4-H Girls Get Awards At Fair Style Revue

What's "Happening '68" was in evidence Wednesday evening, August 21, with the bright array of apparel modeled by their young creators, all members of Morrow county 4-H clothing or knitting clubs.

A large number of those participating were recalled to the stage of the Heppner High school multipurpose room to receive blue, red, and championship awards when announcements were made at the close of the revue by Mrs. Donna Bergstrom, general 4-H superintendent. A good crowd of proud parents and friends were present to applaud them in their accomplishments, held inside this year, due to possible cold and rainy weather at the fairgrounds.

Judging had been done on all garments early the same day, with pertinent information on description and cost of the costume turned in by contestants to their leaders early in the month. Scoring for the style revue is based on 100 points: 25 for the girl, including posture, poise, grooming and attitude; 50 for the outfit on the girl, including choice of texture, color and style, its becomingness to the girl, fit, lines of the garment, accessories used, value for money spent; and 25 points for construction, accurate cutting and quality of work as it contributes to the "professional look".

Special welcome was given Queen Bernice Matthews and princesses of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court, honor guests of the evening.

Miss Jean Stockard, a student at the University of Oregon and a former clothing champion, served as narrator. Assisting as script writers were Joan Stockard, Debby Parks, Sherri O'Brien, Debbie Warren, Chris Munkers and Nancy Doherty.

Attractive background decorations which carried out the theme were made by members of the Empire Builders 4-H club, with Nancy Doherty, chairman.

Escorts for the evening were Dave Hall, John Hall, Alfred Drake and Keith Nelson.

Grand Championships
Jill Padberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elden Padberg, Lexington, was grand champion dress revue winner. She constructed and modeled a striking grey wool ensemble with contrasting white knit trim. She was also named champion in knitting construction.

Linda Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Heath, Heppner, was named reserve champion for the style revue and was grand champion winner in clothing construction. A fashionable orange and white checked wool suit with orange accessories had that "professional" look.

Clothing Winners
Other style revue clothing winners were Danette Leighton, junior champion; Jan Ekstrom, reserve champion. Intermediate champion was Carley Bergstrom; Kerry Coppock, reserve champion. Senior champion was Jill Padberg, with Linda Heath, reserve champion.

Champions named in construction sewing, 2nd year beginners, were Cheryl Hams, champion; Anita Davidson, reserve, and Patricia Van Schojack, alternate. In Sub-Deb A, Barbara McCull was champion; Teana Stefani and Jan Ekstrom, co-reserve. Champion in Sub-Deb B was Diana Wright; Kerry Coppock, reserve, and Kathleen McElligott, reserve.

Phase 5 had one champion, Cindy Ekstrom; no reserve. Jill Padberg was champion of phase 7, with Diane Cutsforth, reserve.

Cooking Winners
In 4-H Cooking, phase 2, "Easy Meals," Lisa Collins placed first, followed by Chris Evans and Patti O'Hara. Top winners in phase 3, "Food Adventures," were Kelli Snyder, first, and Cheri Carlson, second. Libby Abrams placed first in phase 4 of cooking, with Sandi Gelson, second, and Kelly Wolf, third. Champion in outdoor cookery was Mathew Grochowski.

Contests
In 4-H muffin baking contests, Lori Bergstrom was champion, and Patti O'Hara, reserve. Champion in intermediate cake baking was Libby Abrams.

Winners in food judging contest, junior division, were Mary Pat McElligott, 1st; Lisa Collins, 2nd; Catherine McElligott, 3rd, and Kay Bergstrom, 4th. Senior division winner was Sandi Carlson.

On the foods judging team, going to state fair, were Shelly Wolff, Barbara Allstott and Kelly Wolff.

Top three winners in clothing judging contest, junior division, were Donna Flack, Teana Stefani and Sandra Palmer; intermediates were Christine McCabe, Carol Papineau and Debbie Yocum. Senior clothing judging winners were Diana Cutsforth, Jill Padberg and Glenda Kay Van Winkle.

State Fair clothing judging team includes Chris McCabe, Carol Papineau and Debbie Yocum.

