuarrie home is their son, Dan, who will be on vacation from his studies at Central Oregon Community college in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Damon and family of Eugene spent spring vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham. Damon is a counselor at John F. Kennedy High school in Eugene.

Jaycee Members Join Big Delegation At State Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hollomon attended the State Jaycee Spring Board convention held in Newport, March 2-3.

The two Morrow county representatives joined with hundreds of other Oregon state Jaycees and officers in attending workshops and meetings.

Records and recognition reports were presented for judging at the state meeting, and those attending voted on projects and policies for the coming year.

While attending the state convention, they were pleased to hear guest speaker, Jim Antell, national Jaycee president from Vermont, who spoke at the Saturday evening banquet, attended by about 1080 guests, and at a noon luncheon they listened to another featured speaker, Roger Jenkins, national Jaycee vice president from Washington.

Allstott is president of the local Jaycee chapter and Hollomon serves the group as secretary.

Ione Benefit Dance Planned for March 30

Beta Omega Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, this week announced plans for a benefit dance to be held Saturday, March 30, at the American Legion hall in Ione.

Proceeds from the dance will go to the Joe Hausler family, former Ione residents. Mrs. Hausler died February 1, 1968, after extensive hospitalization in Portland.

Plans for the dance include three different dance bands: a rock and roll group, a country and western orchestra, and a modern dance band. The groups will alternate in playing throughout the evening. All three bands are donating their time to the benefit. Individual contributions will also be appreciated through contacting any of the members or mailed to Mrs. Art Lindstrom, chapter treasurer, Ione. Heppner people may contact Mrs. Clyde Pettyjohn or Mrs. Marion Green, and those in the Lexington area may contact Mrs. Del Piper.

Parents Announce Marriage of Daughter

Recently announced here was the marriage of Miss Amanda Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Smith, formerly of Heppner, and now of Yakima, Wash. Miss Smith was united in marriage to Paul David Swick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Swick of Oregon City, at a ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Friday evening, December 22.

The Rev. Leo Epperson, pastor of Oregon City First Christian church, performed the ceremony attended by family members and close friends. The bride wore a street-length two-piece dress of beige lace and a corsage of pink rosebuds. She was attended by Cindy Allen, wearing a dress of winter white wool with accents of red. Raleigh Cross attended the bridegroom.

On February 4, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Patrick, Daniel and Collin, attended a reception given in honor of the newlyweds, held at the home of the groom's parents in Oregon City, attended by several family members and friends who were unable to be present for the wedding ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Swick are making their first home at 4682 Walnut Street, West Linn. He is a senior in secondary education at Portland State College and works at Willamette Falls hospital. Mrs. Swick is employed at Gladstone Convalescent hospital.

Enrollment Deadline Nears for Courses In Adult Education

Deadline of March 18 has been set for registration for the Basic Education course offered here spring term, according to Mrs. Pat Brindle, assistant coordinator for the Heppner Community Center. Only one more is needed to fill the required class of 10 necessary to secure an instructor from BMCC in Pendleton. Those interested are asked to contact the center, phone 676-5873, or Heppner High school.

Other adult education classes will also be offered through the college for the spring term, with those desiring to enroll to call Heppner High school office on or before March 21. Possible classes will be the Bishop Sewing or Tailoring course and Soc. 205, General Sociology. Continued interest in the beginning and advanced art classes is expected to carry them through the spring term. Requests for adult classes may be filled if 10 or more people are enrolled.

There will be no formal organizational meeting for the spring classes and contacts should be made directly with the school office.

Board Meeting Called

An important meeting of the advisory board of the Heppner Neighborhood Center has been announced for Monday evening, March 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the offices of the center. The coordinators urge a good attendance to discuss present and future work of the center.

State School for Deaf To Hold Conference For Involved Parents

The 20th annual conference for parents of preschool age deaf and hard-of-hearing children will be held at the Oregon State School for the Deaf in Salem from April 7, through April 11, according to information released by the Morrow County Health department.

Parents of hearing-impaired children are faced with a challenge greater than that encountered by most parents. The conference is designed to help these parents prepare themselves for their unique role. They will experience tours, discussions and demonstrations while their children will be observed and examined by teams of specialists.

The conference is sponsored by the Oregon Cooperative Council for the Deaf, which represents 16 public and private agencies concerned with the needs of hearing-impaired children and their parents.

Parents in this area who wish to attend the conference should contact Marvin B. Clatterbuck, superintendent of the Oregon State School for the Deaf, 999 Locust Street, N. E., Salem, Oregon 97310.

Cary Davis Sustains Lacerations to Hand

Injury to Cary Davis of Heppner resulted Saturday night when the car in which he was riding with Frank Lovgren developed tire trouble on the Butter Creek highway en route to Hermiston.

The boy suffered severe lacerations to his right hand while attempting to determine the source of the tire trouble. The car, moving forward a few inches, caught his hand in the wheel well, cutting it severely.

The boys went to a nearby farm for assistance for Cary before taking him to the Hermiston hospital for medical treatment. An undetermined number of stitches was taken in the right hand, which suffered cut tendons.

Cary makes his home in Heppner with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott. He is employed after school at Central Market and also works part time in the Gazette-Times shop.

Guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Florence are their granddaughter, Mrs. Gary Florence, and her 10-month-old son, David Norman, of Eugene. Accompanying them are Janice and Phillip Larsen, also of Eugene, niece and nephew of Mrs. Gary Florence.

Helps Heart Fund

The Stitch and Knit 4-H club met at the home of Elden Padberg on March 4. It was reported that we collected $54 on the Heart Fund drive. Jill Padberg gave a demonstration on how to straighten cotton and wool materials. Refreshments of cupcakes were served by Karen Crowell. The next meeting will be held March 18.
