

Ruth Chapter, OES, Hosts District Meet; Plans for Reception

Ruth Chapter, No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star, was hostess for a district meeting with the Ione Locust chapter, No. 119, Monday evening, March 25, in the Heppner Masonic hall.

At this time, an official visitation was made by the Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Mrs. Elbridge Woodard of Portland.

A potluck dinner preceded the business meeting, after which lodge work was put on by members of the Ione Locust chapter.

Among special guests in attendance was Helen Stankovich, Grand Representative of Iowa in Oregon, who accompanied Mrs. Woodard on her trip.

Other invited guests who attended the meeting were visiting worthy matrons and worthy patrons who represented Pendleton, Hermiston, and Milton-Freewater chapters.

Chapter members are busy planning the upcoming reception for Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, who holds the office of Grand Ruth of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. The reception will be held on Saturday evening, April 27.

Clines Travel East For Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cline and family have returned from a three week vacation, which they spent visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Cline, and other relatives in Hartshorne, Okla.

A highlight of the vacation trip was a family reunion, which was attended by several of Cline's brothers and sisters and their families.

Enroute to his parent's home, they encountered unseasonable weather conditions in the form of a severe blizzard in Oklahoma City, which hampered their travel conditions somewhat.

While on vacation, the Cline family traveled to Benton, Ark., to visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allen, and family before returning home.

Food Sale Planned

A bake food sale will be held by the American Legion Auxiliary on Saturday, April 13, officers of the auxiliary announce. Place of the sale will be announced next week.

Mrs. Nellie Anderson returned to her home in Heppner after spending six weeks in California at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willis Roller in Los Altos Hills. While vacationing, Mrs. Anderson also consulted with ear specialists about a recurring ear ailment. She visited in Atascadero and Baywood Park with relatives before returning home March 19.

MISS MARILYNN ANN SCALESE

Parents Announce Daughter's Betrothal

The engagement of Miss Marilyn Ann Scalse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. "Skippy" Scalse of Portland, to LeRoy A. Gardner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gardner of Heppner, has recently been announced by the bride-elect's parents.

Miss Scalse and her family were former residents of Pendleton. She was graduated from Pendleton High school in 1965, attended Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande, and is presently a junior at Oregon State University.

Her fiancé was graduated from Heppner High school in 1963 and received his degree at Eastern Oregon College in March. He is now in basic training with the U. S. Navy in San Diego.

The couple is making plans for a June wedding, to be held at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner.

Mrs. Spencer Visits Daughters in Area

A former Heppner resident, Mrs. Bruce Spencer, spent several days here visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark and family, and with friends. Mrs. Spencer arrived at the Pendleton airport on Friday, March 22, from Shafter, Calif., with another daughter, Mrs. Ellis Ball and children, whom she had accompanied on the trip. Mrs. Ball has been visiting her parents in California for several weeks following her husband's departure for Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark traveled to Pendleton last Tuesday with Mrs. Spencer, from where she traveled on to Portland by plane to visit with another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bryant, before returning to her home in California.

Society AND Clubs

Honorary Teachers Elect Mrs. Bechdolt Incoming President

Mrs. Adrian C. Bechdolt was elected president for the coming year of the Iota Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, an international honorary society for women teachers, at its last meeting, held March 23 in Milton-Freewater.

Mrs. Bechdolt, who lives in Hardman, has been teaching in the Heppner Elementary school for the past 23 years and has been a member of the Delta Kappa Society for approximately 15 years. She will assume her office at the formal initiation of new members in September.

Also attending the meeting in Milton-Freewater was Mrs. L. E. Dick of Heppner, who was elected corresponding secretary of the Iota Chapter. Other teachers from this area making the trip were Mrs. Franklin Ely of Ione and Miss Alice Riley of Heppner.

After the luncheon at Saturday's meeting, members heard a challenging address by David Baldwin, director of the Umatilla Indian Mission, who discussed the cultural background and the future place in society of the American Indian.

Local Men Observe Gilliam Jaycees Get Charter at Banquet

Officers of the Morrow County Jaycees attended a charter banquet for the Gilliam county Jaycee club in Condon last Friday, March 29.

Master of ceremonies for the affair was Ron Bryant, Oregon Jaycee vice president. Immediately following the banquet, installation of Gilliam county Jaycee officers was conducted by Don Jimerson, president of the Oregon Jaycee organization.

Guest speaker for the evening was Roger Jenkins, vice president of the United States Jaycees.

