

Community Club To Adopt By-Laws

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA—There will be a special meeting of the Kinzua Community Club on Thursday, May 2, in the First Grade room of the schoolhouse at 7:30 p.m.

At this meeting the group will adopt their by-laws and also set a date for a Mother-Daughter banquet.

The card party, sponsored by the Community Club, and held at the Grade School Saturday evening was well attended with 13 tables of cards in play. For pinocle, high went to O. L. Adams and Lucille Bird; low to Jiggs Bowman and Kathryn Flack; traveling went to Everett Stewart and Virginia Sitton. For bridge high went to Ed Wham and Patti Bell with low going to Ernie Wall and Bonnie Campbell.

Milt Boring won the fishing pole donated by the Kinzua Mercantile for a door prize and he then raffled it with Wayland Hyatt being the highest bidder. Lynnea Sargent won the lube job and case of Wink donated by W. C. Freeman with Marj Boring winning the two dinners donated by the Kinzua Cafe.

A White Elephant auction conducted by Dick Sargent created a lot of interest and added more money to the scholarship fund. Assorted pies and coffee was served to all those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferrel of
