4-H Achievement Night Planned
 By FRANCES ROSE WILSON
 IRRIGON — 4-H Achievement Night is planned for Thursday, November 7, starting at 6:00 o'clock with a potluck supper. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service. Parents and friends from both Irrigon and Boardman are urged to attend, at the A. C. Roughton cafeteria.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Berger returned home after an extensive vacation trip. They visited Doyle, Paradise, and Nevada, in Northern California. With Mrs. Berger's brother, Jack Hanes, they also visited Port Costa which was the world's largest wheat shipping port in the late 1800's. Now it is an interesting place to visit for its antiquity.
 The Bergers traveled up the Oregon coast, to Aberdeen, Wash., where they visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Berger, who were in the process of moving to Warm Beach, Wash. They also visited their daughter, Judy, and Mrs. Berger's mother.
 Mrs. Leslie Smith is convalescing at the Umatilla hospital after major surgery.
 Keith Gallo is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis.
 The kindergarten meeting was combined with a shower for Mrs. Billy Griffin and new born son, Michael Andrew. Mrs. Charles Rowland was hostess for the shower.
 Mrs. Burrell Cooley presided at the kindergarten business meeting. Members appointed to the ways and means committee were Mrs. Dick Adams, chairman, Mrs. Eons Hawkins, Mrs. Donald Keys, Mrs. Jerry Peck, Mrs. Jerry Myers of Boardman is secretary.
 Christmas cards have been sold for a number of years in this area, to help provide material for the kindergarten. The ways and means committee was instructed to order cards to be sold this year. A teacher will be selected soon to teach the class which will start in February. Mrs. Cooley has been taking a school census, and reports there are 25 prospective students for the kindergarten in North Morrow county.
 Pastor John Kenney and members of the Assembly of God traveled to special meetings in Walla Walla and Umatilla the past week.
 TYPEWRITER RIBBONS for all makes of machines, 96c typing paper, 500 sheets, $1.95; adding machine tape, 25c roll; carbonized and non-carbonized sales books; and other office supplies at The Gazette-Times. Ph. 676-9228.

Rands Honored On Anniversary
 By FRANCES ROSE WILSON
 IRRIGON—A number of guests met in a surprise gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner Wednesday evening, October 23, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Rattie Rand on their 40th wedding anniversary. Rev. John Kenney read a scripture from the Psalms, and after prayer the evening was devoted to congratulating the couple, and to reminiscing over the past years.
 Rands' store of local experiences and memories is long and varied, dating back to 1904, when, with his parents, he came to the community. He has the distinction of having lived in the community continuously longer than any other resident. He was also in the first class to graduate from Irrigon High school in 1920.
 He married "the girl next door" who was at that time, Mabel Warner, sister to Harvey Warner, and they farmed the home place and raised their family there. When they retired a few years ago they sold most of their acreage but retained their home.
 Refreshments of ice cream, cake, tea and coffee were served during the evening by Junior high girls Vicky Gamon, Debra Huwe, Sheryl Partlow and Sharon Stewart.
 Council positions for the City were assured of being filled when residents voted November 5. Recorder Marilyn Stewart reported that seven candidates filed for the three council positions. This number included the three incumbents whose terms expire December 31, namely, James Keith, Margie Shade and Vernon Stewart. Keith and Stewart were appointed to the Council to finish terms which elected members were unable to serve out. The other four candidates were Elbert Eppenbach, Donald Estes, Elvira Sanders and Herbert Vaughn.
 Vestie Elgin continues in the office of Municipal Judge.
 No ballots were cast for the office of Mayor as this position is filled each year by appointment from the Council membership as provided in the charter.

Grange to Hold Sunday Meeting
 By DELPHA JONES
 LEXINGTON — Grange Church Sunday will be observed Sunday, November 10, at the Lexington Grange hall. A potluck dinner will be served at 1:30 p.m., with a special program following.
 Special invitation is extended to all ministers in the area and their families to attend, as well as other visiting guests.
 The dinner and program will be followed by a regular grange meeting, which will include election of officers and voting on future dues.
 Sherrie Marquardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt, is a patient at Pioneer Memorial hospital.
 Donald Papineau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Papineau, is receiving care in Pioneer Memorial hospital. His sister, Debbie, returned home last week from the hospital after being a patient there for several days.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Davis of Pendleton and Mrs. Jerry Campbell (the former Wanda Davis) and daughters, Jean and Debora, of Lebanon have been visiting at the L. E. Ruhl home.
