Band Carnival Nets About $900

Hailed another great success, the Band Carnival Saturday night at the fair pavilion brought receipts of more than $1300 and will net around $900. Bill Weatherford, president of the high school PTA, one of the sponsoring organizations, said.

Exact amount cannot be determined until all expenses are paid. Paul Warren was general chairman and he was assisted by Mrs. Wallace Wolff, president of the elementary PTA; Arnie Hedman, band director; and Weatherford.

Christy Bradley and John Myers, both sixth graders at Heppner Elementary, won the right to reign as king and queen of the carnival. Christy is daughter of Mrs. Melvin Piper and John is son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Myers of Butter Creek. Both were presented sets of luggage as prizes.

Many parents and youngsters turned out to enjoy dinner and the preceding carnival festivities which contributed to the success of the evening. Mrs. Wolff said.

The visiting Victory Singers from the University of Oregon and Northwest Christian College sang at the dinner.

Winners of door prizes included Mrs. Bud Peck, family ticket; Lisa Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Collins, tape recorder; and Mrs. Dale Holland, the radio.

Dance after the carnival was very well attended with music being furnished by "The Living Souls" of Pendleton. More than $230 was taken in at the gate to aid the receipts total.

Proceeds of the event will go primarily to promoting and supporting the school bands and their activities.

Jaycees Host District Meeting April 21

Approximately 120 Jaycees and wives, representing the eight clubs in District 13, attended the meeting hosted by Morrow county Jaycees on Sunday, April 21, at the American Legion hall.

The day's festivities began with a potluck dinner, after which the afternoon business session was held, with State Vice-president Bob Richards, Wallowa County, presiding.

Business items on the agenda for the afternoon meeting began with a summation by the president of each club of the past year's activities; a report from various committees; selection of a district patch; the decision of the district as a group or "block" to support Ed Patterson of La Grande for state Jaycee president at the state convention to be held next month in Salem; and the selection of Paul Budke of Pilot Rock as a candidate for state vice-president.

Jaycee Wives' activities scheduled for the day included a wig showing, conducted by Mrs. Ray McDowell of Pendleton, after which the ladies enjoyed an afternoon of games and cards. At the closing of the men's business meeting, district officers judged the hats created by participating wives in a spring bonnet designing contest. Sweepstakes winner was Mrs. Daniel Anderson, Heppner, whose original "birdcage bonnet" took the judge's eye. Mrs. Sharon Haslam of Pilot Rock won for the most humorous hat, with a "Bugs Bunny" creation, and Mrs. Barry Crowell, Pendleton, won for the most original design, with her bonnet featuring a dinner place setting.

Wallowa county won the traveling trophy for having the most man miles traveled and will be in possession of the trophy until the next district meeting, which is scheduled for Pilot Rock. Meeting date is to be decided and announced at a later date.
