

New Legion Officers Are Installed; Boys State Reports Heard

American Legion Post No. 87 and Auxiliary held installation of new officers of both organizations at their October 7 meeting.

Immediately following a pot-luck dinner, installation ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. Mildred Eubanks, Ione, and Raymond Daley, Hermiston, past district commander.

New officers who will serve the auxiliary for the ensuing year are Mrs. Clayton Sweek, president; Mrs. Mike Saling, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Don Munkers, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Gerald Rood, treasurer; Mrs. Riley Munkers, secretary; Mrs. Arnie Hedman, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Joe Yocom, chaplain, and Mrs. Munkers, historian.

New officers elected to serve the men's post are Gerald Rood, commander; Don Munkers, 1st vice-commander; Glen Ward, 2nd vice-commander; D. E. Hudson, sergeant-at-arms; Arnie Hedman, chaplain; William Heath, historian; James H. Driscoll, adjutant; C. J. D. Bauman, service officer, and Riley Munkers, finance officer.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Ora Cole, district president from Athena, who made an official visitation, and Mrs. Daley, also families of Beaver Boys State representatives, who gave reports and showed slides of their week's activities at Boys State during the past summer.

Reports were given by Terry Peck, Larry Pettyjohn, Jerry Healy and Steve Munkers. Girls State representatives will report on their trip and activities at a future meeting.

Couple Makes Plans For Coming Marriage

A December wedding is being planned by Miss Elizabeth Boon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boon of Portland, and James Barclay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Barclay of Heppner.

Mr. Barclay is presently a student at the University of Portland, majoring in Spanish. Miss Boon attended Willamette University and the College of San Mateo in California. She is currently employed by United Airlines in Portland.

Mrs. Mattie Green accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon to Portland Sunday, September 29, where they attended a reception for Bishop Everett Palmer, newly appointed bishop to the Portland area. The reception, held in Portland Civic Auditorium, was attended by about 3700 people. Entertainment for the event was provided by a 300-voice choir.

Susan Drake to Get Nursing Cap Friday

Miss Susan Drake, daughter of Mrs. Grace Drake, Heppner, is one of 132 sophomore students at the University of Oregon School of Nursing to receive her cap Friday night, October 18, at 8:00 p.m. in the traditional candlelight capping ceremony.

Faculty and upper classmen take part in the exercise which signifies the entrance of the student into the clinical phase of her nursing program. Symbolic of her progress, she is presented with the cap of her school and takes the Florence Nightingale pledge. The pledge indicates her intention to conform to the ethical standards of the profession as she assumes responsibility for the care of patients.

The sophomore nursing students have been attending classes and laboratories on campus during the summer. There will be a reception for friends and relatives of the class of 1971 following the ceremony.

Miss Drake was a 1966 graduate of Heppner High school and attended Oregon State University for two years.

La Grande Ceremony Unites Don Keeling And Nancy Johnson

Miss Nancy Kay Johnson was united in marriage to Donald Evan Keeling in a recent ceremony at the First Presbyterian church in La Grande.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Keeling of La Grande, who were former residents of Heppner.

The Rev. Wendell M. Sullivan officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. Organist was Mrs. Clair McManus, who also accompanied Thomas Blaylock when he sang "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white A-line gown of peau de sole and lace, with chapel train. The lace bodice featured a sweetheart neckline, long petal-point sleeves, and her shoulder-length illusion veil was held by a pearl tiara crown. Her bouquet was of white starburst chrysanthemums, centered with a white orchid. The single strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Carlene Crampton, sister of the bride, Portland. Maid of honor was Linda Lester, and bridesmaids were Linda Dyson, cousin of the bride, San Diego, Calif.; Wendy Hughes and Christy Eustace, both of La Grande.

The attendants wore matching floor-length salmon-colored gowns covered with white fish net, and carried nosegays of white daisies and green baby rosebuds.

Candlelighters Sharon Garity and Linda Chadwick, attired in long sleeveless salmon dresses, carried salmon candles decorated with matching carnations and green streamers.