The Gilliam county group has a total of 22 charter members and officers, headed by Loren Byrd, president. The club, which was organized in February, received its international Jaycee charter from Milo Haas, director of the Oregon Jaycees, and presentation of the United States Jaycee charter was made to the group by Ed Patterson, United States Jaycee director.

Those representing the Heppner club at the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hollomon, and Bob Hager. Dancing was held in the Condon Elk's Lodge immediately following.

Jaycee Wives Plan For District Meeting

Morrow county Jaycee Wives met last Monday evening, April 1, in the Heppner Neighborhood Center to finalize plans for the coming Jaycee meeting of District 13, to be held in Heppner on Sunday, April 21, at the Legion hall. The meeting was led by Mrs. Clyde Allstott, general chairman of the entertainment committee, who appointed members to various committees to prepare for the coming event.

A food sale will be held Friday, April 5, at Central Market between the hours of 3-6 p.m., to raise funds to sponsor entertainment for wives of Jaycees who will attend the coming meeting.

Mayor Among Guests At Prayer Breakfast

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosewall traveled to Portland the past week-end where the Heppner mayor attended the 10th annual Oregon Governor's Prayer Breakfast on Saturday morning, March 30. About 800 guests responded to the invitation of Governor Tom McCall to attend the 8:00 a.m. breakfast in the grand ballroom of the Hilton Hotel.

Guest speaker for the morning program was Stanley W. Burris, vice-president of Lockheed Aircraft Corp., and special musical numbers were by the Judson Baptist church choir. Hillman Lueddeman served as chairman of the sponsoring committee.

Unit Meets Tuesday At Watkins Home

Monthly meeting of the Heppner Extension Unit is announced for Tuesday, April 9, at the home of Mrs. A. S. Watkins on the Heppner-Lexington highway.

The potluck luncheon and meeting will begin at 11:45 a.m., with those attending asked to bring a favorite "quick trick" dish for the luncheon, and a copy of the recipe to share with other members.

Floral Workshop Set

IONE — Mrs. Omar Rietmann, president of the Ione Garden club, urges anyone interested in learning to arrange flowers to attend the workshop to be held on Tuesday, April 9, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Social Rooms of the Ione United Church of Christ. There will be demonstrations, displays, and individual help for those who have some special type of arranging need. "Bring along some vases and real or artificial flowers", urges Mrs. Rietmann.

Walter Rood of Elgin, father of Jerry Rood of Heppner, is reported to be coming along fine following surgery in Grande Ronde hospital, La Grande, Monday after sustaining a broken hip in a fall. Mr. and Mrs. Rood and daughter went to La Grande Monday to be near him at the time of the operation. They reported Tuesday that he is showing very good improvement after the operation but will be confined to the hospital for several weeks.

Response Appreciated For Hausler Benefit

IONE — The Hausler Benefit dance held Saturday evening at the Ione American Legion Hall was attended by a large number of teenagers and adults who listened and danced to the music of The Changing Times, Rietmann's Orchestra, and the Quackenbush band. Mrs. Janet Lindstrom, president of Beta Omega sorority, estimated the total from the dance and from donations would be over $300.00. The membership of the sorority wishes to thank all those who attended and others who made donations to the project. The generosity of all was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Lindstrom said, "the sorority is very grateful to all residents who have been so cooperative in this and in all the chapter's projects in the past 15 years."

Mrs. Melby Home After Operation

Mrs. Arnold (Avon) Melby returned home Tuesday and is showing good improvement following surgery in St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, Friday. She entered the hospital in the middle of last week. It is expected that she will be confined at home for a few days but will be out soon.

Zimmerman-Kizer Engagement Told

MISS BONNIE ZIMMERMAN

Recently announced are the engagement and coming marriage of Miss Bonnie Gene Zimmerman and James P. Kizer. The bride-elect is the daughter of Richard C. Zimmerman of Hermiston and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oran Wright of Heppner. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kizer of Ponca City, Okla. Miss Zimmerman was graduated from Hermiston High school and spent two years in the Peace Corps in India. The young couple met while both were serving as volunteers in the Peace Corps. Both are now attending college at Oklahoma State University.

Plans are being made for their wedding on June 8, to be held at the First Methodist church in Heppner.

Mrs. Bill (Joyce) Johnson is a patient at Pioneer Memorial hospital, where she is undergoing treatment for a back ailment. Mrs. Johnson is a receptionist in the office of Dr. Wallace Wolff.

Notice of Candidacy

I hereby announce my candidacy to succeed myself for the office of Sheriff of Morrow County subject to the will of the Republican voters of Morrow County at the Primary election, May 28, 1968.
