viously paid, until another matter is cleared up.

Supt. Daniels said that Glazer had notified him that an item of $550, not shown in the estimate of costs on the school, will be required for adjusting the mechanical system. The superintendent said that he realized this work is necessary but felt that it should have been included in estimates of costs by the architect. Since it was not included, the board has not budgeted funds for the payment.

Daniels further said that the architect declared that correspondence between himself and the former superintendent had recognized the matter, but Daniels said that he can find no correspondence to this effect. The attorney for the district will write to Glazer about the matter.

To Seek Bus Bids

The board authorized publishing for bids on a 30-passenger and a 54-passenger school bus, 1968 models. Previous bids were not opened when the budget failed at its second election. The board also will call for bids on a 4-door sedan for the superintendent's car.

Resignation of Mrs. Bill Hust, librarian and teacher's aide at Ione, was accepted and a letter was authorized to help her receive a new position at the Husts' new home in Arlington, Wash., where Mr. Hust is now manager of the J. C. Penney store.

Mrs. Beverly Wilson will take the Ione position three days per week and Mrs. Betty Carlson will take it two days per week, the board decided, after hearing the recommendation of the Ione advisory committee.

Leonard Munkers was authorized to attend a bus driver workshop in Eugene on August 12-15 so that he may set up a workshop in this county at a later date for local R-1 district drivers.

In "housekeeping" chores, the board certified the 1968-69 tax levy to the assessor; authorized the superintendent to apply for public law 874 funds; designated Mahoney and Abrams as school attorneys for 1968-69; designated the Heppner Branch, First National Bank, and the Heppner Branch, Bank of Eastern Oregon, as depositories for the year; authorized the contract for auditing with Witherell, Witherell and Morrison; appointed Ron Daniels as budget officer for 1969-70; designated the new district clerk, Mrs. DuAnn McCarty, to be sole signer of school district checks; and authorized change of clerk's bond from Mrs. Vance to Mrs. McCarty.

Supt. Daniels reported that Carl Schackman who had been offered a teaching contract at Riverside, has accepted a position at Maupin, leaving the position of social studies and football coach yet to be filled there.

He also said that Malcolm Johnson, who has been offered a social studies position at Heppner High, has not yet returned the signed contract but that he expects that he will do so.

Mrs. Myrtle Gildea of Princeton, Minn., accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Winters and family, here Saturday for a week's visit. The Winters family, after vacationing in Canada, attended a family reunion at Lake Chelan, Wash., last week at the home of Mrs. Winters' sister, Mrs. Sterling Krone. Mrs. Gildea had been visiting there, and accompanied the Winters family to Heppner for her first visit in this area.

Community Needs Shown in Survey

nounced items and that this was merely a preliminary report. Many of the survey sheets distributed to Chamber members were not returned. A considerable number was distributed through the Neighborhood Center.

Seasonal unemployment, employment opportunities for youth and other similar items were often written in. Sweeney said that the survey seemed to show that major problems are concerned with the young and with the aged—not so much the middle ages.

It is planned to continue work on the survey and any who would like to participate may obtain a copy from Sweeney or from The Gazette-Times.

One who responded in the section that asked for the five most critical problems here listed "Highway 74" five times.

Among guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Barratt of Mesa, Ariz. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. Elaine George, city recorder, all guests of Wavel Wilkinson-Barratt, former county judge, was called upon to tell of his "adopted" state of Arizona and responded by discussing the water situation there. He said that the state does a fine job of conserving water supplies and that the county in which he is located has 500,000 acres under irrigation.

Summer Crew Aids In Fighting Fire

Twenty-six summer employees of the U. S. Forest Service on the Heppner Ranger district found themselves in the thick of action just after the recent fire school when fires broke out recently.

Most of the seasonal employees are from the Heppner area but others are from distant points.

Madison Butte lookout this summer is manned by Wayne A. Gramzinski of Columbia, Mo. Dale L. Godwin of Hermiston is atop Tamarack lookout, and Ronald Jones of Heppner is on Wheeler Point. The latter two are particularly busy places in view of the fires burning near them.

Other seasonal employees of the ranger district are as follows:

From Heppner: Earl Ayres, forestry aid, engineering crew; Chris Brown, extra protection, Wall Creek; Mark Brown, forestry aid, engineering crew; Opal Cook, cook; Lee Daggett, extra protection, Mallory Creek; Anthony Doherty, forestry aid, engineering crew; Margaret Green, clerk-typist; Jerry Healy, extra protection; Dale Holland, Dich Creek guard; Elsa Leathers, cook; Melvin McDaniel, recreation guard; Robert Simkins, Tupper guard; Michael Sweeney, extra protection, Happy Jack; Bruce Thomson, forestry aid, engineering crew; Steven Warren, forestry aid, hazard reduction crew; Walter Wood, forestry aid, engineering crew.

Others: Randy Ferrin, Sioux Falls, S. D.; Anthony Furniss, Condon, forestry aid, engineering crew; Jack Graham, Arlington, Va., forestry aid, hazard reduction crew; Reuben Patzer, Monument, carpenter; Robert Sims, Arlington, forestry aid, engineering crew; Dan Sturtevant, Eugene, Bull Prairie guard; and Gladys Van Winkle, Lexington, cook.

Several of those above are veterans with the Forest Service, having worked for a number of years on a seasonal basis. In addition to the 26, there are 19 on the regular fulltime staff of the district.

Helen Carter Dies

Mrs. Helen Carter, wife of Curley Carter, both formerly of Heppner, died Monday, July 8, in Milton-Freewater, according to her son, Jack Little, of Heppner. She had been in ill health for about two years. The Carters left Heppner some 13 or 14 years ago, and he formerly operated a log truck here.