In knitting judging, junior division, Jan Ekstrom placed 1st, Carol Holtz, 2nd, and Sharon McCull, 3rd; intermediates were Kathleen Ayers, 1st; Kathy Crum, 2nd, and Peggy Taylor, 3rd. 36 Mustangs Out For First Drills At Heppner High Thirty-six boys answered the opening call of Coach Ed Hiemstra of Heppner High school to football practice Monday, and after being issued uniforms, they turned out for the first session.

The first three days consisted of conditioning, after which the squad moves into contact work and fundamentals.

Offense of the 1968 Mustangs will be basically the same as that of last season. During the first workouts, a noticeable gap was felt by the loss of the graduating seniors.

"These standouts will be hard to replace but with much dedication to the task, it is hoped that their absence will be filled by aspiring candidates of the 1968 squad," the coach said.

Starters of 1967 who have graduated are Al Drake, key pivot man, Terry Corbin and John Rawlins, guards; big Bob Dobbs, tackle; and Steve Petty, John and all-league Bill McLeod at ends. Missing from the backfield are Dave Hall, quarterback, and Randy Stillman, halfback. Key reserves who graduated were Jim Sherman at guard and Cary Davis, halfback.

The 1968 edition of the Mustangs will have experienced personnel at ends with the return of juniors Lee Huson, Matt Murray, and senior Bill Baker. In the interior line, Steve Munkers returns at tackle with Rob Abrams, Hal Bergstrom, Bill Greenup, John Harris, Terry Hughes and Dave Wright adding experience as reserves from 1967.

The backfield has John Hall and Dean Kindle as returning starters, with John McCabe, Larry Pettyjohn, Bruce Marquardt and Rick Witherrite, also back. The latter players have had much playing experience.

Returning Jayvee players are Rick Cox and Dallas Harsin, backs; Kevin Dick and Keith Currutt, linemen.

Other outstanding prospects are transfer Jim Lynch, Rick Marquardt, Mark Lovgren, Gary Munkers, and LaVerne Van Marter of the upper three grades, plus a very excellent crop of freshmen, some of whom may give the upperclassmen a run for their positions, according to the coach.

These freshmen include Bruce Bergstrom, Tom Cutsforth, Mike Doherty, Greg Greenup, John Hedman, Barney Marshall, Charles Pointer, Beryl and Rory Stillman, Gary Watkins and Dean Wright.

During early practice sessions Wright showed promise of becoming one of the best punters to show in this area for some time, Coach Hiemstra said.

First game of the season for the Mustangs is a non-conference affair with Condon High here on Friday night, September 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake and twin daughters, Kathy and Karen of Monmouth, and another daughter, Mrs. David (Beverly) Fitzgerald, Salem, arrived Thursday to visit his mother, Mrs. Snoda Blake and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heinrichs, and Paula. Coming on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Allen (Jennifer) Weaver, Wally Hansen and Tom Pfoff, all of Monmouth. The group attended the Shrine game and festivities in Pendleton, where Weaver and Hansen both played in the game. Weaver was later voted outstanding player of the game. On Sunday the group enjoyed the Cowboy breakfast and rodeo.

Needles, Mrs. Nancy Ekstrom; Irrigon Knitters, Mrs. Kerlin, and Pine City Community club, Mrs. Judy Currin.

Those serving on the Style Revue committee were Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Crum, Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. Van Winkle and Mrs. Padberg.

280 Entries Set Record At County Horse Show

Entries soared in the Morrow county open horse show Friday with some 280 entries, setting a new high for the event. This was at least 80 more entries than last year.

Patti Healy's Jet's Babe Bar took the honors this year as champion performance horse, being ridden by Kite Healy. Art Vance just missed permanent possession of the championship trophy when his Frosty was judged reserve champion. For the past two years Frosty won the grand championship at the show, and had two legs on the trophy.

Domino Melody, owned and ridden by Ralph Beamer, won the cow cutting championship again, repeating from last year. In second was Floyd Jones' Mr. Bar Barred, ridden by Jim Gorman. Tied for third was another Jones horse, Pat Brady, which the owner rode himself, and Ralph Beamer's The Maestro, ridden by Neil Beamer.

