

SOCIETY

Kinzua Church Scene Of Schroeder-Wright Vows September 14

KINZUA—In a double ring ceremony by candlelight Saturday evening, September 14, at the Kinzua Community church, Miss Sally Schroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Schroeder of Omak, Wash., became the bride of Mickey Wright, son of Mrs. Jewell Webb of Challenge, Calif., and William K. Wright of Fossil.

The service was performed by Rev. Edwin Derrick before the altar decorated with white candles in candelabra and tall baskets of Talisman roses and yellow gladioli.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white peau de soie and chantilly lace, with the lace forming a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a lace rose outlined in seed pearls. She carried an arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. David Ostrander, sister of the bride, with Alana Guinn of Omak, Wash., Linda Bird and Vicki Wham, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaids. Miss Rita Sitor was the maid of honor. They all wore floor length gowns of burnt orange peau de soie with matching head pieces and carried nosegays of orange and yellow carnations.

Lighting the candles were Connie Schroeder, sister of the bride, and Sara Bowman, who wore street length dresses of yellow peau de soie.

Flower girl was Sherri McMinn, cousin of the bride, with Gary Lee of Omak as the ring bearer.

Serving as best man for his brother was Michael Wright, with Gerald Geer, David Ostrander, Curtis Robinson, and Jerry Luther serving as ushers.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Kelsch, who also accompanied Miss Peggy Plank when she sang "Always" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Mrs. Schroeder, mother of the bride, chose to wear a lime green sheath with matching accessories while Mrs. Webb, mother of the groom, wore a dark green dress with beige accessories. Both had corsages of yellow carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex where a four-tiered cake topped with a bride and groom centered the serving table. The cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Robert Misener of Fossil, had an added touch with miniature attendants with dresses made of the material as the bridesmaids' dresses.

After cutting and sharing the first slice of cake, it was cut and served by Mrs. Bill McMinn and Mrs. Ed Wham, aunts of the bride. Grooms cake was passed by Janet Lee of Omak. Mrs. Homer Bowman poured the coffee and Mrs. David Dahill served the punch.

Attending the gift table was Miss Shellie Guinn of Omak. When leaving for their wedding, Mrs. Wright and Miss Patsy Johnson of Omak was in charge of the guest book.

Attending the gift table was Miss Shellie Guinn of Omak. When leaving for their wedding, Mrs. Wright and Miss Patsy Johnson of Omak was in charge of the guest book.

Among out of town guests were Mrs. Fred Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Guinn and Miss Janet Lightly of Omak, Wash., Maurice Brown and Otis Vaughn of Oroville, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holman, Johnny Mae Edwards and Sherry Brown of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Baker of John Day.

All homemakers who are interested in learning about sourdough cookery are invited to attend one of the 14 units in Umatilla county, or three units in Morrow county. Information concerning date and time of meetings may be secured at the four county extension offices in Hermiston, Milton-Freewater, Pendleton, and Heppner. Extension membership is not required for attendance.

Youth to Report At Legion Meeting

A full evening program is planned for the American Legion and Auxiliary family meeting scheduled to be held Monday, October 7, at 7 p.m. in the Legion hall.

One Legion members are also invited for the evening's activities, which will begin with a potluck dinner at 7 p.m. During the program Boys State representatives will be on hand to speak of their experiences at the summer convention. Those who were delegates this year to Beaver Boys' State in Canada were Terry Peck, Steve Munkers, Jerry Healy and Larry Pettyjohn. Attending Girls State were Sara Miller and Teresa Harshman, who will report at a future meeting.

Also on the evening's agenda will be installation of new officers for the Legion organizations.

Hobby Club to Make Flowers at Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Hen House Biddies Hobby club will be Monday, October 7, at 1:30 p.m. at the Lexington City Hall.

Flowers from a liquid resin will be made. Those attending are asked to bring a supply of wire, flower centers and leaves. Guests are welcome to attend.

Bokovoy-Struckmeier Betrothal Announced

Recently announced is the engagement of Miss Diane Sharon Bokovoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Bokovoy of Lewistown, Mont., to Dick M. Struckmeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier of Boardman, and former residents of Heppner. Miss Bokovoy is a senior at Seattle Pacific College, majoring in elementary education. She previously attended Northwest Christian College in Eugene, where Struckmeier is enrolled for his senior year, preparing for the ministry. A June wedding is planned.

