

Invitation Extended To Luciani Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George Luciani are announcing the coming marriage of their daughter, Karla Jane, to Douglas Alan Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson, formerly of Heppner and now of Dallas.

The marriage will be performed Saturday afternoon, September 7, at 2:00 p.m. in Trinity Lutheran church in Hermiston. They will greet their guests at a reception in the Civic Recreation Center in Hermiston immediately following the ceremony.

The couple and their parents wish to extend a special invitation to relatives and friends in the area to attend the ceremony and reception.

Both young people were Heppner High school graduates with the class of 1965. Doug will continue his college studies in Portland and Karla will continue her employment in the Cabana Dress Shop in Beaverton following their marriage.

Girl Organist Heard In Portland Recital

Miss Beverly Bergstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bergstrom of Portland, and granddaughter of Carl Bergstrom of Ione, was presented in an organ recital at Epiphany Lutheran church in Portland on Tuesday evening, August 27.

Miss Bergstrom has been an organ student of Mrs. L. Edwin Beach, whose husband is a former Lexington resident. She was the winner of a scholarship to Pacific Lutheran University where she will continue her music studies this fall.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD A. SPRINGER (Diane Jean McFadden)

Redmond Ceremony Joins Dick Springer, Diane McFadden

Community Presbyterian church in Redmond was the scene of the wedding ceremony which united Miss Diane Jean McFadden and Richard A. Springer in marriage on Saturday afternoon, August 10.

The Rev. D. L. Penhollow officiated at the 2:00 p.m. double ring candlelight ceremony, assisted by the Rev. James K. Egly.

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hassler of Redmond. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold (Bud) Springer of Heppner.

Marking the bridal aisle were soft yellow pew bows, matching those which accented the two tall altar standards which held spires of white and yellow gladioli and fern. Candelabra, holding tall white tapers, added to the summer setting.

Escorted to the altar by her uncle, Vern Hassler, the bride was attired in a self-styled white brocade gown with chapel train. The fitted bodice was styled with long tapered sleeves accented with pearl buttons, and scooped neckline. Her bouffant veil of illusion net was attached to a headpiece of white silk roses. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and cascading stephanotis with satin streamers. For "something old" the bride wore a single strand of pearls given to her by her grandmother, Mrs. Blanche McFadden. "Something borrowed" was a lace trimmed handkerchief from a family friend, Mrs. Rupert Park; "something new" was a dime put in her shoe by her uncle, and "something blue" was a garter made by the bride.

Miss Chris Hassler, cousin of the bride, Redmond, attended as maid of honor. Her mint green sleeveless street-length dress was fashioned with a full pleat in the back which extended from the deep V-cut neckline. She wore matching shoes, and a green net veil headpiece was held with a crown of yellow daisies. She carried a nosegay bouquet of yellow daisies.

Bridesmaid attendants were Miss Janet Downs, cousin of the bride; Mrs. George Copeland, Mrs. Raymond Lyons and Mrs. Christopher Grady. Their gowns of mint green were identically styled with that of the maid of honor, with matching accessories. They carried nosegays of white and yellow daisies.

Little Vicki Hassler, cousin of the bride, preceded the bride as flower girl, wearing a matching green dress and carrying a small basket of white daisies.

Jerry Hassler, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. Shan Applegate of Eugene, and formerly of Heppner, attended as best man.

Ushering, and lighting the tapers before the ceremony, were Doug Dubuque, Heppner, and Greg McFadden, Redmond, brother of the bride.

Other ushers were Butch Heath and Dale Holland, both of Heppner, and Harold Weathers of Bend. Wedding selections were played by Mrs. Donald Rich, organist, who also accompanied Robert Kircher when he sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

For her niece's wedding, Mrs. Hassler chose to wear a watermelon colored pink lace and satin dress with bone accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Springer, mother of the groom, attended in a powder blue lace sheath and jacket, with powder blue and white accessories, and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception followed in Westminster Hall. The five-tiered white wedding cake was decorated with pale yellow and green frosting flowers and topped with white wedding bells and pale yellow ribbon.

