IRRIGON NEWS

(Held over from last week)
 Debbie McCoy visited her sister, Susan, for a week after attending the Jr. Olympics in Portland. Susan has been a student at Oregon State University the past year and will be at home during the summer. The two also attended the Rose Festival.
 Rev. and Mrs. John Kenney left for their vacation this week. They expect to join their daughter, Mary, at Tracy, Calif., where she teaches school. While there they plan to visit several points of interest including Yosemite Park.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dick Botts of Ontario were guests of the Ed-wilson family this week. They were moving to Portland.
 Mrs. Chas. Wilson is convalescing at home following a recent illness and several days in the Hermiston hospital.
 Sam G. McMillan, a former wheat rancher of the North Lexington area, was among those who were presented a Masters Degree at commencement ceremonies of Portland State College at the Portland Memorial Coliseum on Sunday, June 9.
 Mr. McMillan received his Bachelor of Arts degree from PSC in June, 1962, and taught history at Centennial High school near Gresham for five years, during which time he had entered graduate school and was preparing for the Master of Science in teaching.
 For the past year, he has been teaching Western Civilization at Mt. Hood Community college, and will continue as an instructor there.
 After graduating from Lexington 35 years ago with the class of 1933, he entered into the farming profession on the same lands homesteaded by his father and grandfather. His farming career was interrupted during World War II when he enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Corps in 1941. He resumed the farming operations in 1946, and continued in that capacity until his retirement from wheat ranching to enter the academic world.
 Among those attending the PSC graduation ceremonies from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson of Lexington.

Ball Next to Top At Bowling Tourney

Enthusiastic Heppner bowlers who participated in the annual Merchants Classic, held at Pioneer Bowl in Walla Walla, came home well rewarded for their efforts.
 Leon Ball took second place in the tournament and will receive a cash award of $500, and Gene Doherty, who placed fourth, will receive approximately $200 for his efforts.
 Ball, who went into the tournament with a 28 pin handicap, bowled 1819 for an eight-game series, averaging a fraction over 199 per game. His lowest score of the eight games was 181. He held first place in the month-long tournament until the next to the last day, when he was nudged out of the lead by a mere six pins, thus giving him second place and $500. Doherty entered the tourney with a 166 average.

 Other Heppner bowlers participating in the tournament were Art Dyck and Dick Wilkinson.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arbogast and two children traveled to Milton-Freewater last Thursday evening to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Taylor. On Friday the couple traveled to Salem, leaving the children to visit at the home of their grandparents for the weekend. In Salem they attended the wedding of Ron Jones and Monica Green on Saturday before returning home Sunday.

School Library To Open Part Time

Beginning on June 17 the Heppner Elementary school library will be open from 10 a.m. until noon each week day to accommodate grade school youngsters who wish to check out books. Principal Al Martin announces. The library will maintain the hours throughout the summer according to present plans, he said. Youngsters are invited to use the library, the only restriction being that they may check out only one book at a time.
 Mrs. Sterling Krone of Lake Chelan, Wn., visited in Heppner Friday through Sunday of last week at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Winters, and family.

Notice of Budget Hearing

The budget for the Heppner Cemetery Maintenance Dist. for the fiscal year 1968-1969, beginning July 1, 1968, as detailed and summarized in the accompanying schedule was prepared on an accounting basis consistent with that used in prior years. Major changes, if any, and their effects on this budget are set forth in an accompanying statement. A copy of the budget document may be inspected by interested persons between the hours of 9 A.M. and 5 P.M. at Heppner City Hall. The budget document, or any portion of it, may be obtained for $1.00, complete, or $25 per sheet at Heppner City Hall. A meeting of the Board of Directors will be held July 2, 1968, at 7:00 P.M. at Heppner City Hall for the purpose of holding a public hearing on this budget. Any person may appear to discuss the budget, or any part of it.
