

MR. AND MRS. LEON GEORGE MAGILL (Vickie Robinson) (Lyons Photo)

Robinson-Magill Wedding Solemnized In Methodist Church

Miss Vickie Eileen Robinson and Leon George Magill exchanged marriage vows at an afternoon candlelight ceremony in the United Methodist church in Heppner on Saturday, September 28. Officiating at the 2:00 p.m. service was the Rev. Melvin Dixon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson, Heppner, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley L. Magill of Cecil.

At the altar were tall white standards holding arrangements of white gladioli and pink pom-pom chrysanthemums, with matching flowers in altar vases, and flanked by white tapers in candleabra. Yellow and white satin bows marked the bridal aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a self-fashioned floor length A-line gown of white chantilly lace over peau de soie, featuring short bell sleeves. Her shoulder-length illusion veil fell from a large single rose. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations, accented with sprays of lily-of-the-valley with tiny pink rosebuds caught in the long white streamers.

Maid of honor was Miss Ramona Wright, cousin of the bride, of Wallowa.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Matthews and Miss Nancy Doherty, classmates of the bride. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Marlene Magill, sister of the groom.

The maid of honor and junior bridesmaid wore matching floor-length gowns of yellow lace, fashioned in cage style, over fitted satin. The bridesmaids were in contrasting pink lace over satin gowns in matching styles. Attendants carried bouquets of roses and spider chrysanthemums in shades of pink and yellow.

Kelly Dee McGirr, cousin of the bride, Long Creek, served as flower girl and Brian Hevener, also cousin of the bride, McMinnville, attended as ring bearer.

Lighting the candles before the ceremony were Patti Kay Saling, cousin of the bride, and Dee Ann Hedman, both of Heppner, wearing short pink dresses of lace over satin.

Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bride, attended in a muted pink wool suit dress with cranberry accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Magill, was attired in a blue crepe and lace dress with blue accessories.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church social rooms. Single pink tapers encircled with pink and white pom-pom chrysanthemums, were at each side of the tiered wedding cake. Serving the guests were Mrs. Mike Saling, Mrs. Leonard Caverhill, Mrs. Donald Robinson, Mrs. Robert Kelly, all aunts of the bride, and Mrs. John Magill, cousin of the groom.

Attending the gift table were Ginny Clough and Christine

Steagall Home Scene Of Family Gathering

The arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Robbie McQueen and Mr. and Mrs. Bud McQueen of Shady Valley, Tenn., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Steagall last Friday was the occasion for a family get-together of many out-of-town relatives at the Steagall home over the week-end.

Coming to greet the visitors were Bobbie Steagall and son Rob of Albany, Dave Steagall of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Steagall of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Willy Steagall of Lebanon, and Steagall's mother, Mrs. Cora Burnside of Spray. Other callers during the weekend were Mrs. Deanna Brandhagen and children from Pendleton, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall of Lexington, and Mrs. Lola Breeding.

On Sunday the group gathered at the Breeding home in Lexington for a family dinner and visit.

On Monday the two families from Tennessee resumed their trip home with Mrs. Breeding accompanying them for an extended visit.

New Bride Honored At Wedding Shower

A miscellaneous bridal shower honoring a recent bride, Mrs. Robert Irby of Hermiston, was held last Sunday afternoon at St. Patrick's Catholic Parish hall.

Following the opening of many lovely gifts by the honoree, hostesses served refreshments of angel food cake, punch and coffee from a serving table attractively decorated in shades of blue and white, the color scheme used by the bride for her wedding. Centered on the table was an attractive floral centerpiece with blue candles.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Wilbur Van Bokland, Mrs. Snoda Blake, Mrs. L. D. Tibbles and Mrs. Grace Buschke.