Mrs. Oscar Osmundson, Bend, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Harry Fagan, Eugene, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. Pouring punch were Mrs. Leonard Rouse, Richland, Wn., and Mrs. Leonard Downs, both aunts of the bride, and coffee was served by Mrs. Jerry Hodge, Portland, Mrs. Meda Butler and Nan Hodge.

Miss Ginger Springer, Heppner, sister of the groom, presided at the guest book. Miss Kathy Bertman, Portland, and Mrs. Jay McDowell, Eugene, were in charge of the gift table.

Among the honor guests present were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. McFadden of Woodburn, and both maternal and paternal grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Spinger and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moore, all of Hood River.

Attending from Heppner were Mrs. Lyle Jensen and Mrs. Lincoln Nash. Several local friends of the groom and OCE college friends of the couple were among their wedding guests.

For their wedding trip to Eugene and along the Oregon coast, the bride changed to a pale pink sleeveless linen dress, with darker pink accessories.

After August 29, the couple will be at home at 1235 N. Mountain St. in Ashland. Mrs. Springer will be teaching at Ashland Junior High school the coming year and her husband will continue his college education at Southern Oregon College. She was graduated from Redmond High school in 1964 and from Oregon College of Education in 1968.

After graduating from Heppner High school in 1963, the groom attended OCE for two years, then served in the U. S. Army for two years.

Golden Ages to Meet

Heppner Golden Age club will resume regular monthly meetings on Tuesday evening, September 3. Members and guests

Pine City Residents Honor Future Bride

Thirty-six family friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Myers, Pine City, Saturday afternoon, August 17, for a bridal shower honoring Miss Karla Luciani, future bride of Douglas Anderson.

Assisting her sister with the gift opening was Sheila Luciani.

Centered on the serving table was an arrangement of fresh dahlias.

A novel idea for refreshments was having the guests create their own banana splits. Hostesses supplied a variety of flavored ice cream scoops and several different kinds of toppings, and guests then created their own choice of dessert.

Hostesses for the afternoon shower were Mrs. Leo Ashbeck, Mrs. Thomas Ashbeck, Mrs. Kenneth Coppinger, Mrs. Juel Smith, Mrs. Burl Wattenburger and Mrs. Myers.

Special guests during the afternoon were Mrs. Nels Anderson, mother of the prospective groom, and Mrs. David Anderson, Albany.

will meet at the Episcopal parish hall at 7:00 p.m. for a potluck dinner, and a variety of entertainment will follow. All members are urged to attend and join in making plans for the fall meetings.

Rebekah Luncheon Serves Large Crowd

Response to the invitation of the banquet-picnic committee of the Heppner Chamber of Commerce to the luncheon for visiting royal courts, dignitaries and fair board members Saturday noon after the parade were "overwhelming". The Triple Links club of Sans Souci Rebekah lodge prepared for 50, serving following Rebekah members persons away after all food had been served, according to Mrs. Adele La Trace, chairman.

Assisting Mrs. La Trace with the buffet luncheon were the noon after the parade was Mrs. Conn Adkins, Mrs. Scott Furlong, Mrs. Tom Huston, Mrs. Gerald Rood, Mrs. Larry Cook and Mrs. Eva Griffith.

Leonnigs Honored At Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Erwin entertained at their home last Thursday evening with a potluck dinner and dance honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ron Leonnig who will be moving to the McMinnville area shortly.

Guests for the evening included close family friends and former employees of the couple. Following dinner, guests enjoyed dancing to live music in the Erwins' garage.

Couple to be Honored On 25th Anniversary

An open house reception will honor Mr. and Mrs. Riley Munkers on Sunday afternoon, September 8, in recognition of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Family members and relatives who are planning the occasion extend a cordial invitation to the couple's many friends in the area to call at the Munkers home 365 S. Green St., between the hours of 2 and 5:00 p.m. and extend their greetings.