Three riders competed in junior calf roping, but no time was posted on each when they failed to rope their calves.

Gale Malcolm rode her horse, Skeet Bar, to first place in the OBRA barrel race, and Ruby Fullerton took second on her Bobba Louie. Third was Rex-all's Baldy, owned by Bob Steagall and ridden by Pat Dougherty. Patti Healy rode Babe Bar, owned by Bill and Kite Healy, to fourth place and Joan Healy came in fifth on Jet's Dunny Bar, also owned by the Healys.

Fred Mankin was superintendent of the show, his 20th consecutive show in that position. Bill Farrel of John Day was judge, Howard Bryant was ringmaster, Alice Vance was clerk and Gene Pierce was announcer. Complete Horse Show Results Will Be Printed Next Week

Mrs. Jessie Griffin returned to Heppner Tuesday, August 20, following an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Herb Case in Poulsbo, Wn., and other relatives in that area, and with her daughter, Mrs. Norman Griffin in Beaverton, who brought her home, accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Walker on the trip.

Jaycees Capture Grand Sweepstakes

(Continued from page 1) and Gary Hunt and Mike Orwick rode on the float in this section. Mrs. Jerry (Joyce) Hollomon was in charge of the waltz, and children were Kay Dene Hollomon and Perry Wilson. Mrs. Bruce (Linda) Rigby organized the barber shop section, and Allen Burkenbine, Michael Jones, Steven Jones and David Allstott provided the barber shop quartet. Mrs. Forrest (Gail) Burkenbine worked out plans for the "beat" music, and this section of the float was represented by Tawnee Gray, Christina Nolan and Darcy Hollomon. Jaycees won $50 for sweepstakes and $25 for first in adult floats.

One of the most beautiful floats in the parade was the Heppner Soroptimist's "Madame Butterfly," which took second place in the adult division, with a prize of $15. Hand painted butterflies floated at the front of the float, which was designed by Miss Terry Lincecum, chairman. It depicted a Japanese scene and Susan Starks, Soroptimist scholarship winner, rode on it in authentic Japanese costume.

Heppner and Lone Rainbow Assemblies each featured the rainbow in their fine floats with some of the officers of the assemblies riding on them. Both colorful and showing a great deal of work, the floats must have posed a big problem to judges to pick the winner for the juvenile float division. Finally, the Ruth assembly (Heppner) was awarded first and lone assembly, second, with prizes of $25 and $15 respectively.

Hermiston Chamber of Commerce's brilliant float took first place for out-of-county entries, winning $15, and won hearty applause from the large and appreciative crowd.

Umatilla Sage Riders were judged best riding club and won $25 for the first place, and the lone High school band won $15 as the first place band in the parade.

The Union Pacific Railway's train, a scaled down version of a normal U. P. train, made a return engagement and many enjoyed riding on it.

Many, many novel entries were in the parade, a good number of them on the comical side, and dozens of beautiful horses appeared, together with their mounts.

As has been their custom for many years, Hager's Dairy, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hager, generously passed out ice cream bars to all the participating youngsters—and to many who could no longer quite qualify as "youngsters."

Making improvements to the clubhouse which now serves the course. A barbecue pit now makes it possible to have evening or holiday cookouts at the course.

Digging out a pond fed by springs along the eighth fairway. Once used for irrigation, this now finds its best use as a golfing hazard.

But the well is by far the happiest improvement. And adding to the members' happiness is the fact that the Ellsworths cut their usual charge by a substantial amount as a contribution to the community enterprise.

Members credit Ferguson with much of the fine work in keeping the course in fine shape, and they express pride in the job that he has done.

At the present time there are some 60 members of the golf club. P. W. Mahoney is president, Dr. Schaffitz vice president, and Mrs. John Venard, secretary-treasurer.

Membership is $50 per year for families or $40 for single membership. Out-of-town golfers may play on a greens fee basis at the rate of $1 per day.
