

Robert J. Harmon Taken by Death

Robert James Harmon, 65, was found dead in his room at the Jim Cowins residence on Alford street Tuesday morning, according to Dr. L. D. Tibbles, Morrow county medical examiner.

Cowins said that he noticed Monday evening that Harmon was ill and suggested calling a physician. Dr. Tibbles said Harmon replied that he would wait until the next morning. Cowins went to check on him early Tuesday and found the body.

Harmon, who had resided in Heppner an estimated 17 or 18 years, lived alone in an apartment at the Cowins place.

Funeral arrangements are awaiting word from relatives.

Survivors include two sons, Max Dwayne Harmon of Spokane, Wash., and Marlin Harmon of Boise, Idaho; a niece, Mrs. James Cook of Richland, Wash., and a brother, also of Richland. Harmon was a veteran of World War I and apparently had once served as a brand inspector in the State of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harnett and two children, Sherry and Don, of Portland visited at the home of his mother, Mrs. Rachel Harnett, over Easter weekend. The two children remained to visit with their grandmother until next week-end, when their parents will return for them. Mrs. Harnett will then accompany them to Portland, where she will visit for a week.

Film on Golfing Instruction Set

A highly recommended golf film, "A Modern Approach to Teaching Golf", will be shown at the Episcopal parish hall this Friday evening, April 19, at 7:30 p.m., and the public is urged to attend.

This picture is an especially good one for beginning golfers, and also a good refresher course for experienced golfers. The film of complete instruction is a 16 mm., full color with sound film, produced by the National Golf Foundation with the assistance and supervision of leading college physical education consultants and members of the PGA Educational committee. This is the first golf visual aid of its kind and it is already being acclaimed by experts as one of the finest ever made.

Procured by the Willow Creek Country Club, the golf instruction film is made up of four units: "Welcome to Golf", "Building Your Swing", "Pitching, Puttering and Sand Shots", and "Putting". Length of the film is about one hour and 15 minutes. A charge of 50c per person is being asked for viewing this picture.

School Building, Last Landmark, Joins History

By MARY LEE MARLOW (Held over from last week)

BOARDMAN—The last building in the old town of Boardman disappeared Friday evening about 5 p.m. when the school building, erected in 1917, was burned to the ground. A large crowd was on hand to watch the fire and many cameras were in action, taking pictures of the different stages of the blaze.

After the building was gutted, bulldozers moved in knocking the walls in, and in a matter of a few hours the last remaining landmark of the old town was a thing of the past. The Riverside High school finished its moving during the afternoon, and after a week of spring vacation will reconvene April 15 in the new school.

Students of Riverside High school presented a petition to the Boardman City Council Tuesday night of last week for them to paint the school colors on the new overhead storage water tank, or a picture of a pirate in honor of the Riverside Pirates. Mayor Dewey West appointed Joe Tate, Ronald Black and Shirley Zielinski as a committee to work with the students and the painters to see if it will be feasible.

In other action the council met with the city park committee, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Bernard Donovan, Mrs. Walter Hayes and Mrs. Ronald Black, who gave the council a report on what has been accomplished so far with the park.

Forrest Sullivan of the Hermliston Garbage Collection Agency presented the council with a proposal to renew his contract with the city for five years when the present one expires in June. There was to be a special meeting of the council the evening of April 8 to conduct further business that was not taken care of at the meeting.

There were five tables of pinochle in play at the card party Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Leonard Bedord, sponsored by the Home Economics Club of Greenfield Grange. Mrs. Walter Hayes was co-hostess. High prize was won by Mrs. Ed Kuhn, low went to Mrs. Arthur Allen, and Mrs. Don Downey. Mrs. Ross Stevenson and Mrs. Arnold Classen won pinochle prizes.

Mrs. Andy Jones entertained with a party at her home Wednesday afternoon of last week in honor of her daughter Linda's ninth birthday. Guests included Steve and Charlotte Hilling, David Hug, Mark Altman, Gayle Phillips, Bobbie Risley, Karen Baker, Terry Crowder, Becky Ziemer, Jack Donovan and Linda Skoubo.

The Ladies Aid Society of Boardman Community church met Wednesday afternoon of last week at the church, with Mrs. Harold Rash and Mrs. Leo Potts as hostesses. Mrs. Hazel Miller was in charge of the devotional hour. The afternoon was spent rolling bandages to send to Marjory Benedict, missionary in Africa. Mrs. Emery Lyons
