Shannon Mahoney Weds Harlan B. Smith In Episcopal Church Ceremony July 27

In an impressive all-white ceremony on Saturday morning, July 27, Miss Shannon Mahoney was united in marriage to Harlan B. Smith. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney of Heppner, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith of Cottage Grove.

The couple repeated their double ring vows at a 10:00 a.m. ceremony at the altar of All Saints' Episcopal church, with the Rev. Dirk Rinehart performing the service.

Floral arrangements of white pom-pom chrysanthemums added to the summer setting.

Escorted by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white taffeta, fashioned with lace bodice, wrist length sleeves and oval neckline. The full overskirt of embossed lace extended into a chapel train, and two wide bands of matching lace, highlighted with iridescent sequins, edged the bottom of the slim skirt.

For something old, the bride wore an antique gold cross, set with amethyst, her birthstone, which was a gift from her grandmother, Mrs. George Hyatt. Her full shoulder-length illusion veil was held by a cluster of white leaves touched with sequins. She carried a cascading bouquet of white silver-stand chrysanthemums backed with fern.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Robert Mahoney, Heppner, sister-in-law of the groom.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Archie Ball, Jr., Pendleton, and Mrs. Bruce Moyer of La Grande, both former schoolmates of the bride.

The honor attendants wore matching street-length gowns of white Tropicana crepe. Headpieces were halo crowns of the same material, surrounded by sheer nylon netting. They carried arm bouquets of white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Attending his brother as best man was Harvey Smith of Cottage Grove.

Ushering the guests were Robert Mahoney, Heppner, brother of the bride, and Arnold Martin of Corvallis.

Preceding the bride as flower girl was Tara Mahoney, niece of the bride, and serving as ring bearer was David Bray, Eugene, nephew of the groom.

Mrs. C. C. Carmichael played organ selections before the ceremony and accompanied Shannon Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly, as she sang the selection "The Wedding Prayer".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mahoney chose to wear a kelly green textured linen knit ensemble, with matching accessories. Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom, was attired in a blue brocade ensemble, with white accessories.

The newlyweds greeted their wedding guests, many coming from out of town, at a reception in the parish hall. A tiered all-white wedding cake centered the bride's table, topped with dainty corsage of white chrysanthemums. After the first slice was shared by the bridal couple, it was cut and served by Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Mrs. Lowell Gribble and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie, all of Heppner.

Pouring were Mrs. George Hyatt, Pendleton, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. A. C. Ball, Heppner, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Mary Ellen Myers of Hermiston, and Mrs. Claude Graham, Heppner.

Passing the guest book was Miss Trisha Farley, Heppner. The gift table was attended by Miss Ginger Springer and Miss Marion Cady, both of Salem.

For their wedding trip to points of interest in Canada, the new Mrs. Smith changed to a self-fashioned apricot knit ensemble, with matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Both bride and groom were graduated from Oregon State University with the class of 1968. Shannon received her degree in Home Economics and will be teaching during the coming school year at Leslie Junior high school in Salem. Her husband, with a degree in Mechanical Engineering, is now employed in Corvallis with Cornell, Howland, Hayes and Merri-field Engineering Company.