Undergoes Surgery

Mrs. Bill Collins is recovering very well from a major operation which she underwent last Thursday in Pioneer Memorial hospital, her husband states. She was expecting to remain in the hospital through this week, after which she will convalesce at home. Mr. and Mrs. Collins, owners of Heppner Cleaners, are devoting their vacation time this year to the operation. The Cleaners is closed until August 5.

Grange Disbands Until October

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Lexington Grange No. 726 held its last meeting until the fall season at the hall last Wednesday evening. It is announced that there will not be another regular meeting until October when a possible change in meeting dates will be discussed, and fall activities will begin.

A short report was heard on the State Grange sessions in Portland, Virginia and Donald Majeske were voted in as new members.

Light refreshments were served following the meeting.

Three Links club of Holly Rebekah Lodge met at the home of Mrs. Florence McMillan last Thursday afternoon for its regular meeting. Mrs. Wayne Papineau was hostess. During the busy afternoon the ladies discussed the Sidewalk Bazaar and also decided to again have the regular turkey dinner in the fall, with the date of November 2 being set. Plans were also discussed for a luncheon on election day. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Oris Padgett, Mrs. Merle Cornelison, Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Kenneth Marshall and the hostess, Mrs. Papineau.

Mrs. Marshall won the door prize for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nichols, Mrs. Doppelmeier and Mrs. Miller of Portland visited at the Trannie Parker home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt and son, Gary, were visitors at the Open House held at the Meadowood Speech Camp in Umatilla county on Sunday. The guests were served a lovely barbecued chicken dinner, and were fortunate to view TV specials of the children in the camp while receiving training. Sandra Hermann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hermann is attending the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr. of The Dalles were week-end visitors in Lexington. Carlita Marquardt, Penny Marquardt, Carrol Hughes, Kerry Coppock and Kathleen Barlett are among those visiting at the Christian Church Camp in Cove this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sacer and children of Ontario spent several days this week at the Carl Marquardt home. On Sunday they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams and sons of Merrill, and all motored to Lehman Springs with the Sagers and Merrills returning to Ontario later in the day. Also visiting at Lehman Springs were the Bill Marquardt family and Jeannine Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ball and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Watkins spent an enjoyable vacation week fishing and boating at Prineville Reservoir. On Wednesday before the Fourth, they were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ball, Gary Ball, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Davidson, who remained through Sunday. Fishing was poor but the group did enjoy lots of water skiing. On Friday, a severe thunder and lightning storm hit the area, setting numerous fires around the camp in which they were staying.

'Medley of Songs' Is Parade Theme

With Fair and Rodeo time just over a month away, the public is reminded that "Medley of Songs" is the theme of the rodeo parade, which will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 24.

The Gazette-Times has received a number of inquiries about the theme from those considering entering the parade.

Randall Peterson of the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce is again chairman of the parade. He states that the Main Street Cowboys of Pendleton and the Union Pacific model train are among the first outside entries to be received.

Local floats and entries are urged, and it is hoped that there will be greater "hometown" participation than ever before.

It has been noted that opening date of the rodeo (August 24) and the date of the parade are in conflict this year with the Shrine A-2 and B All-Star East-West football game in Pendleton. This conflict apparently was unavoidable since both are limited as to dates by other events.

Peterson said that he hopes that those of the surrounding areas who are planning to enter the Shrine parade Saturday afternoon will first stop in Heppner to take part in the rodeo parade here. As usual there will be many categories and many cash prizes offered.

The Shrine parade assemblies in Pendleton at 2:30 p.m. giving participants time to take part in the 10 a.m. parade here and going on to Pendleton for the parade there.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital during the past week, and still receiving medical care, are the following: Daisy Collins, Heppner; Tom Wilson, Heppner, and Grace Rose, Cecil.

Dismissed, after receiving medical care, were the following: Carolyn Howard, Heppner; Patrick Tierney, Condon, and Loren Lucore, Heppner.

46 County 4-H Campers Enjoy Annual Session

"This year's camp was a most successful and enjoyable one," reported Gail McCarty, Morrow county 4-H extension agent; at the completion of the annual 4-H camp for Morrow county boys and girls held June 27-30.

Facilities of the summer camp at Cutsforth Park were put to active use by campers and staff of counselors, directors and instructors, and provided an enjoyable setting for the outdoor instruction, ceremonials and game activities.

The enrollment of 46 campers compared favorably with that of recent years. Many were transported by truck from the fairgrounds, leaving at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, June 27, and returning home on Sunday, June 30. Several parents joined the campers for potluck lunch at noon Sunday, and brought campers home.

Assisting McCarty as camp director was Miss Joan Stockard, agent aide.

On the staff of 11 counselors (older 4-H members) were Sandi Carlson, Ione; Sue Chally, Heppner; Nancy Doherty, Heppner; Merri Lee Jacobs, Ione; Maureen McElligott, Ione; Keith Nelson, Ione; Kristin and Chuck Nelson, Lexington; Kristine Peterson, Ione; Mark Tullis, Ione, and Debbie Warren, Heppner.

Classes in fishing and wild-life were taught by Glen Ward, game commission agent, and Jack Melland, also of the game commission. Loren Lucore of the forest service organized a trip to Arbuckle Lookout and gave instruction in spotting forest fires and fire fighting equipment used in combatting the fires.

Other classes included work in leathercraft under the instruction of Gail McCarty; study of fossils and organizing a fossil hunt by Keith and Chuck Nelson and Sandi Carlson. Evening ceremonies included a crowd ceremony, a dreamboat ceremony, varieties of skits and programs led by Steve Davis of Gilliam county (1967 IPYE delegate to New Zealand) and others.

Kitchen cooks were Mrs. Camilla Samples and Mrs. Ida McGill of Pendleton.
