

Girls Volleyball Teams Achieve Several Victories

By SHERYL BRITT
After two years of discouragement and lack of teamwork the HHS girls' volleyball teams have finally reached a moment of triumph. All three teams defeated Pilot Rock on Tuesday, October 8, as Heppner's girls traveled to meet the challenge.

Two days later Ione faced up to defeat from two of Heppner's teams while forcing two of ours to bow.
At Pilot Rock Heppner's "C" team started the meet off right with a 42-28 victory. The "B" squad then followed with a 43-34 decision. As Heppner's "A" squad members took their places as much silence as is possible in a gym full of girls settled on the room. One half hour later a 43-29 victory by the "A" squad tied up three wins in a single evening as a result of 18 girls' unusual eagerness to bring a victory home.

The games at Ione two days later started off much the same as those at Pilot Rock with a 53-57 victory by Heppner's D string. Ione snapped to attention during the C teams' performance and gave Heppner its first blow by defeating the C team 46-24. Ione's fervor must have been contagious as the B squad trounced Heppner by a 50-33 margin, overcoming a large Heppner halftime lead.

For the second time in a week Heppner's A string took the floor. After a slow start the girls caught fire and Heppner's six took command with teamwork and serving such as has not come from Heppner's gym for many years. The final score being 56-24 in favor of the HHS volleyball squad.

A team members are Valerie Boyer, Kay Huson, Susie Greenup, Debbie Bennett, Jody Rugg, and Sheryl Britt.

Playing on the B-team are Sherri Brock, Linda Clough, Peggy Taylor, Jill Rugg, Jamie Smith, and Terry Pettyjohn. Jill Fauberg, Jennie Daly, Glenda Carpenter, Linda Shuman, Barbara Allstott, and Dee Ann Pettyjohn are the C-team. Substitutes include Brenda Carpenter, Jeri Keithley, Becky Doherty, Darlene Warren, Nancy Campbell, and Patti Luciani. Diana Cutsforth is manager; Sue Chally is assistant manager; Mrs. Dorothy Agee is the coach.

Debra and Brenda Young, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Young, spent the week-end at their parental home. Both girls are living in La Grande, where they are enrolled at Eastern Oregon college.

Six Boys Advance In PP&K Contest

Everett Keithley, contest director, said that the errors are deeply regretted and steps will be taken next year to prevent a recurrence. Each of the boys will receive a special trophy of achievement in recognition of their fine performances.

Assisting with the contest Saturday were a good number of one Lions Club members and other Lions. The Lions have played an important role in staging the competition ever since it was started here. A good crowd of spectators was on hand for the event on the ideal Saturday morning. An even 50 boys took part.

Rosewall Named To Aid Humphrey

W. C. (Clarence) Rosewall has been appointed to a state committee of the Farmers and Ranchers Committee for Humphrey and Muskie, it is announced by R. E. Schodeen, Gresham berry grower, who is chairman for the group.

Others on the committee are Herman Plass, Hermiston; Robert J. Elkins, Molalla; Walter Wells, Hood River; and Hans C. Rasmussen, Junction City.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark recently were Ray McDuffy of Olympia, Wn., and his son-in-law, Ned Bimock, of Penn Grove, Calif. McDuffy, a retired army colonel, is a first cousin of Mrs. Clark. His father, George McDuffy, was a former sheriff here. The two men came to enjoy the opening week-end of hunting season, and McDuffy returned home October 8, with his first deer. Bimock returned to his home Monday, October 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edger returned last Thursday evening from a two week's trip that took them on a leisure vacation into Arizona and along the California and Oregon coasts. They experienced beautiful weather during the trip, except for an unusual rainstorm in the desert areas around Williams, Ariz.

A week's hunting and camping trip in the mountains near Baker was enjoyed recently by Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Jones, his father, Frank Jones, and their guests from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Terrence Jones and sons, Alton and Frank. Joining the group at their camping spot later in the week were friends of the family, Dr. and Mrs. Osborne and their six children, who are from Portland.

Van Hoomissen Scores Myers In Speech Here

George Van Hoomissen, Democratic nominee for secretary of state, said in Heppner October 7 that the administration of the appointed Republican incumbent in that office is "the most expensive on-the-job training program in Oregon's history."

Speaking to the Heppner-Morrow county Chamber of Commerce, Van Hoomissen said that Secretary of State Clay Myers "lacks the experience, understanding and independence to administer efficiently the responsibilities of the second most important elective position in state government."

Van Hoomissen, who is a two-term district attorney for Multnomah County and a former two-term state legislator, said Myers was appointed as secretary of state because "he had served as a political lieutenant and campaign manager for the Governor." He added:

"The incumbent secretary of state had no experience in elected public office prior to his appointment."

Contrasting his own background to that of Myers, Van Hoomissen pointed out that he is in his second elected term as district attorney, having been nominated for re-election by both major parties, and that he administers a staff of more than 70 with a budget of nearly half a million dollars annually. He also had been elected to two terms in the Oregon Legislature, where he was chairman of House Judiciary Committee. Van Hoomissen said he is running for secretary of state because he is "alarmed at the completely political and inefficient manner in which Myers has run the office since being appointed to it 20 months ago."

