EOC Starts Search For Lost Alumni

Many a college wonders where some alumni went, but Eastern Oregon college in La Grande wonders a lot more than many.

Which is another way of asking anyone who attended or was graduated from EOC any time since its 1929 founding to raise his hand, as it were. A postcard with a current address would do as well, a college executive said.

In return, the college promises alumni bulletins, invitations to Homecomings and reunions, possibilities to contact friends, and, in substance, a chance to relive more youthful days.

The zip code for La Grande is 97850.

Dr. and Mrs. Norton Johnson of Cincinnati, Ohio, nephew and niece of Mrs. Hannah Anderson, have been visiting her at her home for several days this past week. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bergstrom entertained the visitors and several family members at dinner at their home in the Gooseberry district last Thursday evening. The couple left Saturday for the return trip home.

Mrs. Arnie Hedman attended a buyers furniture market in Seattle from Wednesday through Saturday of last week. Accompanying her on the trip was Mrs. Pat Brindle, who spent time visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brunner of Des Moines, a suburb of Seattle. The Brunners are formerly of Heppner where he was associated with J. C. Penney Co.

Lindsay Invited To Courts Meeting

Larry Lindsay of Lexington has been invited by Governor Tom McCall and Chief Justice William C. Perry to participate in the Citizens' Conference on Oregon Courts October 17 and 18 at the Marion Hotel in Salem.

Lindsay will join some 175 other community leaders from throughout the state in the 2-day session. Participants will study Oregon's judicial system and make recommendations on how it might be improved.

Inviting non-lawyers to share in judicial reform has been a highly successful innovation already experienced by 30 to 35 other states. This will be the first such session in Oregon.

Recent week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Anderson were Mrs. H. S. Swift of Duarte, Calif., Mrs. Adelia Martin and Suzanne of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Parent and daughters, Lisa, Shelly and Alison of Oregon City.
