

Assembly President To Make Visitations At Rebekah Meetings

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 resumed its regular meetings September 6 after a summer recess. Mrs. Tom Huston, noble grand, took care of a large amount of accumulated communications prior to the business meeting.

Plans were discussed for the official visit of Mrs. Blanche Imel of Portland, state president of the Rebekah Assembly, on Friday, September 20. Preceding the evening meeting will be a no-host dinner at 6:00 p.m. in the Wagon Wheel dining room. Mrs. Huston urged all members to be present for this occasion, with officers requested to wear formals, as well as others who wish to do so.

The annual convention of District No. 29 was announced to be held in Ione on September 19, starting at 1:00 p.m. Mrs. Larry Cook will serve as vice-chairman of the convention.

The lodge charter was draped in an impressive ceremony in memory of Oral M. Scott, who died recently, and a veteran member who was initiated into Sans Souci lodge 57 years ago. Also, a contribution was made to the Endowment Fund for the IOOF Home as a memorial.

A report was given on the Sidewalk Bazaar project by Mrs. Ed La Trace, Triple Links president. Also a committee report was heard on the luncheon served for the royal courts and other dignitaries who attended the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo parade.

Miss Esther Bergstrom and Mrs. Mary Bailey served refreshments during the social hour which followed the close of the meeting.

IGU Program Informs Group of Sister Club

A program designed to help members of the Soroptimist Club of Heppner feel more closely acquainted with its sister club in Folkestone, England, was presented at the club's luncheon meeting last Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Starks, chairman of the international goodwill and understanding committee, shared letters of correspondence, and a variety of pamphlets and publications showing the resort atmosphere and beauty of the port city, received recently from officers of the Folkestone Soroptimist club. Information on Oregon and Morrow county had previously been sent to them. Continued correspondence will lead to a closer relationship between the two clubs and understanding of the two cultures.

Two new members, Mrs. Joyce Ritch and Mrs. Marlene Gray, were welcomed into the club.

Plans are being made by several members to attend the District 2 meeting on Saturday and Sunday of this week at the Hood River Village. The Heppner club will be co-hosts with the Soroptimist club of The Dalles for the Sunday morning breakfast and devotional service.

Lodge to Encourage Added Memberships

Mrs. Ed Hunt, president of Kate J. Young lodge, called the first fall meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective Association to order Tuesday evening, September 10, at the Episcopal parish hall.

Mrs. Clara Gertson, national treasurer of the association, and also state director, reported on her trip to the national directors' meeting which she attended last month in St. Paul, Minn., and of plans being made for the national convention there in 1969.

Mrs. Bill Farra, a past state president, urged members to work toward helping Mrs. Edna Dugan, national president, and Mrs. Ruby Bell, state president, as well as Mrs. Gertson, in obtaining new members in order that the goal set for 1968 will be filled.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Pete McMurry and Mrs. Bob Lowe. The door prize was won by Mrs. Lincoln Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arbogast and daughters traveled to Milton-Freewater over the past week-end to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Taylor. The couple left their children with their grandparents and attended Round-Up events in Pendleton on Saturday.

Church Youth Enjoy Outing to Ione Ranch

A hay ride and weimar roast at the Ralph Crum ranch near Ione was enjoyed by youth of the Church of the Nazarene Saturday night, September 14. Fifteen members of Mrs. Elmer Weitzel's Sunday School class and their sponsors joined in the evening's activities. Youth were transported to the Crum ranch in a truck driven by Elmer Weitzel.

The church wishes to extend its appreciation to the fair board for straw used during the ride.

Mary Cox Engaged To M. Harold Gray

Ivan Cox of Boardman and Mrs. Helen Cox of Heppner are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mary Helen, to Merritt Harold Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt H. Gray, all of Heppner.

No wedding date has been set. Both young people are graduates of Heppner High school, and the groom-elect has recently returned from serving overseas with the U. S. Marines.

Couple is Married On Grandparents' Anniversary Date

Miss Marlene Ruth Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford of Hermiston, became the bride of Thomas Edward Bush, son of Mrs. Lewis Bush, on Thursday evening, August 22, the 43rd wedding anniversary of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely of Ione.

The candlelight ceremony was performed at 7:00 p.m. at the St. John's Episcopal church in Hermiston by the Rev. Chandler Jackson. Decorative arrangements of white gladioli and pink carnations were on the altar, flanked by tall tapers in candleabra.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length wedding gown of white lace over peau de sole, featuring a cathedral train and shoulder-length veil. She carried aqua carnations with pink rosebuds centered on a white Bible, which was given to her at the time of her birth by her great-grandmother.

Miss Wanda Hunt was the bride's honor attendant. She wore a floor-length lace-trimmed pink moire taffeta dress, and carried a shower bouquet of aqua carnations.

Misses Anita and Cyndee Crawford, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids, wearing matching floor-length gowns of aqua moire taffeta, and carried pink carnation bouquets.

Miss Diane Hurrell played the wedding music and also accompanied Mila Robertson, vocalist. Gaylon Bush was best man for his brother, Ushers were Terry McMichael and Herman Bush, brother of the groom.

Candlelighters were Helen and Schellia Bush, and flower girls were Natalie Peck, cousin of the bride, and Sheila Johnson, niece of the groom.

Larry Bush, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer.

The mother of the bride was attired in an aqua lace ensemble, and the groom's mother chose a brown frock. Both wore white accessories and an orchid corsage.

At the reception which followed, an arrangement of aqua gladioli and pink roses centered the bride's table. Serving the four-tiered wedding cake were Mrs. Don Hurrell and Mrs. Tom Wright; pouring were Mrs. Rick Nath and Ms. Rod Bixler. Kathy McGowan kept the guest book, and attending the gift table were Peggy Henderson and Beverly Bush.

Also assisting at the reception were Mrs. Herman Bush, Mrs. Milton Morgan and Mrs. Tad Miller.

Following their honeymoon trip to the Oregon coast, the couple is at home at the Burns Apartments in Hermiston. He is presently employed by the Shell Oil Co., and will leave for Ft. Knox, Ky., on September 23 for National Guard training. Mrs. Bush is employed at Umatilla Army Depot.

Out of town wedding guests came from Ione, Heppner, Boardman, La Grande, Umatilla, Helix and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty represented their shoe store at the Northwest Shoe Convention at the Hilton Hotel in Portland Sunday, arising early to make the trip and returning the same day.