Itemizing a bill of particulars against the Myers administration, Van Hoomissen said:

"He 'me-too's' his political benefactor, the governor, displaying no independence of judgment as a member of the State Land Board and as a member of the State Board of Control.

"Myers was the highest-ranking state official on the scene at the prison riot last March yet completely acquiesced his authority to the prison director.

"The administration of the secretary of state's office has been a fiasco—thousands of registered voters did not receive their Voters' Pamphlets; thousands of Democrats got Republican pamphlets and vice-versa; voting machines broke down, depriving thousands of their right to vote, and the cost of distributing the pamphlets exceeded the budgeted amount by thousands of dollars.

Van Hoomissen pledged that he would, as a member of the State Land Board, "move ahead with range management and re-seeding programs on the 800,000 acres of Eastern Oregon land administered by the board." As a member of the State Board of Control, he would seek to "institute efficient management programs at our state institutions to avoid recurrence of such disgraceful humiliations as the prison riot."

Earlier in the day, Van Hoomissen spoke to students at Heppner High school on the importance of young people taking a constructive role in politics within the two-party system.

The local visit was arranged by W. C. Rosewall.

Rebekahs Plan For Two Dinners

By DELPHA JONES

Enrollment Gains At Blue Mountain

Enrollment is up at Blue Mountain Community College this fall; according to information from President Wallace W. McCrae.

A total of 784 fulltime students is enrolled, of whom 474 are first year students and 310 are second year students.

Of the number, 401 are in lower division collegiate courses and 383 in vocational technical. Most of the students come from within the two-county district, numbering 627 of the total. From out of the district and out of state are 157, whose number includes those from nine different states—New York, New Jersey, California, Washington, Idaho, Illinois, Nevada, Hawaii, and Wyoming — and two other countries — Canada and Korea.

Eleven students come from Riverside High school, 25 from Heppner High school, and three from Ione High, making 39 from Morrow county high schools.

Riverside High Dedication Slated

Dedication of the new Riverside Junior-Senior High School building is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, October 27, at 3:30 p.m., Ron Daniels, superintendent of Morrow county schools, announced Tuesday.

Senator Wayne Morse is scheduled as the principal speaker at the dedicatory program. An open house and tour of the building is planned for the public.

Additional students are needed for the evening adult typing class, now being sponsored by Blue Mountain Community College evening program, at Heppner High school.

At the organizational meeting October 8, only four adults were enrolled, with a minimum of 10 needed to continue the course. Taught by Jack Simkins, commercial teacher, it extends over a ten-week period, meeting twice each week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Classes are also being organized in accounting and G.E.D., high school equivalency. Further information may be secured at the high school office.

Recent overnight guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Mel Dixon was Jerry Wallam of Medford, who visited Thursday afternoon and Friday at the Dixon home. Wallam, a long time friend of the family, is a retired Westinghouse executive, and makes his home now at Rogue Valley Manor, a retirement home. Arriving Friday at the Dixon home for a visit were Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Driver. Both couples make their homes in the Holladay Plaza retirement home in Portland. Driver, a retired Geologist from Stanford University, especially enjoyed the trip to Eastern Oregon with the group, where they visited the fossil beds and spent time looking at geological formations in this area.

DON'T LET THE LOBBYISTS AND BUREAUCRATS RUN YOUR SCHOOLS

Elect Dr. Walter BLAKE

STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

WALTER BLAKE STANDS FOR—

MERIT PAY FOR TEACHERS

Let's quit overpaying mediocre teachers! Stop giving teachers automatic raises every few years. Teachers should be paid on the same basis as other professionals; they should earn their raises by doing a better job. Merit pay will attract better teachers, give your children better education.

PROTECTION OF YOUR RIGHT TO ELECT YOUR STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Don't let the bureaucrats take away your right to vote. Keep this office elective.

RETAINING YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE ON SCHOOL BUDGET EXPENDITURES

All voters—not just a few politicians—should have a say in how tax dollars are spent. We must stop the "machine" in its attempt to rob you of your right to vote on all tax measures.

CLOSER RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN TEACHERS AND PARENTS

We must do a better job of informing parents what and how their children are being taught. This will bring parents and their children closer together, and help close the "generation gap."

IMPROVED SYSTEM OF TEACHING READING AND SPELLING

We should teach reading and spelling with modern, up-to-date phonetic methods to insure that each child learns to read and spell early and efficiently.

TEACHING RESPECT FOR LAW-AND-ORDER AND JUSTICE

If our school system and indeed our country are to survive, we must put greater emphasis on teaching respect for law-and-order, the rights of others, and respect for our Constitution and government.

WALTER BLAKE

is experienced as an administrator, a teacher and teacher of teachers

Dr. Blake has devoted his entire adult life to work in education. His more than 20 years of experience includes seven years instruction and supervision of teachers and teaching methods, and an Associate Professorship of Education at Willamette University in Salem.

In addition, he has had strong experience in administration, in student counseling, and as Dean of Students at Willamette University.

Author and lecturer on modern teaching methods, he has developed new projects and special advanced courses in teaching methods.
