FIRST in saddle bronc riding at the Morrow county rodeo was Harry Noble who is being presented a certificate for a pair of chaps from Heppner Auto Sales, Inc., as a trophy. Making the presentation is Princess Kathy Hinton. (G-T Photo)

HEPPNER WRANGLERS took both flag races at the Morrow county rodeo this year and won another trophy given by Farley Motor Company. Princess Sue Ellen Greenup makes the presentation here to the riders. At left is Mrs. Sandra Rodriguez (Eubanks) of Hermiston, and at right of Princess Sue Ellen are Patti Pettyjohn, Ione, and Greg Brooks, Arlington. This is the third flag race trophy for the Wranglers. They expect to race again in the Pendleton Round-Up this year. (G-T Photo)

NORMAN DURFEY of Condon was the first man to win the novice bronc riding event at the Morrow county Rodeo, since this was the first year that the event was on the program. Princess Sheila Luciani here presents him with silver buckle trophy from Wes and Helen Sherman of The Gazette-Times. (G-T Photo)

RON CECIL of Heppner won a trophy buckle given by Herman Green, Heppner, for first place in Wranglers Cow Riding at the Morrow county Rodeo. Princess Marcia Jones presented the award. (G-T Photo)
