

Famous Flower Show Enjoyed on Program

A colored slide presentation of the 49th International Flower Show, staged annually in the New York Coliseum, was presented on the program of the Heppner Mothers club at its meeting on October 7. The audio-visual program, filmed and made available by the Kodak Company, was shown by Mrs. Boh Jones and Mrs. Herman Winter.

The group met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Methvin, with Mrs. Jim Hilderbrand assisting. Welcomed were Mrs. Paul Arbogast, a new member, and Mrs. Dale Holland, a guest.

Mrs. Pat Brindle presided over the short business meeting which followed the program. Increased membership was urged to replace several who had moved away during the summer, and plans were discussed for coming meetings.

Theme for the international flower show program was "Planting Keeps America Beautiful", inspired by President and Mrs. Johnson's natural beautification program. The beautiful array of bright flowers, in a variety of international settings, is one of the largest and most exciting flower shows held anywhere. Adding the living touch is the flower queen of the show and young models in a spring fashion show.

Mrs. Irby, introduced by Worthy Advisor Sharlene Hamlett, conducted a school of instruction on the opening and closing of Rainbow meetings. Refreshments were served by Mother Advisor Dot Halvorsen, Cindy Ekstrom and DeAnn Barnett.

The Ione PTA met last Thursday in the high school cafeteria. Following the opening of the meeting, Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn read the school budget for the coming year which was approved. It was decided to keep the room count. The 6th and 11th grades won the count for this meeting. Ron Daniels, superintendent of Morrow county schools, presented a talk on the 1½% tax limitation. Ninth and tenth grade mothers served refreshments of gingerbread, whipped cream, coffee and tea.

Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ held a tea last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Martin in honor of Mrs. Mike Luedde, a new-comer to the community. The occasion was also Mrs. Luedde's birthday. The tea table was decorated with a large bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, accented with china pheasant feathers. The cake, bordered with yellow and white, was inscribed with "Happy Birthday Allison". Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Mrs. Milton Morgan and Mrs. Darrel James served coffee and tea; Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, Mrs. Darrel Wilson and Mrs. Fred Martin served cake.

Members of the Ione Topic Club are entertaining individually, to raise money for the library.

Mrs. Omar Rietmann, the first to entertain, held a pinocle party last Monday. Prizes were won by Mrs. Annie Schiffer, Mrs. Eva Hamlett, Mrs. Dot Halvorsen, and Mrs. Lucille Rietmann. The prizes were things Mrs. Rietmann had brought back from England and Germany.

Mrs. Milton Morgan entertained with a card party last Wednesday afternoon, with prizes going to Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Mrs. Mike Luedde, and Mrs. Ron Umberger. The hostess served a pumpkin chifon dessert to three tables of guests.

Warren Bruce Nistad Marries Nevada Girl; Reside in Colorado

KINZUA — St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church in Ely, Nev., was the setting for the August 31 wedding of Margaret Louise Miller and Warren Bruce Nistad. The Reverend E. P. Sheppard officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale V. Miller of Ely, was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nistad of Kinzua.

The bridal gown was distinctively styled of white organza with the jewel neckline trimmed with re-embroidered alencon lace. The lace was repeated on the sleeves and A-line skirt. The gown also had a cathedral train. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a headpiece of pearls, alencon lace and crystals. She carried a formal cascade bouquet of yellow and white daisy chrysanthemums, stephanotis and ivy clustered around a large yellow spider chrysanthemum.

Mrs. Robert Brostoff of Oregon City was matron of honor and Miss Carol Nistad, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Both wore floor length gowns of leaf green satin with headpieces of white starburst and baby breath.

Donald Seitz of Portland was best man and ushers were Lt. Raymond Miller, brother of the bride, and Donald Cowin.

Mrs. J. Kendall Jones was the organist and played the Swedish Wedding March by Soderman and Mendelssohn's Wedding March. During the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Butterman played Bach's Prelude in C with Mrs. Butterman as harpist. The harp was also played for the Lord's Prayer by Malotte.

The bride's mother wore a gold sheath with matching accessories while the groom's mother chose to wear a shocking pink gown. They both had corsages of gardenias and white roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall where the serving table was covered by a hand crocheted tablecloth made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Sundberg. It was centered with a wedding cake topped by two white doves. Cutting the cake were Susan Prescott and Gwenn Jensen, cousins of the bride. Presiding at the punch table was Vicki Williams, with Cathy Way in charge of the guest book. Sheryl Lynn Kirkeby and April Jensen distributed the bags of green colored rice to the guests.

For their wedding trip to New Orleans, the new Mrs. Nistad wore a yellow knit dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and white mums. The young couple is now at home in Denver, Colo., where Mr. Nistad is a first year student at Iliff Theological Seminary.

Attending the wedding from Kinzua were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nistad and daughter, Carol.

Mrs. Jeanne Lovgren and Marsha Mae Lovgren traveled to Corvallis, October 5 to attend the Oregon State-University of Washington football game. Following the game, Mrs. Lovgren traveled to Eugene to visit at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hudson.

