

Marriage Announced Here of Miss George, Former County Agent

Miss Donna Rae George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned George of Winston, Mont., and former Heppner resident, became the bride of Robert J. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Day of Anaheim, Calif., on Saturday afternoon, July 27. The ceremony was read at 2:00 p.m. by the Rev. Laing Sibbett at Peace Memorial Presbyterian church in Klamath Falls.

For her marriage the bride wore a fitted gown of white bridal satin with long sleeves and pearl buttons, with elbow length veil edged in lace held by matching satin headress. She wore a tiny deep pink rosebud in her hair and carried a bridal arrangement of deep pink roses with white carnations.

Mrs. Ronald Baker of Klamath Falls attended her as matron of honor. Her gown was an A-line style of powder blue crepe with lace sleeves, and she carried contrasting deep pink roses with deep pink and white carnations.

Roy Bray of Klamath Falls served as best man.

During the ceremony the congregation joined in singing the wedding hymn, "O Perfect Love".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. George wore a pink silk afternoon dress with matching hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses with white carnations.

A wedding reception in the church social rooms honored the couple following the ceremony. Pouring were Mrs. Delbert Bess, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Hershel Berry, and cutting cake was Mrs. Joe Lee. The gift table was attended by Mrs. David Henry and the guest book by Mrs. Don Chrowl.

The couple will reside at the groom's ranch at Bonanza, Oregon. In addition to his ranch operation he is employed by Jeld Wen Lumber Co. of Klamath Falls. After attending schools in Orange, Calif., the groom served in the U. S. Navy, stationed in Guam and in San Diego.

The bride was the former Morrow county extension agent. She is presently teaching in the Klamath County schools. She is a graduate of Montana State University and has recently attended Southern Oregon College at Ashland.

Reese Burkenbine of Medical Lake, Wn., visited Friday through Sunday at the home of his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hayden, and with his sons, Arthur Burkenbine and family and Forrest Burkenbine and family.

August 11 Date Set For Brindle Wedding

Announcement of the coming marriage of Miss Jennifer Lynn Brindle to Gordon Dennis Spray, U. S. Army, is made by Mrs. Patricia Brindle, Heppner, mother of the bride-elect.

The couple will exchange their vows Sunday afternoon, August 11, at 2:00 p.m. in St. Patrick's Catholic church, Heppner, and greeted at a reception following in the parish hall.

A public invitation is extended to all friends and relatives in the area to attend the ceremony and reception.

The groom, whose home is in La Grande, will be on military leave from army training at Fort Sill, Okla. He attended Blue Mountain Community college, Pendleton, and Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, prior to entering service.

Miss Brindle, a graduate of Heppner High school in 1964, received her degree from Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, early this summer.

Privett Home Scene Of Family Gathering

Children of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Privett, coming from as far as San Antonio, Texas, and also from Eugene, gathered at the home of their parents for several days of visiting in what turned out to be an unplanned family reunion.

Mrs. Gerald (Billie June) Taber and four children, Jodi, Brent, Keith and Cindy of San Antonio, arrived June 21, and Mr. and Mrs. Alan (June) Brown and four children, Mark, LeAnn, Todd and Kenneth, all of Eugene, also came and spent the week.

The Privetts oldest son, Joe, was the only one unable to be present but the family visited with him via long distance telephone in Saratoga Springs, N. Y. John Privett and wife, Francis, and daughter, Kim, also spent time at the Privett home visiting with the relatives.

The Brown family left Saturday, July 27, for their home, but Mrs. Taber and children will remain for an extended visit. Sgt. Taber, currently serving in the service, will travel to Heppner in August to pick up his family for the return trip home.

Lodge Members Greet California Visitors

The recent visit here of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. (Mary Shannon) Foster and daughter, Nicole, of Alameda, Calif., was the occasion for a social gathering of Degree of Honor lodge members at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carl King, Sr., Tuesday evening, July 23. Acquaintances were renewed with lodge friends with whom Mary had worked when she resided here.

Calling during the evening were Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, Mrs. Archie Padberg, Mrs. Mary Bryant, Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Mrs. Ed Hunt, Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. Pete McMurry, Mrs. Ed Gonty, Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. Jeanne Dobbs, Mrs. Shirley Gray and Tawnie. Refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee were served to the guests.

Former Heppner Girl Is Married July 20 In Church Ceremony

Miss Jennifer Louise Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Blake of Monmouth, and former Heppner resident, became the bride of Allen Dale Weaver, son of Mrs. Katherine Weaver of Independence, on Saturday, July 20.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 4:00 p.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Independence, with the Rev. Theophane Robertson officiating.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose to wear the same wedding gown worn by her two older sisters. The floor length gown of white lace over taffeta, was fashioned with full, tiered skirt, a boat neckline, and long, pointed sleeves. Her elbow length veil was caught to a band of white flowers and beads. She carried a bridal bouquet of white flowers centered with two white orchids.

Miss Deleah Jones attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kathy and Karen Blake, twin sisters of the bride, and Sherri Weaver, sister of the groom. Their gowns were of similar design, with the honor attendant wearing pink voile with white flocked flowers, and the bridesmaids wearing contrasting blue voile with white flocked flowers. They wore headpieces of white daisies and carried nosegays of pink and blue asters.

Paula Heinrichs, niece of the bride, Heppner, attended as flower girl, ring bearer was Troy Werline.

Ron Weaver was best man for his brother, and ushering the guests were Gary Meyers, Wally Hansen and Tom Pfaff.

Gordon Prait of Monmouth, and formerly of Heppner, sang the wedding selections, accompanied by Mrs. Brandt, organist. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 263 Stadium Drive in Monmouth. In charge of the arrangements were Mrs. Beverly Fitzgerald and Mrs. Barbara Herbison, sisters of the bride. Assisting were Connie Hoye, Terri Fitzgerald and Kim Valentine. Jane Allen passed the guest book and at the gift table was Nancy Brents.

For their wedding trip to the coast the new Mrs. Weaver changed to a grey linen sheath dress with black patent accessories.

Attending from Heppner were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Snoda Blake, and her aunt and niece, Mrs. Paul Heinrichs and Paula.

The newlyweds are now at home at Lofton Terrace in Monmouth. The groom plans to enroll at Oregon College of Education this fall. They are both 1968 graduates of Central High school.

Rhea Creek Picnic Planned at Meeting
