

Reception Planned For RAM Officers On Anniversary Year

Celebration of the 75th anniversary of Heppner Chapter No. 26, Royal Arch Masons, will also be the occasion for a public reception which will honor two members of the local lodge who hold positions of honor in the order.

The reception on Saturday, June 15, will honor Paul Jones, grand king of the order, and Harold Becket, district deputy grand high priest.

The evening program will begin with a no-host dinner served in the fellowship rooms of the First Christian church at 6:30 p.m. This will be followed by a special program in the Masonic Hall at 8:00 p.m., with many grand Masonic dignitaries expected to be present, including Grand High Priest Charles Gould of Medford. It is expected that a gathering of 80 or more representatives will attend from out of town.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Vilas J. Brown of Portland, past grand high priest. Companion Brown, widely known throughout the northwest as a most capable speaker, will address the gathering on the theme, "Buried Treasures."

There will be entertainment to commemorate the 75th anniversary and a special history of the Heppner Chapter has been published through the efforts of Larry Cook, historian, and will be distributed at the meeting.

The celebration and reception will replace the outdoor mountain degree meeting which has become a tradition with the local chapter at this time of the year.

The public is cordially invited to attend the program and extend greetings to the honored officers, and to members who have had historical influence in work of the chapter.

Mrs. Lucy Castle, mother of Lynn Pearson, has been visiting in Heppner for several days while caring for the family while Mrs. Pearson attended the Oregon annual Convention of the Methodist church, held the past week in Salem. The Pearsons accompanied Mrs. Castle to her home in Walla Walla on Tuesday.

Week-end guests following Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Furlong were Mrs. J. M. (Bessie) Harrington, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cowdrey and their son and family, the James Cowdreys and baby, all of Vancouver, Wash.

Engaged Couple Plans Marriage in Athens

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Barbara Gribble, Heppner, to Airman First Class Larry Michael Derrick, now stationed in Athens, Greece, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Gribble, parents of the bride-elect. Airman Derrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Derrick of Baker.

Miss Gribble plans to leave by jet plane for Athens, Greece, on July 15. The couple will exchange their marriage vows in the Air Force Base Chapel the following day, Tuesday, July 16, at an 8:00 p.m. ceremony. They expect to live in Greece for the next two years while Larry is completing his assignment there, where he is attached to the Security Police of the U. S. Air Force.

Airman Derrick attended the University of Oregon prior to entering service. He spent two years with the U. S. Air Force in Korea before his assignment in Greece. Miss Gribble has just completed her sophomore year at Eastern Oregon College, La Grande. She was a graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1966.

Couple is Honored At Unique Shower

A "can-can shower," featuring gifts of canned goods wrapped in unique and humorous packages, was held Saturday evening, June 1, in the Christian church basement social rooms in honor of Ronald Jones and his fiancée, Monica Anne Green of Salem.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Anita Stockard, Mrs. Paul Arbogast and Mrs. George Griffith of Ione.

Guests came in couples and an evening of games and prizes was enjoyed.

A beautifully decorated cake in the shape of two wedding bells with miniature bride and groom on the top was served with punch and coffee by the hostesses. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Arbogast.

Colors of the decorations and refreshments carried out the blue and white color scheme, which Miss Green has chosen for their wedding on Saturday, June 15. Invitation to the ceremony is printed separately in this week's paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Albert, formerly of North Powder, have moved to Heppner where they will make their home following his retirement May 31 as livestock officer for the Oregon Department of Agriculture for Umatilla, Walla Walla, Union and Baker counties. They are making their home on West Church street, in the former Millie Doolittle residence.
