Girls Have Chance To Enter District Meet at La Grande

Whether the Heppner girls' track team goes to district meet in Burns on May 3 will be determined today (Thursday) by their competition in the meet at La Grande. The field will be tougher than at Pilot Rock last Friday when they captured second place.

Second place in the meet at Pilot Rock April 19 was taken by Heppner, with 37 points. The local girls racked up four firsts and were breezing into another blue ribbon when an inexperienced relay team missed a baton pass and was disqualified.

Linda Clough took the standing broad jump with a 78½" leap. Linda Leonnig got over the 50-yd. hurdles in 7.9, with Linda Clough third in 8.6. Lindy Leonnig took a second first in the 75-yd. dash and also ran on the relay team which won the 440-yd. relay.

Sarah Witherrite was third in the 75-yd. dash in 9.5. Jill Rugg came in second in the shotput, with a 26.6 effort.

Linda Clough ran second in the 220-yd., followed by Ava Green. Their times were 31 and 31.6.

Janet Gentry was fourth in the softball throw, with a heave of 123' and Jill Rugg scored a 41" high jump. Becky Freeman with a 42'10" effort, was fourth in the long jump.

The winning 440-yd. relay team included Sarah Witherrite, Jill Rugg, Linda Clough, and Lindy Leonnig.

Heppner scored eight points in the April 11 meet at Milton-Freewater. Mac HI, with 76 points, and Hermiston Senior High with 23, took first and second places.

Points were won by Mary Ann O'Donnell, who came in second in the 100 yard dash, Lindy Leonnig, who was third in the same event, and Terry Pettyjohn, third in the long jump. Heppner also scored second in the 440-yard relay, run by Sarah Witherrite, Jill Rugg, Linda Clough, and Lindy Leonnig.

Mary Ann O'Donnell's time in the 100 yard dash was 12.9; Lindy Leonnig had 12.95. Terry Pettyjohn jumped 127" in her event, and the relay team ran their event in 58.3, one and a half minute slower than the winners from Mac HI.

Other girls from Heppner who competed in the meet included Jill Rugg, Shannon Farley, Janet Gentry, Becky Freeman, Linda Clough, Debbie McLeod, Trisha Prock, and Ava Green.

Mustangs to Play Umatilla Tuesday

By BOB DOBBS

Heppner High's diamondmen head into a lone varsity clash in the coming week. It is a rematch with the club from Umatilla, and will be played at Umatilla on April 30.

The JV batsmen play their last two games of the season, with Pilot Rock and Umatilla, on April 29 and 30. The tilt with the Rockets will be played at Pilot Rock, and the game with Umatilla will follow the varsity tilt April 30.

There is little to be said on behalf of the Horsemen that hasn't already been said.

It wasn't so many years ago that the boys who are now juniors and seniors put together a great junior high club.

The HHS club is playing good ball, but not up to its ability. There is no chance of the Horsemen pulling into the district playoffs, but fans would like to see them win these games which are coming up.
