Oral Scott, 78, Dies Suddenly; Interment Here

Oral M. Scott, 78, died suddenly at his home in Hermiston early Saturday morning, August 17.

Services were held Tuesday morning, August 20, at 10:30 a.m., at Burns Mortuary chapel in Hermiston. Graveside services and interment followed at 1:30 p.m. in Heppner Masonic cemetery, with members of Willows Odd Fellows Lodge No. 66 assisting with the services.

Born May 3, 1889 in Princeton, Mo., he came west with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Scott, to the state of Washington when a small child. In 1902 his father filed on a homestead in the Morrow county area. Later Oral assumed the family wheat operation and his parents purchased a home in Heppner where they resided until their death.

He was married to Tena L. Devin in 1914, and they bought a wheat ranch in the Blackhorse district near Heppner. They were prominent ranchers the many years they lived there. He served as master of the Lexington Grange in 1941 for several terms, and was instrumental in the building of the Lexington Grange hall.

Mr. Scott would soon have been a 60-year veteran member of the Willows Odd Fellows Lodge No. 66 and was over a 55-year veteran member of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33, both of Heppner.

In 1945 the Scotts purchased their present home in Hermiston where they have continued to be active in community affairs. He attended the Hermiston Christian church, was actively associated with the Umatilla County Fair for many years, and rarely missed a meeting of the Columbia

Grange. He is survived by his widow, Tena, and immediate cousins of this area: Ralph Scott, Kennewick, Wash., Erda Pieper, Lexington; Stella Acton, Hermiston; Rose McCoy, Hood River, and Joe Delameter, Heppner.

LLOYD JOHNSON

Johnson Benefits From Summer Study

Lloyd Johnson, industrial arts instructor at Ione High school, was one of 25 participants from across the nation who attended the 1968 NDEA Summer Institute for Advanced Study in Industrial Arts, conducted at the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks from June 17 to August 10.

Theme of the institute was "Interpreting Industry in the General Shop". Study was completely individualized through the use of "learning contracts" between student and instructor. Each week Johnson set up his own technical program, and with materials available from all kinds of industry and use of excellent laboratory facilities, he developed his own media program in the areas of slide and tape presentations. Most modern techniques and methods were used which are expected to be continued by the participating teachers in their own local programs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones and family returned Monday after spending five days in Eugene visiting friends and relatives, while staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Fellers.

CELEBRATING 100th ANNIVERSARY

An all electric laundry adds another day to your week

Remember the "good old days" when an entire day was wasted doing the family washing and ironing? No problem today, thanks to low cost, rural electric power! The family laundry can now be done automatically with an electric washer and electric dryer. Best of all, the busy homemaker does the laundry at her convenience... and in minutes.

An electric washer does the job right. Everything is wonderfully fresh and clean. You can safely wash all your clothing... even delicate synthetics. Why, you can even wash large throw rugs!

An electric dryer lets you laugh at rainy weather

Drying the wash was once a real problem. Not so today when an electric clothes dryer makes the family wash fluff dry in only minutes. Best of all, an electric clothes dryer lets you do the laundry anytime, rain or shine. Add a load at night before you retire. It'll be dry and ready to wear in the morning.

Small wonder that an electric clothes dryer is a woman's most wanted appliance! The new electric washers and dryers are so handsome that you can place them anywhere. Many homemakers have their laundry area in the kitchen for added conveniences. The appliances need little floor space. They can be installed in a closet or alcove to save space.

Wherever you locate your laundry area, keep the two appliances as close together as possible. This will save you needless steps. You'll also want a table or counter nearby for sorting and folding.

Safe and easy to operate

An all-electric laundry is safe as a light bulb because it's flameless. There's no messy fumes or gases to worry you. Even the controls are out of the reach of small children.

Yet operation is completely automatic. You select the appropriate setting and the appliance does the work. Even pre-teenagers can do the family wash!

Saves you money, too, particularly if there are children in your family who seem to "grow out of their clothes." Fewer changes are needed because the youngster's clothing can be washed and dried so easily and quickly. Children can, therefore, "grow through" instead of "out of" garments.

Even delicate things can be laundered automatically
A little care is all that's needed to protect the most delicate synthetics.

Both washer and dryer have special controls to gently care for dainty garments. You should, however, wash and dry them separately from the rest of your laundry.
