

Ceremony August 11 Joins Anita Stockard And Cecil R. Warner

In the presence of family members and close friends, Anita Stockard was united in marriage to Cecil R. Warner of Eugene in the sanctuary of the First Christian church, Heppner, on Sunday, August 11. The ceremony was performed at 12:30 p.m. by the Rev. Al Boschee.

Floral arrangements of pink roses and white snapdragons were used at the altar. Selected organ numbers provided a musical background by Miss Jean Stockard, daughter of the bride.

Escorted to the altar by her son, Bill, the bride wore a street-length dress of pink lace with matching accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Miss Joan Stockard attended her mother as maid of honor. Serving as best man was Rick Warner, son of the groom.

Other children of the couple who joined the marriage circle at the altar were Tom Stockard, son of the bride, and Philip Warner, son of the groom.

Daughters of the bride were hostesses for a family dinner at the Stockard home immediately following the wedding.

Others present, besides the immediate families, were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Walker and sons, Jim and Bill, of Eugene, brother-in-law and sister-in-law of the groom.

Their wedding trip took them to points of interest along the Washington, Oregon and California coasts.

The bride resigned her position as elementary teacher in the Heppner schools last spring, after teaching in the lower grades the past 11 years.

Mr. Warner is Director of Development at Northwest Christian college in Eugene. The couple will make their home at 4290 High Street in Eugene.

Anderson-Cooper Wedding Planned

Helen Marie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson, will become the bride of Pvt. David Wesley Cooper, son of Mrs. June Field, all of Heppner, on Monday, August 26.

Vows will be exchanged at an 11:00 a.m. ceremony at All Saints' Episcopal church, with a reception following in the parish hall.

The couple takes this means of extending a cordial invitation to their friends and relatives to attend the wedding and reception.

Pvt. Cooper will be on leave from military service with the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash. He has completed basic training and expects to leave soon for overseas duty.

Elks Duplicate Club To Aid Eye Clinic

Duplicate bridge club of Heppner Elks Lodge 358 will sponsor a charity bridge party on Tuesday evening, August 27, in the Elks Temple. Proceeds of the evening will benefit the Elks' Eye Clinic fund, one of the major lodge projects.

Duplicate bridge will be in play, starting at 8:00 p.m. It will be open to the public and anyone interested is invited to attend. Further information may be secured from LaVern Van Marter, Jr.

Future Bride Honored At Pre-Wedding Party

A variety of pink antique glassware serving pieces were used on the tea table Saturday afternoon for the bridal shower complimenting Miss Trisha Marie Farley, bride-elect of Mark Edward Halvorsen, Ione.

The gift table was covered with a white cloth and pink net, which was draped and decorated with bouquets of pink rosebuds and bells of Ireland. Other decorations of pink and white were used about the room in keeping with the pink and white color scheme chosen by the bride for her Friday wedding.

Assisting the honor guest with the opening of her gifts were her sister, Shannon Farley, and friends, Susan Lindstrom, Janet Palmateer and Jean Healy.

Aunts of the future bride, Mrs. Frank Anderson and Mrs. Lawrence Becket, assisted at the tea table.

About 65 guests attended the shower. Hostesses were Mrs. Jack Healy, Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Mrs. Hene Wyman, Mrs. LaVern Van Marter, Jr., Mrs. Ken Batty, Mrs. Harriet Batty, Mrs. Jim Prock, Mrs. Marion Green and Mrs. Gene Pierce.

The couple will exchange marriage vows Friday, August 23, at 7 p.m., at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner.

The engaged couple and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Farley and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Ione, extend a cordial invitation to all friends and relatives in the surrounding area to attend the ceremony and reception, which will follow in the parish hall.

Mrs. Gertson Leaves For Extended Trip

Mrs. Clara Gertson left by plane from Portland on Sunday, August 18, for St. Paul, Minn., where she was to attend a director's meeting with the national officers of the Degree of Honor Protective Association. Mrs. Gertson is currently serving as national treasurer of the organization, until the next national convention in St. Paul in August, 1969, as well as state director of Oregon. She was joined on the trip by Mrs. Esther Morgan, national vice-president, of Shelton, Wash.

En route she planned a stop-over in Aurora, Ill., to visit a grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Anhorn. On her return Mrs. Gertson will stop in Denver to join a Tauck Tour, starting August 24, for tours of Denver, the Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, Los Angeles and San Francisco, and other points of interest.

Dinner on Monday To Honor Boschees

A farewell potluck dinner honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Al Boschee and family, originally scheduled by the Heppner and Lexington Christian churches for Friday evening, August 23, has been changed to Monday, August 26.

The dinner will be served in the fellowship room of the Heppner Christian church and will begin at 6:30 p.m. All friends of the Boschee family in the community and surrounding areas are cordially invited to attend.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD D. CHANEY (Marianne Huber)

Miss Huber is Bride Of Ronald D. Chaney In Church Ceremony

A pretty summer ceremony uniting Miss Marianne Huber and Ronald D. Chaney in marriage was held Monday, August 5, at the Seventh-day Adventist church in Heppner.

The couple exchanged their wedding vows before an altar decorated with pink and white gladioli and chrysanthemums, tied with maroon bows.

The ceremony was performed by Elder H. E. Preston.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Huber, was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown of white crepe was designed with lace empire style waist, featured long pointed lace sleeves, and an attached train of crepe material with wide lace borders. Her floor length veil was held in place by a crown of net and pearls.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Connie Davis, a cousin.

Candle lighters were Miss Lucy Huber, sister of the bride, and Ernie Hurley, a cousin.

Attendants wore bright pink satin gowns with lace jackets, veils and sandals of matching pink.

The groom was attended by Jim Medcalf, his former roommate at Walla Walla college.

Ushers seating the guests were David and Gary Huber, both brothers of the bride.

Wedding selections were furnished by Mrs. Dick Bredemeier, Merlena Norton and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hurley.

Mrs. Huber, mother of the bride, wore an off white crepe A-line style sheath dress with three quarter length sleeves.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted friends and relatives at a reception held in the church recreation hall. Mrs. R. L. Davis, Milton-Freewater, was in charge of reception arrangements.

Assisting with serving was Mrs. Duane Gerking, Prosser, Wn., who cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Juan Johnson, Kirkland, Wn., and Nancy Turner, Bellevue, Wn., both cousins of the bride, assisted with serving also.

Gift table attendant was Mrs. Lec Roloff, Milwaukie, and Gail Fender, Portland, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Stephenville, Texas, where a reception will be held for the groom's friends and relatives.

He is the son of Mrs. Sam Hunter, Stephenville, and the late Mr. Chaney.

The couple will reside at Tumwater, Wn., where Chaney will teach in the history department of the Junior High school.

there. Mrs. Chaney will continue her education while enrolled at St. Martins college.

THE PERIDOT AND SARDONYX
 Both symbols of happiness in marriage, as well as eloquence and persuasiveness.

for her:
 The delicacy of a Peridot, combining the green of a fresh budded leaf and golden sunshine, gives a feeling of eternal Spring... a ring she will love.

for him:
 A ring set with August's companion stone, the Sardonyx, lends distinction to the man who wears it... either plain or carved in cameo or intaglio... a ring that will be worn with pride.

note: The Peridot is available in natural or synthetic stone.