Assembly President Among Honor Guests At District Meeting

Rebekah Lodges of District No. 20, consisting of Sans Souci of Heppner, Holly of Lexington, and Bunchgrass of Ione, held their 47th annual association meeting September 19 at Wilbrows Grange hall in Ione, with Bunchgrass Lodge as host.

The meeting was called to order at 1:00 p.m. with Mrs. Lucile Rietmann, noble grand of Bunchgrass, presiding. Several distinguished guests were introduced and welcomed, including the following: Blanche Imel, president of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Leigh Wilkens, marshal of Rebekah Assembly; Hazel Wainwright, past president of Rebekah Assembly; Frieda Majeske, state good of the order chairman; Flossie Haines, home board trustee, and Gladys Sheer.

Following opening ceremonies, lodge officers surrendered their chairs to the following convention officers: Eva Hamlett, chairman; Opal Cook, vice-chairman; Edith Matthews, secretary, and Gladys Drake, treasurer. Address of welcome was given by Mrs. Hamlett, with response by Mrs. Cook. Thirteen past chairmen answered roll call, and tribute was given them by members of Sans Souci. A memorial service and tribute to the Bible were beautifully presented by Holly lodge, and 4th year Rebekah members were given special honor by Bunchgrass members.

The day marked the birthday of President Blanche and she was surprised by being presented a beautiful birthday cake, served with punch and coffee during the recess period. A tribute to her by members of Sans Souci was enjoyed, followed by a gift presentation from the convention.

Roll call of lodges was taken, with the following lodges represented: Sans Souci, Holly, Bunchgrass, Utopia, Aloha, Sunbeam, Pauline, and Marion.

Invitation of Sans Souci lodge to host the 1969 association meeting in Heppner was accepted, with Holly lodge to entertain the 1970 meeting.

Officers elected for the next year were: Opal Cook, chairman, Sans Souci; Hilda Yocum, vice-chairman, Holly; Altha Kirk, secretary, Sans Souci; Betty Rood, treasurer, Sans Souci. Appointive officers are Adele LaTrace, warden, Sans Souci; Lucile Rietmann, conductor, Bunchgrass; Esther Bergstrom, inside guardian, Sans Souci; Pearl Wright, outside guardian, Sans Souci; Elsie Ayers, right supporter to chairman, Sans Souci; Elaine Rietmann, left supporter to chairman, Bunchgrass; Lucille Parrish, chaplain, Sans Souci; Delpha Jones, right supporter to vice-chairman, Holly; Ida Lee Engelman, left supporter to vice-chairman, Holly; Shirley Connor, musician, Sans Souci; Dorothy Burchum, right altar bearer, Holly; Donna Papineau, left altar bearer, Holly; Eva Hamlett, junior past chairman, Bunchgrass.

Following the afternoon session, guests were entertained at a dinner, served by members of the Women's Activities Committee of Willows Grange.

Study of Mushrooms Found of Interest

"Is it a mushroom or a toadstool? Can we eat it?" Such were some of the questions asked by members of the Ione Garden club September 18 when a mushroom study was the program of the day.

In the absence of Mrs. Tom Huston, mushroom enthusiast, Mrs. Wallace Wolff showed pictures and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth guided a discussion of experiences in mushroom gathering. Also of interest were the uses of mushrooms in fresh and dried floral arrangements.

A short business meeting was held and two new members, Mrs. Cutsforth and Mrs. Edwin Kessler, were welcomed into the group. Mrs. Harold Huber, hostess, and Mrs. Kenneth Klinger, co-hostesses, served refreshments.

Special note was given to the District Garden club meeting to be held at the Tapadera in Pendleton on Tuesday, October 31. Four members of the Ione club who are district officers are Mrs. Fred Martin, district director; Mrs. Harold Huber, secretary; Garry Tullis, program chairman, and Mrs. C. C. Jones, world garden chairman, and all will assist with the meeting.

A field day for gathering dry materials and Christmas supplies has been planned for the morning of October 9, with the club meeting following at 1:30 p.m. at the Garry Tullis home.

