

Irrigation Event Set November 12

An educational irrigation seminar is scheduled at the Morrow county fairgrounds here on Tuesday, November 12, from 1:00 until 5 p.m. with Courtwright Irrigation Service of La Grande sponsoring the event.

Information on irrigation will be presented with slides and movies, according to Burr Courtwright of the company. Among subjects to be covered will be wells, pumps, pipelines, various automated and semi-automated sprinkler systems, new crops, financing and power.

The seminar is scheduled to provide latest information on irrigation in view of the developments and rapidly increasing interest, Courtwright said. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Camp Fire Awards Given at Ceremony

Advancement of Blue Bird girls into Camp Fire girls was held in a "fly-up" ceremony at the First Christian church Monday, October 14, under the direction of the two leaders, Mrs. Joe Bartlett and Mrs. Robert Riddle.

Fifteen girls who received camp fire scarves and felt badges as new Camp Fire members were Carmen Clow, Kim Cutsforth, Debbie Holland, Ruth Ann Keithley, Judy Ledbetter, Patti Lott, Joan Ployhar, Patricia Salinger, Tina Schmidt, Gail Simkins, Kathy Schwarz, Muriel Turner, Lisa Burkenbine, Rogene Balfe and Kathy Marshall.

Older Camp Fire members who achieved the first rank of Trail Seeker in Camp Fire were Lisa Collins, Mary Huson, Diane Martin, Linda Pearson, Twilla Riddle, Teri Simkins, Shannon Walker, Juanita Wilson and Karen Winter. These girls were all awarded five achievement beads and a certificate for their effort in achieving the rank.

Robina Riddle received a certificate and ten achievement beads for her work in obtaining the second rank of the Wood Gatherer in Camp Fire.

Two girls, Lynda Baker and Kathleen Bartlett, each received a certificate and one large achievement bead for obtaining the fourth rank of Group Torch Bearer in Camp Fire Girls.

Special three year membership awards were presented during the ceremonial to Lynda Baker, Lisa Collins, Linda Pearson, Twilla Riddle, Teri Simkins, Juanita Wilson and Karen Winter. These girls were also presented with their honor beads at this time.

A large group of parents and younger brothers and sisters attended the ceremonial and enjoyed a wiener roast and refreshments in the church social rooms prior to the ceremony.

Services Scheduled For Confirmation

Confirmation services will be held Sunday at both Valby and Hope Lutheran churches, the Rev. Rudolph Mensch, pastor, announces.

Those who have completed the special instruction and who will be confirmed are: Hope Lutheran, Heppner — Thomas W. Cutsforth, Kirk L. Robinson, Susan D. Supple, Terry L. Pettyjohn, Doyle L. Alderman, Delbert D. McLachlan, Darlene Warren, and David A. Warren.

Valby Lutheran, Ione — Carley E. Bergstrom, Shauna M. Bergstrom, Cheri A. Carlson, and Herbert R. Ekstrom, III.

These confirmants will give a personal witness of their Christian faith during the Sunday worship hour, the Rev. Mensch said. A reception will follow immediately after the worship service in their honor. A special welcome is extended to anyone who desires to come.

Good Support Given UNICEF Solicitors

United Nations Children's Fund will be benefited by $201.80 collected through the organized efforts of Morrow county young people and adults on Halloween night.

According to report of Mrs. Dirk Rinehart, chairman, nine children in the lone area collected $82; 12 children with assistance of seven adults collected $113.70 in Heppner; and Valby Lutheran church added $6.10 for UNICEF. With so few to cover Heppner in an hour, several residents were missed. Contributions may still be sent or brought to the First National Bank in Heppner until November 15.

Mrs. Rinehart wishes to thank all of the solicitors and the county for the generous support of UNICEF.

Mrs. Dolly Allstott, Gresham, visited overnight one night last week at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lutkins. She was accompanied on the trip by her son-in-law, Wilbur Jackson, also of Gresham.

Ralph Taylor of Astoria was in Heppner recently to visit his mother, Mrs. Loa Taylor, and to do some hunting in the Pilot Rock area with his brother, Roy Taylor. He has been employed as a commercial salmon fisherman throughout the summer season, with headquarters in Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Grigsby of Spearman, Texas, are currently visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Whitaker. The retired couple arrived the last week in October and expect to visit for the next two weeks, while doing some elk hunting in the area. Spearman, located in the Texas panhandle, near Amarillo, is nearly 1600 miles from Heppner.

Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Dr. Koehn

Delta Kappa Gamma held its first regular meeting under the direction of Mrs. Adrian Bechdoit of Heppner, president, at the Tapadera Restaurant in Pendleton Saturday, October 19. Dr. Judd Koehn, art instructor at Eastern Oregon College, spoke on "Sculpture—the Sculptor, the Society and the Environment."

He spoke of the trends in contemporary art since 1960. Today's artist makes use of modern technology and environment. He finds it no longer necessary to make "pretty art" to fit a particular space.

Card Team Stuns Riverside, 53-20

had advanced to the lone 20 before the Cards stiffened and held them for downs. When the lone eight took over, however, they fumbled and the Pirates recovered. It was then that Peterson drove over, Peterson ran the extra point. Score: 47-7.

Having tasted paydirt, the Pirates came back for another. David Schmeder pitched a little flat pass to Peterson who left the defending field in a cloud of dust as he traveled 69 yards, catching lone out of position. Peterson ran the point. Score: 47-14.

The Cards interrupted Riverside's rally when Keith Nelson ran 20 yards off tackle to score. The point was missed. Score: 53-14.

The day's most beautiful run was yet to come and it helped salvage some solace for the plucky Pirates. Lone was on a drive and reached the Riverside 16. There Halvorsen missed a handoff to Nelson. Jo Starke, a true Pirate, grabbed the ball as his booty and ran 82 yards for the game's final touchdown. The point was missed. Final score: 53-20.

