

WORTHY ADVISOR SARA MILLER

Sara Miller Crowned Rainbow Worthy Advisor

At impressive formal ceremonies Sunday afternoon, May 12, Miss Sara Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Miller, Heppner, was crowned Worthy Advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, International Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Following the welcome by Mrs. Rachel Harnett, mother advisor, installing officers were introduced, which included Jill Padberg, worthy advisor; Charlene Hamlett of the Ione Assembly, chaplain; Linda Heath, recorder; Jan (Hager) Evans, marshal, and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, musician.

Incoming officers were introduced and escorted to their stations. Serving for the coming term will be: Sara Miller, worthy advisor; Teresa Harshman, worthy associate advisor; Patti Howell, charity; Sue Melby, hope; Cindy Harsin, faith; Teresa Wright, drill leader; Jill Scott, love; Tami Meador, religion; Bobette Jones, nature; Linda Baker, immortality; Linda Cooper, fidelity; Marie Van Marter, patriotism; Cathy Sherman, service; Karen Cox, confidential observer; Peggy Taylor, outer observer; Christie Taylor, musician; Diane McLachlan, choir director, and Patti O'Hara, choir member.

Crowning ceremonies followed the installation by members of Blue Mountain Chapter of DeMolay, Hermiston, under the leadership of Boyd Thomas, Jr., master counselor.

Worthy Advisor Sara has chosen as her theme for office, the scripture passage, "And God said: I do set My bow in the cloud." (Genesis 9: 12, 13). Her chosen colors were those of "the rainbow", with pink and white used predominately in decorations in the reception rooms. In her honor, Teresa Harshman read favorite scripture verses from the Book of Genesis re-

MRS. LULU WRIGHT

Celebration Honors Lulu Wright on 90th Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Lulu Wright, lifetime resident of Oregon, celebrated her 90th birthday on Sunday, April 28, at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Lyle (Lulu) Cole in Portland.

Mrs. Wright is a pioneer of Morrow county, coming here at the age of five with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Munkers, and two sisters, from the Willamette Valley. They lived at Weston for a year then moved to Eightmile, taking up a homestead there. Her father was one of the builders of the Liberty schoolhouse, where she got her first schooling.

She is the eldest of 10 children, with one brother, Roy, and one sister, Myrtle, living. She married Sylvanus Wright on December 24, 1895. Six of their children were born in Morrow county and two were born in Grant county. Three of her children, Mrs. Dellie Matlock, Mrs. Mabel Gale and Russell Wright, are living. She also has six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Wright makes her home in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Dellie Matlock, 3600 North Baldwin St.
