

Ione Topic Club Elects Officers

By DIANA KINCAID
 IONE — Topic Club members gathered at the home of Mrs. Milton Morgan on Friday for their May meeting. Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom was assisting hostess. Special guest speaker was Mrs. Harold Huber who presented a very interesting program on wild flowers which was illustrated with mounted dry specimens. During the business meeting Mrs. Norman Nelson was elected to serve as president for the coming year with Mrs. Vic Rietmann as vice president. Mrs. Roy Lindstrom was elected secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Milton Morgan was re-elected librarian.

Guests in attendance were Mrs. Ron Umbarger, Mrs. Edwin Kessler, Mrs. Elva Tews of Seattle, and Miss Emma Peterson.

Local delegates to the 6th annual Oregon Conference of the United Church of Christ, held at the First Congregational Church in Eugene, were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson. One of the students appearing on a panel concerning campus ministries at the University of Oregon was Miss Leslie Carlson, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson. Rev. A. Shirley, former pastor here, was also in attendance. Fred Martin was re-elected to serve on the Commission of Church and Ministries on the conference level. While in the Eugene area the Nelsons stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nelson and were able to attend the state track meet. The Martins also visited several relatives and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bieh! and family, former Ione residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan returned home this week from Lake Chelan, Wn., where Morgan attended a meeting of the Tri-State Grain Standards Commission. He has been re-elected as chairman of the commission for the next year. The wheat commissions of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana also held meetings at this time.

Mrs. Esther Dobyms returned from Eugene with the Fred Martins for a visit here with Mrs. Edith Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid and family drove to Idaho the past week-end to attend graduation ceremonies at Middleton High school for Norman Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold

TOP OF THE LIST of attractions at the Ione Auction and Barbecue at Willows Grange Hall on Saturday, June 1, will be the giving away of a prized agate-topped table, valued at $35. Those taking an active part in promoting the auction are Norman Nelson, left; Keith Rea, general chairman, and Bill Rietmann, right.

Prized Table To Be Given At Auction

A beautiful table made of cut and polished agates, petrified wood and crystal, set in black plastic, will be given away free at the Ione United Church of Christ auction and barbecue, to be held at Ione Willows Grange hall on Saturday, June 1. The table is valued at $35.00.

Wright. While there they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Hitchcock, Caldwell, Idaho.

Miss Bonnie Akers, accompanied by her father Berl Akers, recently attended the installation ceremonies for Kathy Morgan as Worthy Advisor of the Condon Rainbow Assembly. Bonnie was introduced and escorted during the program. The following week she was also present at the Arlington Rainbow Assembly when Allison Whitney, grand worthy advisor, paid her official visit.

House guests of Mrs. Fannie Griffith this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Linn, Vernonia, and Mrs. J. W. Howk of Portland.

Harold Beggs has announced that the swimming pool will be opened on June 1 at 2:00 p.m. Gordon Meyers will be lifeguard at the pool again this year. Rates and information about swimming lessons will soon be released in a bulletin from the school office.