Mrs. Amanda Duval and Mrs. Madge Bryant were among those attending the Lords Acre barbecue, bazaar and auction sale at Powell Butte on Saturday. They stayed Friday night at Prineville, and returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Juanita Huddleston, who makes her home in Valdez, Ala., has been released from Allison General hospital in Portland and will stay for a time with Mrs. Annabell Allison before returning to her home, according to word from her uncle, Frank Turner. Mrs. Huddleston underwent surgery in April for an arthritic condition and has been in a cast since that time. She expects to have the cast removed shortly and plans to return to her home before Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cunningham and son, Steven, of Goldendale, Wn., visited recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham. Steven left for overseas duty with the U. S. Army in Vietnam on October 29, after training at Fort Lewis, Wn., and in the east.

Company at the LaVern Keithley home over the past week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sargent and two children Rhonda and Mark from Kinzua. The couple came over to attend the safety dinner for Kinzua corporation employees, held Saturday night at the Legion hall.

Karen McCurdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy and Gayle Batty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Batty, arrived Thursday evening to spend the week-end visiting at their parental homes. Both girls are from Corvallis where they attend Oregon State University. Other visitors at the McCurdy home recently were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Moyer, and two children of La Grande, who came to join in a family celebration honoring Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy on their wedding anniversary.

Prospectors Tip Mustang Gridders For 14-0 Win Here

By PAT KILKENNY

HHS Mustangs were tipped over by a rugged Grant Union in a football game at the rodeo grounds Friday night. The score was 14-0, in a game where tempers flared often.

The Mustangs seemed to fall into place at times, but again their defensive secondary faltered on a few decisive plays. The contest was important to both squads, Grant Union had to win in order to stay in the race for the league crown. For Heppner it would have been a great victory, one which would make it a successful year in a lot of people's minds despite the poor win-loss record. Knocking off a league crown contender would have been a sweet victory, but it was not within the Mustangs' grasp.

Grant Union scored twice, once in the second and again in the fourth quarter. The Mustangs threatened a number of times but never put their offense together effectively at the correct time. Probably the factor which affected the Mustangs the most was their weak pass defense. Their defensive unit was never consistent, though at times individuals shone.

John Hall, Dean Kindle, Bruce Marquardt, and Dave Wright starred on defense. Kindle, Larry Pettyjohn and John McCabe worked well on offense.

John Day received the opening kickoff. From then on it was a see-saw battle until the Prospectors struck paydirt late in the second quarter. The TD came on a pass from quarterback Art Thunnel to tailback Dale Southwick. The PAT kick was good.

The second half was a hard-hitting ground battle with some personal fouls called because of the pressure on both teams. The Prospectors' final tally was on an eight-yard run by Mike Hendrix. The PAT was again good.

Afternoon Game At Madras Slated

By PAT KILKENNY

	Won	Lost	Tied
Wahtonka	5	0	1
Grant Union	5	1	0
Enterprise	4	2	0
Burns	3	3	0
Madras	3	2	1
Sherman County	2	3	1
Pilot Rock	1	5	0
Heppner	0	5	1

Heppner Mustangs will travel to Madras for their final league clash on Friday, November 8. The game will start at 1:30. The Friday date is a change from Saturday, which was scheduled originally.

In last week's action two major upsets occurred. Sherman County handily topped Madras, 20-7, and Burns clipped Enterprise, 39-13. Front-running Wahtonka rolled over Pilot Rock, 30-7.

The last contests of the regular season pit league-leader Wahtonka with Enterprise at Enterprise, Sherman at Burns, Pilot Rock at Grant Union, and the Heppner-Madras fray.

Wahtonka must defeat Enterprise to capture the championship. If Wahtonka loses and Grant Union wins, the Prospectors take the trophy and go into the playoffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stearn and son, Paul, close family friends of Rev. and Mrs. Dirk Rinehart, arrived here Friday for a week-end visit at the Rinehart home. The couple, from Moses Lake, Wn., returned to their home Sunday.

Burns Takes First In Cross Country

By JOHN McCABE

The district 7 A-2 cross country meet, held recently at the Willow Creek Country Club here, was won by the Burns Hillanders. Though only one of their runners qualified for the state meet, the Hillanders took home the trophy because their first five finishers had the lowest total score, which was 43.

Second place went to Madras with two runners who qualified for the state meet. Their total points for the first five finishers on the team was 51.

Vale's first five earned them third with 53 points. Frank Wolfe of Vale was first in the individual placings with a time of 13 minutes and 43 seconds.

The first six harriers who crossed the finish line were to go to the state meet in Salem on November 2. Besides Wolfe, the first place finisher, they are Otley Burns, second, 13:47; Saunders, Vale, third, 13:54; Miller, Madras, fourth, 13:59; Edmondson, Nyssa, fifth, 14:00; and Priddy, Madras, sixth, 14:01.

There were 47 contestants in the meet. Heppner runners, who had only two weeks of conditioning, placed seventh in the meet. Kevin Dick placed 22nd in the large field. Rory Stillman was 35th, Jod Hedman 37th, Matt Warren, 38th, Keith Curnutt 40th and Rick Witherite 42nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Howell of Cannon Beach have spent the last two weeks visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Snider of Ione. The couple brought their camper trailer and enjoyed the last week of deer season. On Monday the two couples visited Bitter, Unity and Bull Prairie reservoir, where they spent time fishing and sightseeing. Near Unity they visited some old gold mining locations. Mrs. Howell will be remembered to friends here as the former Carletta Olden. He is employed during the summer season as a commercial fisherman.