Karen and Sharon Rangitsch served as flower girls, wearing long salmon dresses with fish-net bodice, and carried baskets of daisies and petals.

Ken Keeling attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Allen Brogotti, Jim Dean, Paul Ables and Dennis Johnson, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Johnson chose a mint green crepe dress with lace coat, with beige accessories and yellow rosebud corsage. Mrs. Keeling, mother of the groom, wore an ensemble of yellow lace, white accessories with salmon carnation corsage.

The reception was held in Reynolds hall at the church. Decorations were in mint green, with salmon streamers extending from a large white satin heart inscribed with the names of the bride and groom.

A three-tiered wedding cake, with heart-shaped base, was decorated with salmon roses and mint green leaves. It was baked and decorated by the groom's mother and Mrs. Martha Abbott. Serving the cake were Mrs. William Bibby, aunt of the groom, Seattle, and Mrs. Jack Brack, aunt of the bride, Yakima. Pouring were Mrs. Lynn Lester and Mrs. Donald Caldwell.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Keeling will make their home in La Grande. The groom attended schools in Heppner before the family moved to La Grande several years ago. Both of the young people have attended Eastern Oregon College. He is now assistant manager of Standard Stations, Inc., and his bride is employed at Bill's A & W.

Annual Fall Party Has Good Response

Delicious homemade pies and cakes were awarded the winners at the annual fall card party held September 30, sponsored by St. Patrick's Catholic Altar Society in the parish hall.

Winning high in pinocle was Mrs. Carey Becket, second high was won by Mrs. Madge Bryant, and low prize went to Mrs. Larry Prock. Bridge winners who received prizes were Bill Collins, high, Mrs. Jerry Sweeney, second high, and Mrs. Milo Prindle, low. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Ed Gonty and Mrs. Earl Gilliam.

Hostesses served pumpkin pie and coffee to the guests prior to the evenings play.

Engagement of EOC Couple Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shuey of Gold Beach are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Pamela Jean, to Timothy Jon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Smith of Yakima, Wash., and former residents of Heppner.

Miss Shuey, a graduate of Gold Beach High school, is currently enrolled as a sophomore at Eastern Oregon College in La Grande.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1967, is also a sophomore at Eastern Oregon College.

State Garden Club Leaders are Guests At District Meeting

Eight clubs were represented at the fall workshop meeting of the Oregon Newsletter, a bi-monthly publication of news for Oregon garden clubs; and Mrs. A. H. Mason, a past president, current anti-litter chairman for the state federation, and an accredited flower show school judge. She spoke of the world landscaping at Willamette National cemetery in the Mt. Scott area of Portland, known as the "Arlington Cemetery of the West."

Mrs. F. T. Martin of Ione, district director, was voted a state life membership, in recognition of her two terms as district director.

Twenty-four outstanding floral arrangements were displayed on the luncheon tables and throughout the meeting rooms. First prize went to the Pendle-

Unit Holds Lesson On Sourdough Use

Mrs. Albert Wright and Mrs. Elmer Palmer were project leaders for the extension lesson, "Sourdough Cookery," at the October 2 meeting of the Rhea Creek Extension Unit, held at the grange hall, with 21 attending.

Included in the lesson on sourdough cookery were its history, several recipes, and a demonstration of making sourdough biscuits. Those present were offered a cut of sourdough starter from the project leaders to take to their homes for future use in sourdough cookery. A pot-luck luncheon was served, with sourdough bread, biscuits, cookies and chocolate cake as enjoyable additions to the meal.

A business meeting followed the luncheon, with Mrs. Albert Wright, chairman, conducting the meeting. Committee chairmen and project leaders for the coming year were appointed.

Next meeting will be held Wednesday, November 6, at 10:30 a.m. at the grange hall.

ton Dirt Dabblers; second prize to Mrs. Omar Rietmann of Ione Garden Club; third prize to Mrs. Elsie Porter of Pendleton Garden Club, and honorable mention to Sadie Engdahl of the Pendleton club.
