Students Become Teachers' Aides At Junior High

Recent weeks have seen some 25 seventh and eighth grade students working as teacher assistants in primary classes at Heppner Elementary school. This is a volunteer program in which the teacher assistant works with a primary teacher for one period each week, helping with individuals and small groups. The student also takes the individual responsibility to make up any classwork missed while assisting the primary teacher.

Some of the reactions of those students involved so far are: "It makes me feel important." "It gives the teachers more time to work with other kids that need help."

"It's fun! I wish we could do it more often."

"I really enjoy it. I think it helps us all too. I'm always waiting for Wednesday."

"I believe that this is one of the best things that has ever happened at Heppner Junior High. It not only helps the teachers but it helps the students also. It is fun and you learn how to get along with other people younger than yourself and how they tick."

The teacher assistant program is designed to aid the teacher by having the assistant work with individuals and small groups. This is an extra experience for the primary students because the number of students in class sometimes prevents the teacher from giving as much individual attention as they might like.

What is the response of the teachers? "The assistant program has helped."

"My students are getting extra reading experience."

"The program is satisfactory — only I want someone for Thursday and Friday also!"

"I am very pleased with my teacher assistants. In math they are working on teaching combinations. The reading assistant works with my group who need individual attention."

Armin Freeman, guidance counsellor at the school states, "We believe the teacher assistant program is a rewarding experience for our students. It also is our feeling that our young people are doing an excellent job as teacher assistants. Parents and community, I am sure, would be proud to see the involvement in this program."

"If there is a problem involved, it is only, 'How can we involve the other 30 or so volunteers who are anxious to try their hand?'"

Other guidance programs at the school have seen the seventh grade students completing a vocational unit and the eighth grade involved in a self-evaluation unit.

HHS Student Places In FBLA Contest

Jarri Lee, Heppner High school junior, placed second in the Shorthand II division of the District Skills Contest at Hermiston Saturday, March 23. The contest was sponsored by the Future Business Leaders of America.

Several other FBLA members from Heppner competed. Marsha Lovgren, local chapter president, entered the spelling division. Sue Melby, Mary Kay Hughes, and Sue Jepsen competed in Typing I. Kay Huson was entered in the Shorthand I section and in Typing II.

Other contests, which had no local participants, were the 10-key adding machine and the bookkeeping.

The contest this year was also open to students who do not belong to the FBLA. Schools competing in the District Contest, besides Heppner, were Hermiston, Pendleton, Mac High, Stanfield, Echo, Prineville, and Umatilla.

The next contest will be held during the State FBLA Convention in Corvallis, April 19 and 20.

Single copies of The Gazette-Times are on sale at the G-T office, at the Hotel Heppner, at Murrays Rexall Drug and at Central Market.

Naffziger says, "I am very pleased with the turnout. There is a lot of talent in this group of boys, but I won't know what their best abilities are for a couple of weeks. There are a lot of inexperienced kids on the team, but I think they will be full of surprises."

The track team's first meet is Friday, March 29, at Umatilla. Umatilla, Heppner, and Pilot of Rock will participate in the meet, which will start at 3 p.m.

Red Cross Cards Issued to Two Winter Classes

A class of 17 persons completed the advanced American Red Cross First Aid course last week, and were presented cards for their achievement by their instructors.

Those who were enrolled in the advanced course were Jean Rasmussen, Harold Shaffer, Anna Schwarz, Margaret Britner, Sue Vinson, Darrell Vinson, Evelyn Sweek, Gladys Connor, Stella McCarty, Frank Connor, Donald Rigby, Maxine Schmidt, Belinda Gregg, Hattie Harnden, Betty Bailey, Edith Case and Helen Salter.

Those who had completed the earlier standard course were Margaret Britner, Anna Schwarz, Leona Hale, Ron Britner, Bethal Heinrichs, Sue Vinson, Catherine Emert, Melvin McDaniel, Ella Smith, June Crowell, Wilma Hill, Alice Methvin, Delores McLachlan, Darrell Vinson, Eunice McEligott, Loa McEligott, Frank Connor, Maxine Schmidt, Joan Rasmussen, Claudia Campbell, Yvonne Daly, Maxine Hershey, Belinda Gregg, Helen Salter, Betty Bailey, Ruby Munkers, Alta Pierce, Stella McCarty, Edna Bailey, Gladys Connor and Hattie Harnden.

Admission of $1 for adults and 50c for students will be charged, with proceeds to go to the sponsoring organization for use in its projects, supporting a larger sports program for girls.

Funeral Service Held In Hermiston Chapel For Eugene Wardwell

Funeral services were held March 21 for Eugene D. Wardwell, 57, a former Lexington resident, who had made his home in Hermiston for the past six years. Mr. Wardwell died Tuesday, March 19, at the Umatilla Army Depot, where he was an employee.

The Wardwell family was well known in this area when they lived on the Harry Duvall ranch from 1951 to 1961. They had previously lived in Hermiston, from 1940-1951, and later returned there.

Services were held at the Burns Mortuary Chapel in Hermiston on Thursday, March 21, at 10:30 a.m., with the Rev. H. C. Humphrey officiating. Burial was in the Hermiston cemetery.

Surviving are his widow, Oleta, of Hermiston; parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wardwell of Clinton, Okla.; two sons, Eugene of Milton-Freewater and Dan of Hermiston; two daughters, Gloria Scalf of Portland and Jeanette Taylor of Seattle, Wash.; brothers, Wilbur of The Dalles, Devon and Harvel, both of Portland, and Bill of Fort Sill, Okla.; sisters, Ruth Wardwell and Florence Olson, both of Portland, Viola Gibbs of Almagordo, N. M., and Anne Arter of Salinas, Calif., also eight grandchildren.

Jennifer, Kathy and Karen Blake, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake, former Heppner residents who now make their home in Monmouth, spent part of their spring vacation here last week with their grandmother, Mrs. Snoda Blake. They are students at Central High school, where Jennifer is a senior and Kathy and Karen are juniors.

JIM SHERMAN

Sherman to Play In Music in May

Jim Sherman, Heppner High school senior, has been selected to participate in Pacific University's 20th annual Music in May in Forest Grove on May 2, 3, and 4. Arnie Hedman, instrumental music teacher, announces.

The event is for outstanding high school musicians from throughout the northwest and some 500 students are chosen from approximately 1200 applications, according to information from Albert M. Freedman, director of Music in May at Pacific.

Sherman, who has participated in band during three of his four high school years and also played in grade school band, will play the tuba at Music in May. He is now practicing music that will be used in the event.

The high school senior directed the Pep Band at school this year, also playing the saxophone, and is one of the four Henchmen, combo that has proven very popular with the younger set throughout eastern Oregon. He plays lead guitar with this group.

After two days of workshops and musical clinic work, students participating in Music in May will join for massed concerts.
