

Local Teachers Hold Honor Society Offices

Mrs. Adrian Becholdt was installed as president for the coming year of the Iota Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, an international honor society for women educators, at the monthly luncheon meeting of the chapter in Hermiston on Saturday, April 20. Mrs. Becholdt is a third grade teacher in the Heppner Elementary school.

Installed as corresponding secretary was Mrs. L. E. Dick, English and Journalism teacher at Heppner High school.

Dr. Margaret McDevitt of Pendleton, well known in this area for her art instruction, was the guest speaker following the dinner.

Others from this area who attended the meeting were Mrs. Franklin Ely of Ione, Miss Alice Riley of Heppner, and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier of Arlington, and formerly of Heppner.

Lodge Represented At State Convention

Ten local lodge members representing Kate J. Young, Lodge No. 29, attended the Degree of Honor convention held April 24-25 in Portland at the Cosmopolitan Motor Hotel.

Lodge members participated in the banquet and business session by escorting and introducing state and national officers. Those attending from this area included Mrs. Ed Hunt, president; Mrs. Clara Gertson, Mrs. Earl Soward, Mrs. Adolph Majeske, Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. Ron Haguewood, Mrs. Alice Luttrell, Mrs. Ed La Trace, Mrs. Bill Farra, and Mrs. Pete McMurry. Mrs. Gertson serves as state director and national Degree of Honor treasurer and Mrs. Farra is a past state officer.

Preparations are being made for inspection on May 14, at which time Mrs. Bertha Chisolm, state president; Mrs. Grace Hyatt, past state president; and Mrs. Rita Rose, recently elected second vice president, will attend. Entertainment will feature the Ione kitchen band and a western theme will be used throughout the meeting.

Several Observe Merit Mothers Receive Awards

By DIANA KINCAID

IONE—Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, accompanied by her husband and son, Frank, traveled to Salem on April 23 for ceremonies that honored her as an Oregon Merit Mother of 1968. Attending the morning brunch at the Marion Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers, Mrs. Larry Prock and Lori, Mrs. Hershal Townsend and Mrs. Omar Rietmann. Rainbow girls attending the morning activities were Kathy Cannon, Cindy Ekstrom, and Nancy Ashurst.

The afternoon presentations were made by Gov. Tom McCall at 2:00 in the State Capitol building to Mrs. Halvorsen and seven other women. Other relatives and friends who were able to attend in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender, Mrs. Raymond Hoffman, Mrs. Max Muller, Mrs. Blanche Scheelar and Mrs. Don Scheelar, all of Salem. Mrs. Jim Johnson also took the following Rainbow girls to Salem: Willa Johnson, Terri O'Connor, Connie Emort, Charlene Hamlett, Tanya Tucker, and Debbie Warren.

Mrs. Gene Rietmann was surprised with a baby shower on Wednesday evening, April 24, held at the home of Mrs. Bill Rietmann. Two tables of bridge and one table of pinocle were in play with prizes won given to the honoree, Mrs. Ray Boyce served refreshments, following cards, to the following guests: Mrs. Bob Jepsen, Mrs. Herb Ekstrom, Mrs. Gene Hall, Mrs. Bob Rietmann, Mrs. Pete Cannon, Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mrs. Art Lindstrom, and Mrs. Larry Fetsch.

Two Ione girls, Janet Palmateer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Palmateer, and Jodi Snow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snow, will be princesses on the Arlington Rodeo court serving with Queen Donna Mikkelo this week-end, May 4 and 5. Princess Janet will ride her quarterhorse, "Flicka," as she represents the Ione 4-H Horse club. Princess Jodi represents the Gilliam county 4-H Horseflies and will ride her quarter horse, "Fawn."

Mr. and Mrs. Chad Shaw of Junction City were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Peterson and family were recent visitors in Portland at the home of Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hanson.

Lee O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, flew to Tucson, Ariz., this week as a delegate from the University of Oregon to the Model United Nations held on the University of Arizona campus. Universities from eight western states participated in the event. Miss O'Connor was also able to do some sightseeing in Mexico before she returned home on Sunday.

Bob Jepsen has been chosen to represent the Oregon Wheat Growers League as a member of the Board of Directors of the Wheat and Wheat Foods Foundation. Jepsen is in Chicago this week attending meetings of the Foundation. He also will visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood in Chicago.

Mrs. Amanda Warfield is currently receiving treatment at the Pendleton Community hospital. Susan Baker arrived home by airplane on April 14 from Kaneahe, Oahu, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Baker. Susan, who has been working as a secretary there for the past year, plans to enter the University of Hawaii in the fall. Traveling with Miss Baker was Leiana Hapu who greatly enjoyed her first visit to the mainland.

Mrs. Alice A. Stockard, mother of James Stockard of Butter Creek and Mrs. Patricia Kincaid, died Sunday evening at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton, following a long illness. She is survived by her husband, Vic; two brothers, Edward Maurus, The Dalles, and Leonard Maurus, Jr., Wasco; stepfather, Leonard Maurus, Wasco; and eight grandchildren. Funeral services were held in Hermiston on Wednesday with interment in Stanfield.

We're Concerned

We're vitally concerned with restoring a thriving, enterprising agricultural climate. We need new leadership at the top. We believe that this leadership can and must be provided by Richard M. Nixon. He has the needed abilities and the common sense to restore the farm community to its rightful place on the American scene. We are now organizing the Oregon Nixon agricultural committee to support Richard M. Nixon for President in the May 28th primary. We invite you folks in farming and in related agricultural fields to join us.
