

High School Sponsors Carnival Activity Night

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Wendy Wilson, Riverside High school freshman, was crowned queen of the carnival Saturday night held in the Greenfield Grange hall. Gene Gollyhorn, student body president, crowned the queen. Her escort was Clarence Proctor.

Princesses and escorts were sophomores Judy Hinton and Bruce Buchanan, Juniors Jana Everett and Duane Lamb, and seniors Betty Eppenbach and Gary Baird.

The carnival, which was sponsored by the high school and the grange, was attended by a large crowd, and was a big success financially.

Mrs. Leo Root was hostess for the Boardman Garden Club the first of last week at her home. Roll call was answered by telling of a bird seen this spring.

It was voted to hire someone to set out a row of locust trees at the Boardman Community church. Mrs. Rollin Bishop presented information and showed pictures of humming birds.

In a game played prizes were won by Mrs. Zearl Gillespie and Mrs. Walter Hayes. Mrs. Frank Marlow received the door prize. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marlow April 15. At that time there will be election of officers.

Five tables of pinocle were in play at the card party at the Greenfield Grange hall Tuesday of last week, sponsored by the Home Economics Club of the grange. Hostesses were Mrs. Sam Beeks, Mrs. Jessie Hartfield, Mrs. Maybelle Wetherell and Mrs. Carmelita Berghese of Arlington. High prize was won by Mrs. Dewey West, Jr., and low went to Mrs. Vern Minnick, Mrs.

Save for a rainy day

Let's call a "rainy day" the part of the future for which you have no specific plan. The unexpected, it's good to have a goal to save for but it's also good just to be saving for a "rainy day."

You'll find good use for the money.

Maybe it'll be the trip you've always wanted to take. Or a down payment on a new home. Or a sudden emergency. Whatever your "rainy day" brings, here are some savings plans to get you ready for that day.

Save-o-Matic—Since saving money isn't easy for most of us, we devised a plan that gets you started and keeps you going! With a Save-o-Matic account, you determine the monthly amount of money you'd like deposited from your checking to your savings account. It's automatic. There's no charge for this exclusive

First National service. Your balance grows. It works!

Regular Savings—Here your money also earns high bank interest while you make deposits as regularly as you like. This is the "traditional" savings account. The simple secret of a successful regular account is to be conscientious about it. Keep putting something in, no matter how small you consider the deposit. A regular savings account is another good financial umbrella for a rainy day.

5% Deposit Certificates—Here's how to earn even higher bank interest with any amount from $500 up. A deposit certificate earns 5% per annum and matures in six months. You can arrange for automatic renewal at maturity.

5% Income Certificates—These pay you 5% interest which is guaranteed to the two-year maturity date of the certificate. Interest is paid by check or deposited to your account each quarter. Or, if you prefer, you may purchase an income certificate which earns 5.22% when interest is compounded quarterly and the certificate is held to full two-year maturity.

Which savings plan is best for your rainy day umbrella? The one that gets you started saving and keeps you saving. So talk to the savings experts at your nearby branch of First National Bank and start a rainy day account.

Empire Builders 4-H Club Instructs Group In Offices

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

IRRIGON—The Empire Builders 4-H Club, a high school age group of young people from Heppner, accompanied by County Extension Agent Gail McCarty, presented an interesting and informative program to a group of 4-H officers and leaders from North Morrow county Saturday afternoon. The meeting was held in the cafeteria of the A. C. Houghton school.

John Rawlins aptly presented Parliamentary procedure to the young people as the best way to conduct the business of a meeting. Sandi Carlson led the singing and demonstrated by her ability how singing can enliven an otherwise dull meeting. Sherri O'Brien outlined the duties of the vice-president, among which is the availability for filling the office of the president when needed.

Secretarial methods were explained by Merri Lee Jacobs and Nancy Doherty who stressed the importance of keeping accurate records.

"The first five words of the news report are the most important," according to Steve Pettyjohn, who presented the subject of news reporting.

The group then joined in fun and games as Debbie Warren directed recreation.

The Irrigon Assembly of God Youth choir presented a Cantata entitled "No Greater Love" at the Boardman Community church, pastored by the Reverend Neeley, Sunday morning.

The cantata was narrated by Bruce Buchanan, and soloists were Mrs. Perry Pummel, Mrs. Harvey Warner and David Kenney. The choir was accompanied by Mrs. Albert Patlow.

Serviceman Tom Blunk and his wife, the former Jeannie Evans, recently returned from Scotland where he has been stationed. They have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Acock while he is on leave. Mrs. Blank is Mrs. Acock's sister and a former Irrigon resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brownlee from Jamieson, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brownlee of Portland were recent visitors of the Leonard Abercrombies.