MR. AND MRS. BILL J. MCCOIN (Patti Pettyjohn)

Candlelight Service Joins Patti Pettjohn, Bill McCain

A candlelight ceremony on Thursday evening, September 19, joined in marriage Miss Patti Pettyjohn and Bill J. McCain. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn of Ione, and parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Norma McCain of Terrebonne and Numa McCain of Sisters.

Vows were exchanged at the altar of the Ione United Church of Christ, with the Rev. Harold McArthur of Stanfield Baptist church, a close friend of the family, officiating at the 8:00 p.m. ceremony.

An all-white background included floral altar arrangements of white gladioli combined with white dahlias and trailing ivy, and large white bows on the candelabra which held white tapers. White satin pew bows marked the bridal aisle, and adding to the atmosphere were candle-lighted green hurricane lamps in the windows, entwined with ivy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor length A-line gown of white linen, embossed at the high waistline and down the skirt with floral lace. Her detachable chapel train was held at the shoulders of the gown. A crown of white floral lace held in place the elbow length veil of illusion net. She carried a bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums and white rosebuds, with sprays of trailing ivy.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Marianne Pettyjohn. Bridesmaids were Miss Leslie McCain of Terrebonne, sister of the groom, and Mrs. George (Nancy) Miller of Ione, sister of the bride.

The attendants were matching A-line floor-length gowns of moss green polished linen. Daisies on the mandarin collars and down the front, with separate panel trains enhancing the back. Each attendant carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Diane and Jan Kazer, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Stan McGough of Pendleton. They were attired in floor length yellow linen dresses, trimmed with white daisies with yellow centers, and wore white pom pom wristlets.

Serving as ringbearer was Tommy Joe McCain, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Van Rietmann of Condon, accompanied by Darrell James of Ione, sang the numbers, "The Wedding Prayer," "Whither Thou Goest" and "Bless This House."

Jim Bob McCain of Sisters attended his brother as best man. Ushers were George Miller, Ione, brother-in-law of the bride, and Dale Clark of Redmond.

The artistic floral decorations for the ceremony were furnished and arranged by members of the Ione Garden club, with Mrs. Garry Tullis as chairman. Guests were greeted in the church social rooms following the ceremony. In charge of the reception arrangements were Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and Mrs. Darrell Wilson, assisted by other members of the Women's Fellowship Group of the church.

After the bridal couple cut and shared the first slice of the four-tiered wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. Norm Durfey of Condon and Miss Gale Malcom

Grange Hears IFYE On Booster Night

An interesting Booster Night program was enjoyed at Rhea Creek Grange hall on Saturday, September 28, by a large group of members and friends.

A number of musical selections were sung and played by Gregg and Anita Davidson on the piano, auto harp and melodia.

Steve Davis of Olex, International Farm Youth Exchange student, showed slides and gave an interesting account of his stay in New Zealand. He had lived with families on sheep and dairy farms and enjoyed meeting the people and taking part in their day to day activities.

Barton Clark presented a reading, "It is My Grange". Leslie "Doc" Babb brought a good display of the Oregon state rock, the thunder egg, and told of their formation, where they had been found and the cutting and polishing of them.

A lively session of "fiddling" by Bob Stevens, accompanied by Dallas McDaniel closed the program.

Mrs. Keithley Hosts Evening Card Party

Mrs. Vern Keithley entertained with two tables of pinocle at her home last Wednesday evening. Winning high prize was Mrs. Bruce Griffith, second high was won by Mrs. Dean Connor, and low prize went to Mrs. Lyle Jensen.

Others playing were Mrs. Bob Steagler, Mrs. Carl Thorpe, Mrs. Don Stroeber, Mrs. Jerry Dougherty and the hostess. Guests enjoyed an angel food cake dessert with chocolate whipped topping and coffee.

by Lee and Paul Simonis, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Simonis of Bend, and helping about the rooms were Mary and Anne McElliott of Ione.

For their honeymoon trip the new Mrs. McCain changed to a brown and beige ensemble with brown accessories.

They are now at home in Pendleton where both are students at Blue Mountain Community college, with the bride enrolled in secretarial science and her husband in agricultural science. Both are active in the Rocky Mountain Region of National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

HERMISTON

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY

When you can't locate it or get it done in Heppner, these Hermiston Business and Professional Firms will be happy to serve you.

