Couple is Honored At Farewell Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Samples, both active members of the Morrow county Jaycees and Jaycee Wives organizations, were honored on Sunday, May 27, at Cutsforth Park at a potluck style family picnic, attended by members of the club, their wives and families.

The gathering was planned as a farewell party for the couple, who will make their home in Pendleton after June 1, where he will be employed at Firestone Tire Co. Samples has worked as a mechanic at Heppner Auto Sales since the family moved to Heppner about two and a half years ago.

The couple was presented a gift from the Jaycee organization by president Jerry Holmstrom in appreciation of their outstanding service to the club.

Other guests for the day's activities were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Smith and family of The Dalles.

Golden Agers to Meet

Regular meeting of the Heppner Golden Age club will be Tuesday evening, June 4, at the Episcopal parish hall. Members and their guests will convene at 7:00 p.m. for a potluck dinner, followed by a variety of entertainment. Attendance has been excellent during recent months, and special invitation is extended senior citizens who have recently returned from winter vacations in the southern states.

Several relatives visited James Lindsay at the Pioneer Memorial hospital last week. Coming from Silverton were his sister, Mrs. Elmer Lorence and his mother, Mrs. Ida King, and here from Seattle were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buck.

Miss Nonda Clark who completed her freshman year at Linfield College this month, is employed for the summer months in the filing department of the Portland Medical Center hospital, according to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark.

Farras Entertain Graduation Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farrar entertained relatives with a coffee hour at their home following graduation ceremonies last Thursday evening.

Guests included several out-of-town relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Aldard, whose son Ivan was a member of the graduating class. Other guests included Dale Adlard, Patty Howell, Mrs. Frankie Cason of Condon; Mrs. Adlard's mother, Mrs. Pearl McConkie; her sister, Mrs. Vina Flanders; Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Shellman and Vivian Hines, all of The Dalles; and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hoffman and daughter, Linda, of Boardman.

New Bride is Guest At Wedding Shower

Attractive arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums centered a white lace covered gift table for the wedding shower given recently in honor of Mrs. Greg Johnston, recent bride, at the home of Mrs. Leon Ball. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Jay Ball and Miss Linda Heath.

Other floral decorations of purple iris, attractively arranged by Mrs. Garry Tullis, decorated the refreshment table, where guests were served a cherry delight dessert with lime punch and coffee.

Mrs. Jay Ball and Miss Linda Heath assisted the new bride in the opening of her gifts, and Miss Pam Johnston kept the gift table.

Special game prizes were won by Mrs. Bill Heath and Teresa Monahan.

Other honored guests were the bride's mother, Mrs. Dall Turner of Heppner, her grandmother, Mrs. Jake Schultz of Prairie City, and Mrs. Sam Johnston, mother of the groom.

The new Mrs. Johnston, whose wedding was an event of Tuesday, May 21, is the former Marilyn Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dall Turner of Heppner.

Abrams' Relatives Here for Graduation

Visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abrams were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abrams of Everett, Wn., and her mother, Mrs. Sara Morrow of Prescott, Ariz., all of whom came to attend graduation exercises last Thursday evening, in which the Abrams' daughter, Frances, was a graduating senior. Following her graduation, Frances plans to spend part of the summer doing junior counseling work at Cove church camp.

Mrs. Morrow, who arrived by plane in Pendleton on Monday, May 20, will remain in Heppner to visit until June 1, when she will depart for Palo Alto, Calif., to visit other relatives.

Clarks to be Honored On 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Clark of Cecil will be honored on their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday afternoon, June 2, with an open house reception at the Vert Clubroom in Pendleton, between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. Host and hostess will be their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Clark, Sr., of La Grande.

All friends and acquaintances are invited to attend. For those who wish to honor the couple there will be a money tree.

MISS TERRIE O'CONNOR
Ione Worthy Advisor

Ceremonies Install Terrie O'Connor New Ione Worthy Advisor

At an impressive formal ceremony Sunday afternoon, May 19, Miss Terrie O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, was crowned Worthy Advisor of Ione Assembly No. 88, International Order of Rainbow for Girls.

To open the ceremony, the installing officers were introduced. Presiding were Willa Johnson, worthy advisor; Sharlene Hamlett, marshal; Sara Miller of Ruth Assembly, chaplain; Teresa Tucker, recorder, and Mrs. Inez Huffman of Heppner, musician.

