SOCIETY

New Resin Craft Featured Monday On Club Program

The art of making colorful resin flowers provided an interesting program for members and guests of the Heppner Mothers club when they met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Pat Brindle.

Two members of the Lexington Hen House Biddies hobby club, Mrs. Carmen French and Mrs. Lonnie McCabe, demonstrated the processes of making and assembling the plastic resin petals into flowers, and combining them into attractive Christmas arrangements. The new resin craft is one of several now being studied by the Lexington hobby club, which meets the first Monday of each month, and invites others to join them.

Several items of business were discussed with Mrs. Robert Abrams presiding. A gift of appreciation was presented to Mrs. Loren Lucore for her work as president during the past year. New year books, personalized with individual polaroid pictures were issued to members by Mrs. Bob Bergstrom and Mrs. Vern Keithley, chairmen. Guests of the evening were Mrs. Dale Holland, Mrs. Malcolm Johnson, Mrs. French and Mrs. McCabe.

The annual Christmas party is planned for Monday, December 9, at the home of Mrs. Keithley. A potluck dinner featuring foreign foods will be served at 7 p.m., followed by gift exchange and making of door swags for patients at Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Brindle and the assisting hostess, Mrs. Wes Sherman, served a frozen lemon dessert with tea and coffee following the program.

Youth to See Film At Lutheran Church

Members of the Hermiston Lutheran League will be at Hope Lutheran church in Heppner for a meeting and program on Sunday evening, November 10. They will present a special program, which will include a film on the use of drugs. The meeting will be held from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.

All youth of Hope and Valby Lutheran churches are urged to be present with an invitation extended other young people in the area to also attend.

REV. RUDOLPH MENSCH

Rev., Mrs. Mensch Plan Open House

The Rev. and Mrs. Rudolph Mensch, who recently arrived in Heppner to serve Valby and Hope Lutheran churches, invite the public to open house at the parsonage, next to Hope church, Friday, November 8, from 2 until 5 p.m.

Everyone is welcome. The couple started work here on October 1 and state that they find Heppner and vicinity a very friendly location—social and courteous.

Before coming here, they were at Port Orford, and Pastor Mensch's first charge in the United States was at Colfax, Wash. During his ministry he has aided in construction of a parsonage, three churches and two educational units.

He was born in McNutt, Saskatchewan, Canada, and graduated from Luther College, Regina, Saskatchewan, in 1931. Seminary training followed at Dubuque, Iowa, where he graduated in 1934. Mrs. Mensch is the former Emma M. Schaan, and they were married June 30, 1935.

For 15 years, Rev. Mensch served in western Canada, four of which were traveling as a missionary along the coastal area of British Columbia. He came to the United States in 1950.

Pastor Mensch was a member of the Kiwanis club at Colfax and also was president of the Whitman County Mental health association when it was first organized. He was charter president of the Kiwanis club at Woodburn. He joined the Lions club at Port Orford, and during the past summer attended the International Lions convention at Dallas, Texas.

The Rev. and Mrs. Mensch have two children, Raymond and Janet, who are living in Seattle, Wash., and Milton-Freewater, and they have four grandchildren.

Heppner Elks Host Ritualistic Contest; Enterprise is First

Members of the Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 were hosts Saturday and Sunday, October 26-27, for the district ritualistic contest for the Northeast District of Oregon.

First place honors in the contest were awarded to the team from Enterprise, who received a plaque for their outstanding ritualistic work. Second place was awarded to the Heppner team and third place was won by the Pendleton team. The Heppner ritual team was coached by LaVern Van Marter, Jr. Also individual officers received prizes for outstanding work in their respective stations in the lodge.

Included in the district are teams from Pendleton, Milton-Freewater, Hermiston, Condon, The Dalles, Hood River, Baker, Enterprise, La Grande, and Heppner. The contest was conducted by the Oregon State Elks Association, as are other similar contests in the remaining four districts of the state. State champion in ritualistic work is determined from among winners of contests between the districts.

A buffet style dinner was served Saturday night to Elks members and guests, followed by a dance.

Golden Agers Plan Meeting for Monday

Golden Age club members will gather for their regular monthly potluck dinner and meeting Monday, November 11, at 7 p.m., in the Episcopal parish hall. Meeting night was changed from a previously announced date.

Following the potluck dinner pictures of Russia will be shown as a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Lindsay Named CowBelle President

Morrow county CowBelles held election of officers for the coming year at their October business meeting, held last Wednesday at St. Patrick's parish hall.

Elected as president was Mrs. Larry Lindsay, who will serve with Mrs. Jerry Brosnan, 1st vice president; Mrs. Ned Clark, 2nd vice president, and Mrs. Ron Currin, secretary-treasurer.

At the conclusion of the business meeting members presented Mrs. Frank Anderson, immediate past president, with a charm bracelet gift featuring CowBelle charms, in appreciation for her work during the past year.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. John Venard and Mrs. Gene Pierce.

Proceeding the business meeting a no-host luncheon was served to the club by members of St. Patrick's Altar Society.

Other outgoing officers who served throughout the past year were Mrs. Lindsay, 1st vice president; Mrs. Brosnan, 2nd vice president, and Wavel Wilkinson, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike DePaulo of Milwaukie, family friends of Mr. and Mrs. Len Ray Schwarz, spent the past week-end at the Schwarz home while in the area to do some elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Soward visited from October 24 through 26 with their son, Wayne Soward, and family in Boise, Idaho. The son was in the hospital where he underwent knee surgery and was making fine progress towards recovery, they reported.

Barlow Wedding Held In Pendleton Church

Miss Linda Darlene Mansker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mansker of Reith, was united in marriage to Everett Charles Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Barlow of Route 1, Pendleton, at an evening ceremony on Thursday, October 3. The service was held in the First Christian church, with the Rev. William Backstrom officiating.

The bride was attired in a beige lace brocade shift with matching coat for the ceremony. She carried a bridal spray of yellow rosebuds on a white prayer book.

The couple's honor attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ball, former Heppner residents, and now of Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Barlow are graduates of Pendleton High school.

He is now employed by Pendleton Grain Growers, Inc., and his bride is employed by the Woolworth Co.

Card Club Meets At Schwarz Home

Mrs. Len Ray Schwarz was hostess to members of her pinocle group Friday night, October 25, as they met at her home for an evening of cards. Two tables were in play, with Mrs. Kenneth Turner holding high score. Second high was won by Mrs. Dick Robison, low was held by Mrs. Robert Laughlin, and Mrs. Mike Gray won the traveling pinocle prize.

Others who were present for the evenings play were Mrs. Robert Mahoney, Mrs. Merlin Hughes, Mrs. Fritz Cutsforth, Mrs. Schwarz and her co-hostess, Mrs. Robison, served refreshments and coffee to those attending at the conclusion of the evening's play.

Couple to Exchange Vows November 10

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Robison of Spray are announcing the coming marriage of their daughter, Marilyn Virginia, to John R. Haughton, U. S. Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heinrich of Bend.

The couple will exchange vows Sunday afternoon, November 10, at 2:00 p.m. at the Assembly of God church in Spray. A reception will follow in the social rooms.

Miss Robison, a graduate of Spray High school in 1955, is presently employed at Pioneer Memorial hospital, Heppner. Her fiancé will leave at the end of the current month for the Philippine Islands, where he will be stationed with the U. S. Air Force.