154 W. HERMISTON AVE. PHONE 567-6495
COLUMBIA FURNITURE COMPANY
 JOHN and NORMA KROGH, OWNERS
 Eastern Oregon's Most Complete and Friendly
 Furniture and Appliance Headquarters
TERMS—TRADES—COMPETITIVE PRICES—AND ALWAYS
THE BRANDS YOU KNOW — FREE DELIVERY
 RCA—GIBSON—WHIRLPOOL—TOP-OF-THE-LINE
 HOME FURNISHINGS
 Modern—Provincial—Danish—American

CAP'S AUCTION GRIFFIN GODWIN AUTO YARD
 Herm. McNary Hwy. Ph. 567-5013 Use Cars
 Col. Cap Christensen, Auctioneer Everything in Automotive and Auctions every Friday, 7:30 p.m. Car Parts—Used—Rebids
 "We Sell Everything" Wholesale Retail
 Consignment or Cash The home of "one million
 Open 9 to 5 Daily road-tested parts"

6000 SAMARITAN
 SKILLED NURSING CARE
 Home for Aged
 Occupational and Physical Therapy
 Modern—Reasonable
 CALL 567-8337

HERMISTON GOOD SAMARITAN CENTER
 970 W. Juniper, Hermiston

LEE'S RADIO AND TV CLINIC 200 S.W. 11th Ph. 567-8412 Complete Television Sales and Service Electronics is our business— not a sideline Westinghouse—Motorola—Sylvania	YOUR COMPLETE STATIONERY STORE Machine Repair Office Supplies Books Legal Forms ADAMS ARTS & STATIONERY Ph. 567-8019
--	--

PLUMBING—HEATING
 AIR CONDITIONING—SHEET METAL WORK

Carrier Phone 567-6641
 You can pay more elsewhere but you can't buy better than at Hamilton Sheet Metal, 2121 N. 1st, Hermiston

JONES RADIATOR SERVICE Repairing Auto—Truck—Tractor DAVID E. JONES, OWNER Serving this area for 15 years 1315 N. 1st, Hermiston PH. 567-6916	MEADE'S FLOOR COVERING 500 N. 1st Phone 567-6212 Carpeting—Draperies—Paints Floor Covering—Wall Tile We install everything but—the paint.
---	---

HERMISTON READY MIX
 Phone Hermiston 567-5214
 Home Phone 567-8235
 Ready mix concrete and all accessories.
 We are equipped to "concrete" you properly.
 FREE ESTIMATES

WORTHY ADVISOR TERESA HARSHMAN

Teresa Harshman Installed Rainbow Worthy Advisor

A timely theme, "Let There Be Peace," was chosen by Miss Teresa Harshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman, for her installation as new worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, International Order of Rainbow for Girls.

A number of parents and lodge officers were in attendance Sunday afternoon, September 29, in the Heppner Masonic hall for the formal ceremonies which seated incoming officers for the fall term.

Serving as installing officers were Sara Miller, worthy advisor; Jill Padberg, chaplain; Lynda Orwick, marshal; Bonnie Akers, musician, and Bonnie Morgan, recorder, both of the Ione Assembly.

Incoming officers were introduced and escorted to their stations. Serving for the coming term will be: Teresa Harshman, worthy advisor; Sue Melby, worthy associate advisor; Cindy Harsin, charity; Teresa Wright, hope; Karla Weatherford, faith; Sara Miller, drill leader; Christi Taylor, chaplain; Jill Padberg, recorder, and Lynda Orwick, treasurer. Appointive officers are: Peggy Taylor, love; Bobette Jones, religion; Diane McLachlan, nature; Cathy Sherman, immortality; Patti O'Hara, fidelity; Glenda Kay Van Winkle, patriotism; Debbie McLeod, service; Marie Van Marter, confidential observer; Linda Baker, outer observer; Tami Meador, musician, and Karen Cox, choir director.

Mrs. Rachel Harnett will continue to serve as mother advisor. Six members of Blue Mountain Chapter of DeMolay, Hermiston, were present to conduct the crowning ceremonies. Placing the crown on the new worthy advisor was Boyd Thomas, Jr., master counselor.

