

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn were hosts for a potluck dinner at their home on Saturday to eight friends who formerly worked with Mrs. Cohn at National Bank of Commerce in Yakima. The visitors enjoyed touring the town and were quite interested in its historical background, as Harold Cohn is a nephew of Henry Heppner, for whom the town was named.

Fire Prevention Demonstration Set

Kinzua chapter members of the Timber Operators Council, Inc., and Heppner firemen will participate in a fire prevention demonstration at the Kinzua mill site here Saturday afternoon, May 4, at 2:30. Dick Sargent, acting chairman of the Kinzua safety chapter, announces.

The program on fire prevention in the mills and shops will be presented by Ray Van Marter of Sanderson Safety Supply Co., Portland. He will discuss prevention of fires, control of fires and safety factors at and around fires. The demonstration that he will present will aim at showing how to control fires, once they have started.

An invitation has been extended to Heppner firemen to attend, and Chief Forrest Burkenbine said that he is hoping for a good turnout of volunteers.

Pinocle Club Meets For Evening Play
