Severinsens Greeted At Herb Hynd Home During Brief Visit

A surprise telephone call from Portland Saturday afternoon brought special joy to Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hynd at their ranch home in Cecil.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Severinsen, en route to their New York home, after completing the two-week Tonight Show tour in California, had a few hours to spare for a brief visit with relatives and friends in Morrow county, and placed the call to the Hynds. A delightful 3½ hours was enjoyed with the guests, from 4:00 to 7:30 p.m., before they returned to meet a scheduled midnight flight from Portland.

Accompanying the Severinsens from Portland were her mother, Mrs. Ora Evans, and his step-brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sweeten. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Severinsen, Sr., came from Arlington, and joining the group from Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spaulding and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Krebs were also present to greet the unexpected visitors.

Much reminiscing was enjoyed during their brief visit about school days of their former years in Arlington and Heppner, they expressed wishes to be remembered to their many friends in the area, and of their desire to return "for a vacation" at some future time.

MR. AND MRS. DENNIS O'DONNELL (Peggy Snyder)

Early Summer Vows Join Peggy Snyder And Dennis O'Donnell

Marriage vows were exchanged between Miss Peggy Snyder and Dennis James O'Donnell at a pretty candlelight ceremony on Thursday evening, June 6, in St. Patrick's Catholic church. The Rev. Raymond Beard officiated at the 7:00 p.m. double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Snyder, and the groom is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, all of Heppner.

Altar arrangements of yellow and white gladioli carried out the bride's chosen wedding colors.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor length gown of white crepe and lace, fashioned in straight lines, oval neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held by a floral headpiece. Yellow roses centered her bridal bouquet, surrounded by daisies and gladioli blossoms.

Maid of honor was Miss Betty Angell, Portland, and formerly of Heppner. She wore a yellow eyelet street length dress, fashioned in A-line style, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow daisies.

Musical selections were played by Miss Marguerite Glavey, organist, who also accompanied Bill Kenny, soloist.

Serving as altar boys and lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Ron Ward and C. J. Balfe.

Jon O'Donnell, brother of the groom, attended as best man. Ushering the guests were Roger Leonnig and Rick Johnston.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Snyder wore an ensemble of navy blue, with white accessories. Mrs. O'Donnell selected an ensemble of white, with orange accessories.

Keeping the guest book was Mrs. Claudine Snyder, sister-in-law of the bride, and attending the gift table was Miss Erin Dick.

The couple greeted their many out-of-town relatives and friends at an informal gathering at the home of the bride's parents. They then left for a wedding trip to Cannon Beach and other points along the Oregon coast.

The newlyweds have made their home in Heppner during the summer and will reside in Ontario after September, where the groom will enroll for his second year at Treasure Valley Community college, majoring in police science. Mrs. O'Donnell completed a one-year course in stenography at Blue Mountain Community college in June. Both young people are graduates of Heppner High school with the class of 1967.

Among honor guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of La Grande and Mrs. Mable Snyder of Pendleton.

Other guests from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Anton Latham, Portland; Mrs. Bill Corey, La Grande; Mrs. Marg Needham, Miss Diana Thode and Miss Patty Needham, all of Ontario; Jerry Erkstrom, Vale; Miss Linda Clark, La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Don Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snyder, Miss Mitzi Townsend, Miss Chris Hoggland, Miss Carol Sisk, Miss Valerie Chaney, and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, all of Pendleton.

Jim Follensbee left Tuesday night for Eureka, Mont., on a few day's vacation from Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative where he is office manager. He will join his wife and family there since they preceded him on the trip, going to visit Mrs. Follensbee's mother, Mrs. R. E. Holder. They plan to return to Heppner by Monday.

MR. AND MRS. BEN JAY ALTMAN (Sandra Alean Bryson)

Sandra Bryson Weds Ben Altman July 12 In Portland Ceremony

Oaks Pioneer Church in Portland was the setting for the marriage on Friday evening, July 12, of Miss Sandra Alean Bryson and Ben Jay Altman. Formerly the St. Johns Episcopal church, the pioneer church is the oldest church in Oregon that has been in continuous use over one hundred years, and now also includes a museum.

The Rev. Steven Beadle officiated at the 9:00 p.m. double ring candlelight ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bryson of Ione, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Lucille Pulliam of Milwaukie.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white velvet, featuring an empire waistline and flowing chapel train. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and roses with pink satin streamers. Her elbow-length veil was held by a floral headpiece edged with seed pearls.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Altman, sister of the groom. She attended in a floor length gown of deep pink velvet, with matching bow headpiece, and carried contrasting white carnations and roses with pink streamers.

Attending as best man was Frank Oliver, with John Sullivan serving as usher and honor attendant.

Wedding reception for the couple was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steirly in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Doris Hasson of Everett, Wash., another sister of the bride, assisted with the arrangements.

After a short honeymoon to Long Beach, Wash., the couple will be at home at 5872 S. E. Harney Drive, Portland.

The bride was graduated from Heppner High school with the class of 1967. Altman was a graduate of Milwaukie High school in 1965, and attended Multnomah College in Portland.
