Volunteer Workers Ready New Park Site

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

(Held over from last week)

IRRIGON—A volunteer crew of about 20 men met Saturday for an old-fashioned community work session at the new boat basin and swimming area.

Under the direction of Park Chairman Orville Buchanan they set forms and poured concrete for a second launching ramp in anticipation of rising water in Lake Umatilla which will be formed behind John Day dam and is scheduled for this week. Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Vestie Elgin served the men coffee and rolls during the work period.

Contractors Peter Kelwit and Sons had completed most of their contract of excavating, grading and driving piling for breakwaters. Only a small amount of cleanup and placement of crushed rock on roadway and parking lot remains.

Vera Cooley joined her mother, Elnora Arbogast, and sister, Gladys Whitaker, in Portland. They traveled to Pomona, Calif., where they visited her brother, Lloyd Arbogast, and his wife. From there they went to Apple Valley, home of Roy and Dale Rogers, where they visited a nephew Joe Bill Bender and Mrs. Bender. They also experienced a California earthquake which they reported gave them a weird, seasick feeling.

The Assembly of God choir, under the direction of Mrs. LaVelle Partlow, presented an Easter cantata entitled, "No Greater Love". Those having solo parts were David Kenney, Mrs. Perry Pummel and Zepha Warner. Bruce Buchanan narrated the Easter story. The younger members of the Sunday School also presented a short program of songs and exercises.

Volunteer firemen were called out Saturday morning to a garage fire at the Harry Towers place. The building was completely destroyed but was fortunately empty at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Linnell are the parents of a daughter, Tia Anne, born April 12 and weighing 7 lb., 9 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart, Tommy and Sharon, returned this week from a trip to California where they visited friends and relatives.

The Easter Parade, sponsored by the Irrigon Lions club, was enjoyed by many on Saturday. Cash awards of a quarter were given to boys and girls having outstanding costumes. Among these were bicycle riders, Cub Scouts and horseback riders. The Brant family came in a covered wagon dressed as pioneers.

Among those contributing to the community affair, which also featured an Easter egg hunt, were the Complete Food Store, Clark's Grocery, the Baptist and Assembly of God churches, 4-H Community Club and Home Extension.

Easter sunrise services at the A. C. Houghton school grounds were well attended in spite of the cold and wind. Rev. Vaughn, pastor of the Baptist church, gave a short message, Pastor Kenney of the Assembly of God offered prayer and a song was presented by Mrs. Al Partlow and Mrs. Harvey Warner.
