

Soroptimist Reports Summarize Projects In Community Work

Accomplishments of the Soroptimist club of Heppner during the past year were heard in final reports of committee chairmen at the last luncheon meeting, June 6, with Mrs. Bill Johnson presiding.

Members were urged to remember Mrs. Etta Parker, a life member of the club, with cards and greetings during her convalescence in Hiersche's Nursing Home in Pendleton, following surgery in the Community hospital there last month.

During meetings last month reports were heard from Mrs. Elaine George, vice-president, on the Northwestern Regional Conference in Kalspell, Mont., which she attended as representative of the club. She reported a registration of 275 officers and members from the region, with 83 of the 97 clubs represented. Brookings was recognized as the club traveling the farthest distance, 984 miles. Presiding over the convention sessions was Regional Governor Bernadine Batters of Vancouver, Wash., who is succeeded by Mrs. Lois Jacobson of Whitefish, Mont., elected for the coming term. Regional citizenship award winner was announced as Peggy Joan Nelson of Great Falls, Mont., with Merri Lee Jacobs of Heppner High school, one of the four finalists.

New club constitution, by-laws and standing rules are being prepared under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Starke.

Community and club projects which were carried out during the year were summarized in the annual report of Mrs. Elaine George, service objectives committee chairman.

The following service projects were included: built and entered float in fair and rodeo parade; sponsored 4-H Style Show award of $5; sent $25 to Soroptimist club of Fairbanks, Alaska, for their flood victim project; wrapped gifts in cooperation with Red Cross for boys in Vietnam; presented individual guest books to permanent care patients at Pioneer Memorial hospital on Valentines Day; renewed subscription to Life Magazine for hospital patients; sent money contributions to Eastern Oregon hospital for needed equipment; to Oregon TB & Health association, March of Dimes Heart Fund, Cancer Fund, Red Cross Christmas seals and Easter Seals; prepared and delivered Christmas food baskets to men without families; $20 donation to Heppner Public Library for new youth books; $20 donation to Heppner Pep Band toward expenses to state basketball tournament; sent Heppner and Morrow county literature to sister club in Folkestone, England; registered visit-

Birthday Observed At Family Gathering

Lincoln Nash, surprised on the occasion of his 65th birthday, greeted friends and relatives at his home on Sunday, June 9, at a family lawn supper.

Many relatives attended in honor of the occasion to wish him well on the special date. Several attended from Hood River, including Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Marius Nash and their great granddaughter, Mrs. Effie Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vasberg, Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Applegate and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nogowski and two children. Also, Mrs. Ava Baseel of Westport, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor and family, all of Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and children of Ione.

Mrs. Ava Baseel of Westport, Wn., arrived Saturday, June 8, to visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen and family. Special occasion on Sunday for the Jensen family was that the oldest Jensen child, seven-year-old Jody received his first holy communion at St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Mrs. Joan Thompson and daughter, Ramona, plan to leave Heppner early next week for Guadalajara, Mexico, where Mrs. Thompson will take summer courses offered by the University of Arizona. She will devote her time to the study of the history of Mexico and geography of Mexico and Latin America. Mrs. Thompson will return to Heppner about August 8. She plans to teach the sixth grade at Heppner Elementary next year.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Con Adkins during the Memorial holidays were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adkins and five children, of Vancouver, Wash.

Former Heppner Girl Weds Portland Man In Church Ceremony

The wedding ceremony uniting Miss Carole Lynn Burkenbine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Burkenbine, to Robert John Schmorl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmorl, all of Portland, was an event of March 9 at the Holy Trinity Lutheran church, with the Reverend M. Roderick Anderson officiating.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length empire waist styled gown of embroidered lace over satin. Her floor length tulle veil, with attached shoulder length illusion veil, was held in place with an organza head piece. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses with streamers of stephanotis and white ribbons fashioned in love knots and bows.

Candlelighters for the ceremony were Anne Burkenbine and Kathleen Schmorl, sisters of the bride and groom, who wore floor length, plum colored velvet dresses and wrist corsages of blue carnations.

Maid of honor was Beth Elliott. Flower girl was Allison Smith, cousin of the bride, who carried a basket of blue carnations and greenery and wore a crown of blue carnations.

Maid of honor and bridesmaids, Vickie Kreimeyer and Sue Richard, wore a-line floor length gowns of light blue crepe with overdresses of matching georgette.

Best man was Terry Wright and ushers were Mike Mino and Jay Burkenbine, all of Portland.

Victor Kreimeyer, former Heppner resident and friend of the bride's family, sang several musical selections accompanied by Mrs. Kreimeyer.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the couple greeted friends and relatives at a reception at the Holy Trinity Lutheran reception hall. Decorations of silver candleabra, blue carnations, white gladiolus, and croton leaves were used about the rooms. The tiered bridal cake, was decorated with white roses and blue forget-me-nots. The miniature bride and groom atop the cake was the same used on the bride's parents wedding cake.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Rose McCoy, great aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Jessie Simon, great aunt of the groom, who poured punch and coffee. Gift table attendant was Mrs. Jan Adameck of Seattle and guest book was kept by Mrs. Kenneth Wright of Heppner.

For their wedding trip to the coast, the bride designed her going away ensemble of a camel colored dress with matching suede trimmed jacket and hat.

The couple is at home in Portland, where Mrs. Schmorl is studying at the University of Oregon Medical school. Schmorl, who just returned from a two year tour of duty in Germany, is currently enrolled at Portland Community college.

Mrs. Emma Hager accompanied her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hager, to her home here Monday after visiting in Corvallis. While visited several days with her son-in-law and daughter, Col. and Mrs. Clayton Shaw, she attended OSU graduation on June 2 when their oldest son, Rob, received his degree, and saw their other son, Steve, get his diploma from Corvallis High school on June 4.
