Cardinals Mark 'Spirit Week '68'

Through the week of October 28-November 1 lone high school students held "Spirit Week 1968." Purpose was to inspire the school spirit for the Riverside game.

On Wednesday everyone wore flowers and slogans on the game and Thursday was "a day of mourning" for Riverside High. Lone students wore dark clothes and black arm bands.

Dress-up day was Friday, and a noise parade was held. Auto drivers had teams of three members each, and each group had 25 minutes to decorate the car. Judging was by faculty members.

Noise parade winners were: David Marick, using the most crepe paper; Victor Klingler, 1/2-ton pickup division; Jim Swanson, most patriotic; Keith Nelson, least groovy; Charly Beggs, neatest decorated car; Tom McElligott, car with largest dent; Frank Halvorsen, most handsome driver; Teresa Stefani, best decorated foreign car; Scott Wilson, most inspiring; Coach Gordon Meyers, "bestest of them all."

First place winner was Ronnie Palmateer, second was Teresa Tucker, and third was Earl Pettyjohn.