Clara Fay Coy of Portland has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Coy, and her brother, Glenn, and his family.

College students home for spring vacation include Terry McCoy attending Eastern Oregon College in La Grande, Susan McCoy from Oregon State, John Lathrop and Mike Smith from University of Oregon, and Sheryl Witherspoon who is attending a nurses training school in Portland. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eppenbach. He is attending Eastern Oregon College.

Mrs. Gladys Hobbs had a surprise visit from her cousin, William Hughes of Wichita, Kan. He was on his way to Seattle where he is moving and will be employed by the Boeing Company.

Reverend and Mrs. John Kenney returned home last Thursday from Portland where they had attended the annual meeting of the Oregon District Council of the Assemblies of God. While there the Kenneys attended a banquet for the district presbyters and their wives. Rev. Kenney has been a presbyter of his district for several years and was replaced by Rev. Wesley Brandford of the Hermiston Assembly this year.

One of the special speakers at the conference was Rev. Dave Wilkerson, well known youth evangelist and author, who spoke to overflow crowds at several services. Among other speakers were Mr. and Mrs. Walton who have recently returned from a world tour of mission stations. Mrs. Walton has been president of the women's missionary council of the district for many years.

Telephone Pioneer Days Set April 4-5

Telephone Pioneers in this area will join with over 2500 other "Pioneers" throughout Oregon in celebrating Telephone Pioneer Days 1968 on April 4 and 5.

Pioneers in Heppner are members of the Oregon Trail Council groups in the state, according to Dale Slusher, local manager for Pacific Northwest Bell.

Highlighting the two-day observance in this area will be Visitation Day on April 4, and Expression Day on April 5. Visitation Day is a day when active Pioneers visit Life Members (retirees) who are ill or elderly. Expression Day is a day on which all employees can come to work dressed in a costume of their own choosing.

The telephone pioneer organization is composed of men and women who have worked at least 21 years in the telephone industry. The organization is made up of both active and life

Club Plans for Trip

The Stitch and Knit 4-H club met at the Elden Padberg home on March 18. Anita Davidson called the meeting to order. June Ledbetter led the American flag salute and Jill Padberg led the 4-H salute. Under old business, we talked about where to go for a trip after the end of the school year. There was no new business. Diane Cutsforth gave a demonstration on the proper techniques of giving a demonstration. After the meeting was adjourned, Kathy Crum served refreshments. Our next meeting will be on April 1.

Karen Crowell, reporter

members, with the latter being those who have now retired from their telephone careers.

This year's festivities will be the fourth full-scale state-wide observance by Oregon Chapter 31 of the Telephone Pioneers of America.

An all electric laundry adds another day to your week

Remember the "good old days" when an entire day was wasted doing the family washing and ironing? No problem today, thanks to low cost, rural electric power! The family laundry can now be done automatically with an electric washer and electric dryer. Best of all, the busy homemaker does the laundry at her convenience... and in minutes.

An electric washer does the job right. Everything is wonderfully fresh and clean. You can safely wash all your clothing... even delicate synthetics. Why, you can even wash large throw rugs!

An electric dryer lets you laugh at rainy weather

Drying the wash was once a real problem. Not so today when an electric clothes dryer makes the family wash fluffy dry in only minutes. Best of all, an electric clothes dryer lets you do the laundry anytime, rain or shine. Add a load at night before you retire. It'll be dry and ready to wear in the morning.

Small wonder that an electric clothes dryer is a woman's most wanted appliance! The new electric washers and dryers are so handsome that you can place them anywhere. Many homemakers have their laundry area in the kitchen for added convenience. The appliances need little floor space. They can be installed in a closet or alcove to save space.

Wherever you locate your laundry area, keep the two appliances as close together as possible. This will save you needless steps. You'll also want a table or counter nearby for sorting and folding.

Safe and easy to operate

An all-electric laundry is safe as a light bulb because it's flameless. There's no messy fumes or gases to worry you. Even the controls are out of the reach of small children.

Yet operation is completely automatic. You select the appropriate setting and the appliance does the work. Even pre-teenagers can do the family wash!

Saves you money, too, particularly if there are children in your family who seem to "grow out of their clothes." Fewer changes are needed because the youngster's clothing can be washed and dried so easily and quickly. Children can, therefore, "grow through" instead of "out of" garments.

Even delicate things can be laundered automatically. A little care is all that's needed to protect the most delicate synthetics.

Both washer and dryer have special controls to gently care for dainty garments. You should, however, wash and dry them separately from the rest of your laundry.