In keeping with the chosen theme of Worthy Advisor Teresa, a sacred reading, "Let There Be Peace on Earth", was presented by Karla Weatherford.

Mrs. Lorraine Irby of Olex, grand deputy of Rainbow for Girls, was among the honor guests introduced. She made a special presentation to the assembly, a souvenir gavel of wood made from a tree planted in Mt. Vernon by George Washington.

Other special guests included Mrs. Earle Bryant, worthy matron, and Howard Bryant, worthy patron of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star; Herman Winter, worshipful master of Heppner Lodge AFAF; Boyd Thomas, Sr., adf advisor of Hermiston DeMolay; Berl Akers, worshipful master of Ione Masonic lodge, and some of the officers of the Ione Rainbow Assembly.

In tribute to the work of Sara Miller for the past term, she was honored by an impressive addendum by the new worthy advisor and her officers. An addendum, arranged by Sue Melby.

Karen Curnutt Weds Robert Irby Sept. 20

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Curnutt of Heppner are announcing the recent marriage of their daughter, Karen to Robert Irby, son of Mrs. Gladys Cox of Boardman, and Glenn Irby of Heppner.

Judge Paul Jones performed the marriage ceremony on Friday evening, September 20, at 7:30 p.m. Attending the couple were Miss Mary Cox and Harold M. Gray, both of Heppner.

Following a short wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are now at home in Hermiston where the groom is employed as assistant city recorder. He was recently discharged from the U. S. Navy, after completing his term of service overseas.

welcomed Teresa to her new office.

Following introduction of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harshman, they presented her with a token gift. She was also presented a gavel by members of the Rainbow advisory board.

The new worthy advisor's chosen colors, aqua blue and silver, were carried out in decorations in the reception rooms. A large white cake decorated with blue flowers and silver leaves, with her theme inscribed in blue, was served by Mrs. Madge Bryant and Mrs. Claude Graham. Punch was served by Mrs. Earle Bryant, and coffee by Mrs. Norman Florence. Mrs. Howard Bryant was chairman of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Gene Orwick and Mrs. Arnold Melby.

Beautiful basket arrangements of dahlias, gladioli and daisies were at the east and west stations of the main hall. The fall flowers were also artistically arranged on the reception tables and in the entrance hall.

Sourdough Cookery Is October Topic Of Extension Units

Sourdough cookery will be the study lesson subject for all Home Extension units in Umatilla and Morrow counties for the month of October, reports Home Agent Molly Saul.

Homemakers who participate in the study lesson will learn in the history of wheat products throughout the world, the nutritive value of wheat products, history of sourdough cookery, how to make sourdough starters, and how to bake with sourdough. Tested recipes will be distributed for sourdough bread, muffins, pancakes, biscuits, shortbread, and fruit cake.

Extension project leaders of Morrow county who will teach this project are: Mrs. Fay Ferguson, Mrs. Frank Connor, Mrs. Weldon Witherrite, Mrs. Muriel Palmer, Mrs. Beverly Wright, and Mrs. Barbara Jessmer.

All homemakers who are interested in learning about sourdough cookery are invited to attend one of the 14 units in Umatilla county, or three units in Morrow county. Information concerning date and time of meetings may be secured at the four county extension offices in Hermiston, Milton-Freewater, Pendleton, and Heppner. Extension membership is not required for attendance.

Relatives Visited By Mrs. Duvall

Mrs. Amanda Duvall spent last Thursday night with her sister, Mrs. Lula White, near Pilot Rock. They had attended the dedication of the Ukiah water system that day. Their nephew, Lloyd Waid, as president of the Ukiah water association, spoke on what the new well means to Ukiah. Congressman Al Ullman was main speaker at the ceremony. A potluck supper was served to more than 140 people following the ceremonies.

On Friday Mrs. Duvall took Congressman Ullman to Portland, following his speech at a luncheon meeting in Heppner. She spent the night with her grandson, Loren Wickersham, and family, returning to her home Saturday afternoon.

Art Classes Begin

Art enthusiasts, whether beginner or amateur, who are interested in taking art instruction under the direction of Dr. Margaret McDevitt will begin classes Thursday, (today) October 3, in the Lexington school building. Classes will be conducted at 1 p.m., and 7 p.m., and are offered as part of the Blue Mountain Community college evening school program.