

Women Preside During Service

By DIANA KINCAID

IONE — Women of the Ione United Church of Christ had complete charge of the Sunday morning hour June 23, under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Wilson, who gave the main address to the congregation.

Mrs. Katherine Lindstrom read the opening meditation, Mrs. Suzanne Jensen led the responsive reading, Mrs. Eva Hamlett gave the morning prayer, Mrs. Betty Rietmann was in charge of the worship through giving, and Mrs. Helen Nelson read the scripture.

Special music was presented by the ladies choir with Miss Sue Jensen as organist and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid as director. Choir members were Mrs. Mary Holtz, Mrs. Grace McKinney, Mrs. Frances Spouse, Mrs. Helen Pettijohn, Mrs. Rietmann, Mrs. Anna Lee, Mrs. James Jensen, Mrs. Anna Lindstrom, Mrs. Pat Kincaid, Mrs. Pat Tucker and Mrs. Nelson. Candelights and ushers were the Misses Kathy Holtz and Christine McCabe.

Open House Planned

A cordial invitation has been extended by Mrs. Max Barnum, Neal Christopherson and Ron Christopherson for friends and neighbors to attend an open house in honor of their parents' 25th wedding anniversary on Saturday evening, June 29. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson will greet guests between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 at their home.

Scotty Crabtree of Lexington visited at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, for several days last week while his cousins, Kevin and Jim McCabe, were here. Mr. and Mrs. Don Schaefer of Salem stopped at the Crabtrees on their return home from a trip to Banff, Alberta, Canada. They brought Ashley McCabe from Colfax to spend a few days before the boys were to meet their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe, in Walla Walla on Monday.

Harold Beggs left Monday to do graduate work at Washington State University in Pullman for nine weeks. Doug accompanied his father as far as Moses Lake where he is attending Big Bend Community College basketball camp which is under the direction of Myron Finkblner, a family friend of the Beggs.

Mrs. Norman Nelson is home now following treatment in Pendleton Community hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer took Carol Holtz, Sheri Wilson, Mark Rietmann and Barbara Palmer to Camp Adams where the students will spend a week.

Trevé Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Peterson, was treated for a virus infection at Pioneer Memorial hospital this week.

The Ione American Legion is planning the annual fireworks display for Wednesday evening, July 3, on the high school football field. A family movie has been planned for showing preceding the fireworks by the Ione Lions Club.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Johnson and son of Nevis, Minn. Darrel is now attending the National Science and Math Institute held at Southern Oregon College for eight weeks.

Members of the Ione Rainbow Assembly traveled to Corvallis last week-end to attend the Grand Assembly of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls. Bonnie Kay Akers participated in the proceedings as Grand Confidential Observer and Teresa Tucker sang with the Grand Choir. Other girls attending were Terri O'Connor, Sharlene Hamlett, Marsha Ball, Tanya Tucker, Teresa Stefani, and Bonnie Morgan. Miss Stefani was chosen as Grand Representative of the State of Texas in Oregon and the Grand Cross of Color, an honorary degree.
