Vacationers Enjoy Variety of Scenery

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie returned Saturday, August 24, from an enjoyable 2½-week vacation and camping trip with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ruhl and Dana. The couple attended the open golf tournament in La Grande before traveling on to Boise where they met the Ruhls. The two families, both traveling with rented camper trailers, spent time sightseeing in Jackson, Wyo., the Tetons, Yellowstone Park, where they camped for two nights, and on to Livingston, Mont.

From there, the Ruhl family went to Missoula, Mont., where they visited relatives for a time before coming back to Heppner on the return trip. They attended the Shrine game in Portland, then continued on to their home in Roseburg.

The McQuarries visited in Great Falls, former home of Mrs. McQuarrie, and in Missoula, at the home of their mothers, Mrs. Lucy Lehner and Mrs. Grace McQuarrie, and with his brother, Dan McQuarrie, Sr. The couple enjoyed a few days of golfing at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Hayden Lake, in Spokane where they were guests of her sister, Mrs. Helen Kirkpatrick, and family for a time before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Hastings and Mrs. Grace Buschke traveled to Portland last Saturday, where the two women attended a buyers' market held at the Benson Hotel. There they planned to purchase from new lines of holiday apparel. Hastings stayed at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Connor, and family in Forest Grove while the two women were in Portland.

Miss Nonda Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark, arrived August 13 from Portland to visit her parents before returning to Linfield College in McMinnville later this month for her sophomore year. Nonda has spent the summer working in the filing department of the outpatient clinic at the University of Oregon Medical School.

Among them were Sheryl Partlow, pianist; Donna Fummel, song leader; Vickie Gayman, beginner class helper; Sheryl Partlow also assisted with handwork in the beginner class and Shirley Dixon served refreshments and helped with the handwork.

Teachers were Mrs. Harvey Warner, Junior class; Rev. John Kenney was in charge of Junior boys' handwork, Mrs. John Kenney and Mrs. Josephine Buchanan, Primary class, and Mrs. Chester Wilson, Beginner class.

Rev. Kenney told missionary stories of his experience in India each morning. He told of the huge monkeys that would steal the fruit from the trees, drawing a moral lesson. He also told how God protected him from leopards and cobra snakes that are found in India. The song "How Great Thou Art" was featured and illustrated with a book. The song is familiar since it is used in the Billy Graham Crusade.

Guests of Rev. and Mrs. John Kenney from Port Arthur, Ontario, Canada, were Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Kotanen and son Roddy, Mrs. Ada Thompson and Miss Frances Arthur. Mr. Kotanen, who is a layman, spoke in the morning service at the Assembly of God.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephens drove to Milton-Freewater recently to visit Mrs. Margaret Finney. They returned by Pendleton where they visited Mrs. Mae McKinney.

Guests of the Don Leighton family have been Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stocks, Donny and Roscoe Cook and family and Mr. and Mrs. David Kochs and family of Portland, as well as Mrs. Vallas Dexter, Janice and Judy of La Grande.

Mrs. Don Leighton and Danelle attended a shower for the Mel Rayner family from the Navy Base near Boardman. When the Rayners' home burned recently everything was destroyed, including $5,000 worth of photographic equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Bartlett, Steve and Cynthia were recent guests of her parents, Mayor and Mrs. Chester Wilson. They were vacationing and their stop here was the first on a trip that will take them to Grangeville, Idaho to visit Bartlett's brother, John Baker, and family, and through Jackson Hole, Wyo., Yellowstone Park, and to visit friends in Montana. They also plan to visit Calgary, Alberta, in Canada and several Canadian parks, and will return home by Grand Coulee Dam and the Okanogan Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hoover returned to Irrigon after a week-end huckleberry trip to Mt. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Buchanan and family also made a trip to Mt. Adams for huckleberries, after spending several days fishing at Magone Lake and the North Fork of the John Day river.

Mrs. Gertrude Van Horn was in town last week attending to some business. She came from Stites, Idaho, and spent several days in Pasco where she attended a school class reunion.

Miss Mary Kenney arrived from Tracy, Calif., where she teaches school, for a two week's visit with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. John Kenney.
