He drove to Fruitland for the Fourth and then, with them, went to White Swan, Wn., to attend a July 4 observance for the balance of the week-end. Two brothers and a niece also were in the family gathering.

Monagles Visit Here Following Marriage In Eastern Ceremony

Miss Katherine L. Vahey of Natick, Mass., and Charles William Monagle, Heppner, were united in marriage at St. James Church, Wellesley, Mass., on May 25. The Rev. Walter Hiland read the double ring ceremony at 11:00 a.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary M. Vahey and the late John J. Vahey of Natick, Mass., and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monagle of Heppner, with whom they have been visiting recently.

Given in marriage by her brother, Thomas J. Vahey, the bride wore a full length gown of embroidered lace over silk with full length sleeves and cowl neckline banded in satin. There was a matching band of satin on the hemline of the "sheath" skirt and on the lace train. Her headpiece was a lace mantilla and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley with a white orchid center.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Mary M. Juliani. Bridesmaid attendants were Misses Martha Mullin and Donna MacLean, both cousins of the bride, and Mary Donovan.

Gowns of the attendants were of blue linen, fashioned in matching A-line styles, with white lace interwoven with blue satin, three-quarter length sleeves and floor-length skirts. They carried colonial bouquets of mixed flowers and blue Dior bows held in place their short illusion veils.

Carrying a basket of lily of the valley and fern, Lisa Anne Vahey, niece of the bride, served as flower girl, clad in blue and white organza with a blue flowered band in her hair.

John Vahey, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Captain John Barry of Merrill, Oregon, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Anthony Juliani, Thomas Brazil and Paul Bryan. A wedding reception followed the ceremony at the Officers Club of the Natick Laboratories, where Mary Mullin, the bride's cousin, had charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Monagle was dressed in a tangerine linen sheath with tangerine and white linen coat when she and her husband left on a trip through New England and Quebec, Canada.

While on leave this month, they came by plane to Oregon and have been visiting his parents and other relatives here the past two weeks. After their return east on July 14, they will be at home at 30 Grove Road, East Natick, Mass.

The bride was graduated from Natick High school in 1961, and has been employed as a payroll clerk at the Bancroft Cap Co., in Framingham. Her husband was a graduate of Heppner High school in 1961, and in 1965 graduated from the University of Portland. He is stationed with the U. S. Army at the Natick Laboratories, and will complete his term of service next May.

Gormans Visited By Holiday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gorman and son, who recently moved back to Oregon after living for some time in Southern California, were visited by several friends and relatives during the week of July 4, and extended "welcome home" greetings. The Gormans, who specialize in training and showing horses, are occupying the former VanSchoelack ranch home south of Heppner.

Visiting them four days last week was a close friend, Garvin W. Hale, of San Jose. A surprise visit was also enjoyed from Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bullard and three children of Woodburn. Mrs. Bullard and Mrs. Gorman are former college roommates. Other holiday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Heliker and Mrs. Vida Heliker of Lone.

New Bride Honored At Wedding Shower

A summer wedding shower honoring Mrs. Perry Jones, recent bride, was held Sunday afternoon, July 7, in the Methodist church social rooms.

Fresh cut flowers were used about the rooms as decoration, and hostesses, Mrs. Ernie McCabe, Mrs. Arnie Hedman and Mrs. Creston Robinson, served refreshments of angel food cake, raspberries and whipped cream, punch and coffee to the 30 guests attending.

Mrs. Stuart Gribble assisted the honoree with the opening of her many lovely gifts.

Special guest attending was the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. A. McLeod of Vancouver, Wn.

The bride is the former Francis McLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McLeod, whose marriage to Perry Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Jones, was an event of June 17 at Vancouver, Wn.

Fourth of July week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott and family were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schmidt and five children of Lewiston, Idaho. On Thursday the group was joined by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Allstott and family of Hermiston for a day of picnicking at Bull Prairie.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Gale McClintock of Pendleton proudly announce the arrival of their third child, a boy, born Saturday, July 6, at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton. The little boy weighed 8 lb., 15 oz., and has been named William Ray. He joins a sister, Kelly Lee, and a brother, Andrew Wayne.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers, Heppner, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tress McClintock of Monmouth. Maternal great grandparents include Clayton Ayers, Bertha Ayers, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pettjohn of Arlington.

Church Youth Hold Taco Feed in Country

United Youth Fellowship members of the Christian and Methodist churches enjoyed a taco feed at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weatherford, Monday evening, July 1.

About 25 youth and their advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse, Mrs. Bob Bergstrom, Carl Marquardt and the hosts enjoyed the feed, followed by a song fest and worship service.

Another meeting is planned for Monday evening, July 15, in the fellowship rooms of the Heppner Christian church. All members are urged to attend and friends are invited.

An Electric Freezer brings convenience and economy to your home

their meals. There's always extra food available... even when unexpected guests stay for Sunday dinner. It's almost like having a supermarket in your own kitchen!

Many home-makers "cook ahead" for holidays and store entire meals in their freezers. Saves last minute

You save money because you can easily preserve so many home-grown vegetables and fruits. There's little fuss and muss. Yet frozen food retains that wonderful "just picked" fresh flavor for months.

You save again when you buy seasonal specials when prices are low. Keep them in your freezer to serve months later when prices have climbed two or three times what you paid. In addition to vegetables, you'll save money on meats... even poultry ute rushes. Just thaw and warm; complete meals are ready in no time... and you have time to enjoy your family and friends.

Visit your favorite appliance store to examine all the newest freezers. You'll particularly like the new frost-free combination refrigerator-freezer. They save all that messy defrosting and give years of trouble-free, convenient service.

and fish will keep safely for months in an electric freezer. Convenience is another important advantage of an electric freezer. You save shopping trips because you can buy in larger quantities. Most families find that an electric freezer adds variety to