Incoming officers were introduced and escorted to their stations. Serving for the coming term will be Terrie O'Connor, worthy advisor; Connie Emert, worthy associate advisor; Sharlene Hamlett, charity; Tanya Tucker, hope; Marsha Bail, faith; Betty Greenup, chaplain; Debbie Warren, drill leader; Christina Lindstrom, love; Nancy Ashurst, religion; D-Ann Barnett, nature; Debby McBeth, immortality; Cindy Ekstrom, fidelity; Cathy Cannon, patriotism; Melanie Ball, service; Teresa Stefani, confidential observer; Bonnie Kae Akers, outer observer; Willa Johnson, musician, and Linda Nichols, choir director.

Miss O'Connor knelt at the altar to be crowned by her father, Charles O'Connor. Connie Emert dedicated to her the vocal selection, "The Impossible Dream."

Worthy Advisor Terrie has chosen the colors blue and silver for her term of office and "The Impossible Dream" as her theme. The hall was decorated with appropriate floral arrangements and her theme in silver letters was offset with silver stars.

Parents of the new worthy advisor were escorted to the east where Mrs. O'Connor was presented an orchid corsage and Mr. O'Connor received a boutonniere. The parents expressed their appreciation and presented their daughter with a gift.

Several distinguished guests were present. Introduced were Mrs. Lorraine Irby, Olex, grand deputy; Mrs. Ruby Becket, Heppner, past grand deputy; Bonnie Kae Akers, grand confidential observer; Janet Hanna of Arlington Assembly; Mrs. Nancy Ekstrom, worthy matron of Locust Chapter No. 119, OES; Berl Akers, worshipful master of Ione Lodge No. 120, AF & AM, and several past worthy advisors.

During the good of the order, Miss O'Connor explained her colors and her theme, and presented Willa Johnson with her past worthy advisor's pin. The Ione Choralettes sang three numbers. Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor, presented Willa a gift in tribute for her work of the past term, and Terrie followed with appreciation gifts to Mrs. Halvorsen and Miss Johnson.

Centering the refreshment table was a large white cake decorated with the theme and blue and silver stars and flowers, flanked by spring flowers and silver tapers. Serving were Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and Mrs. Kenneth Clark.

Presiding at the guest book was Luann Clark. Cliff Clark and Larry Snider were in charge of the programs.

Observance Planned For Randall Martins

An open house and old fashioned potluck dinner is being planned to honor Mr. and Mrs. Randall Martin on the observance of their 30th wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 8. Planning the arrangements are their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse.

It will be held at the Randall Martin home on North Fork of Upper McKay Creek, 14 miles east of Pilot Rock, from 12:00 noon throughout the afternoon and evening. All friends and relatives of the honored couple are invited to attend. The couple asks that there be no gifts.

Nichols Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Linda, to Mike Duffloth, son of Mrs. Carol Barrett of Sacramento, Calif.

Linda plans to complete her senior year at Heppner High school next year. Her fiancé attended schools in California and spent two years in service in the Navy. During the summer he will be employed on the Ralph Crum Ranch near Ione.

No definite wedding date is planned.

MRS. DOROTHY BROWN

Speaker Tells Group Of Home Accessories On Achievement Day

Right accessories make your home liveable. This was one of the tips which persons who attended the Morrow County Home Extension Achievement Day received Wednesday, May 15. The meeting was held at the Heppner fair pavilion.

Mrs. Dorothy Brown, extension home furnishing specialist at Oregon State University, developed the theme for the event by suggesting basic guides to follow when using accessories in the home, and through use of colored slides.

This annual homemaker's event was planned by the County Home Extension Committee with Mrs. Gladys Connor, Heppner, serving as general chairman.

Other Achievement Day chairmen were Mrs. Ola Ruggles, Heppner, for decorations; Mrs. Beverly Wright, Hardman, for program cover; Mrs. Marjorie Acok, Irrigon, hospitality, and Mrs. Bea Luciani, Butter Creek, programs and invitations.

Mrs. Dorris Graves, Hardman, mistress of ceremonies, introduced Clarence Rosewall, mayor of Heppner, who extended a welcome to the city and told of the many advantages of living in Heppner. Special guests introduced included Walter Hayes, county commissioner, Boardman, and Mrs. Jeanne Megy, Milton, district director of Oregon Home Economics Extension Council.

Entertainment was furnished by the Ione Kookie Kutters kitchen band. Group singing was led by Mrs. Jean Nelson with Mrs. Marjorie Miller accompanying.

Home Extension Unit lessons for 1968-69 were announced by the Morrow County Extension office to include: Meat Series Part II, The Growing World of Packaging, Basic Landscaping, Part II, New Fabrics and Finishes, and Care of Resilient Floors. A tentative program of workshops will include: refinishing wood furniture, pattern fitting and alteration and sewing with knits.