Soroptimists Hear Of Club Activities

In observance of "Founder's Day" and the 47th anniversary of the founding of the first Soroptimist club in America, members of the Soroptimist club of Heppner were informed of the organization's history by Mrs. Bill Johnson at the luncheon meeting November 3. Interesting highlights were reviewed, starting with the first club organized in Oakland, Calif., in September, 1921, and the development into an international organization.

Committee reports and correspondence were heard during the business meeting which preceded the program, with Mrs. Elaine George presiding. A humorous "taped complaint" in the form of a poem on a small rolled paper strip, was presented to the president by Mrs. Emile Goshens and Miss Terry Lincecum, relating humorous incidents at the district meeting in Hood River. A quarterly report of the budget was reviewed by Mrs. Bill Collins, budget chairman. Plans for stimulating communications with the sister club in Folkstone, England, were discussed.

Discussion on the 15th annual meeting of District 2, held at Eddie Mays Inn in Hood River on September 21-22 was the program of the October 10 meeting, when members met for a sack lunch in the city hall. The club was represented by 14 members at the district meeting, an exceptional 36% of the club's membership. Workshops on classification and membership and on club extension were found of interest, as well as a panel and film presentation of "Drugs and Narcotics — Their Use and Misuse." All 31 clubs of the district were represented, with the Heppner club being a co-host with The Dalles for the Sunday breakfast and supplying the devotional program. District Director Dorothy Berry of Portland used the theme, "Aim High—Act Now" for the two-day meetings.

At a special meeting Thursday noon, October 31, initiation will be held for three new members, Mrs. Bill Weatherford, Mrs. Mike Gray and Mrs. Joyce Ritch.

IONE—A bridal shower was given for Patti Pettyjohn on September 10 at the Arlington Methodist church basement. Assisting Patti in the opening of her gifts were Linda Kirsch of La Grande, Darla McArthur of Stanfield, and her sisters, Nancy Miller and Marianne Pettyjohn, of Ione. Patti received many useful and lovely gifts. The door prize was won by Mrs. Bill Wise of Mikkalo.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Oscar Burlingame of Olex, Mrs. Vernon Mikkalo of Mikkalo, Mrs. Floyd Anderson, Mrs. David Childs, Mrs. Otto Steinke, and Mrs. Bill Marshall, all of Arlington.

Mrs. Chester Sappington of Grants, Pass visited for a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Snoda Blake. Other guests at her home recently were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake of Monmouth, who came October 4 and stayed until October 6.

'Make It With Wool' District Contest Entries Urged Now

Young seamstresses interested in creating their own individual look in fashion are happily thumbing through fashion books in preparation for entering the "Make It Yourself With Wool" competition now in full swing across the nation.

Competition is open to all girls from 10 through 21 years of age who sew at home, in class, or any kind of sewing program such as 4-H. This educational competition helps young stylists achieve valuable skills in sewing and tailoring along with self-confidence, and poise in modeling at the fashion shows in 15 districts in Oregon. Each contestant is required to choose her pattern and fabric and then to sew and model her own 100% American wool fashions.

Girls compete with others in their own age group: Sub-Debs (10-13) with Sub-Debs, Juniors (14-16) with Juniors, and Seniors (17-21) with Seniors. All these smart young stylists will be aiming for prize awards of college scholarships, U. S. Savings Bonds, sewing machines and more—plus state and district awards. And for the two top girls in the nation—a 2-week vacation in the fun and fashion capitals of Europe.

Sub-Debs, along with the Juniors and Seniors, will model for the district competition on Saturday, November 16, at the Elks Club Ballroom in Hermiston. Juniors and Seniors who fashion two-piece suits, coats, capes, or dresses will model first at the district level. One senior and one junior will be chosen from each district to model at the state "Make It Yourself With Wool" fashion show on December 6, 1968, in the Mayfair Ballroom of the Benson Hotel in Portland.

The Oregon state winner will be given a trip to the national finals in San Francisco on January 16, 1969, where she will be able to compete for the thrilling chance to widen her world with the fabulous European vacation.

Mrs. Robert Hoskins, district competition director, stated today, "Girls entering the 'Make It Yourself With Wool' competition are urged to send in their entry forms as soon as the fabric is purchased. Deadline for mailing entries is November 1. The garment does not need to be finished. Prompt and early application will insure faster processing and acceptance of your entry."

The first local girls entering from this district are the Bergstrom sisters, Shauna, Cary, Kay and Lori, daughters of the Roland Bergstroms.

For entry forms and other information, write Mrs. Robert Hoskins, Box 1241 Pendleton or call 566-3324.

Mrs. Bernard (Bud) Marshall is making good improvement in St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, her husband reported Tuesday evening. She re-entered the hospital Monday for medical treatment and checkup after undergoing major surgery in September. Mrs. Marshall was dismissed from the hospital on October 4 but returned for the checkup this week. Definite date of her return home is not known at this time, but she is showing fine progress, Marshall states.
