Special Grange Sunday Observed

By DELPHA JONES
LEXINGTON — Lexington Grange met on Sunday, November 10, with a very busy afternoon schedule. A potluck dinner was served at noon with the Women's Activity club furnishing the turkey and dressing. Following the dinner an interesting program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Ola Ruggles, lecturer.

Musical selections were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson of Heppner, and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe. Donna Pointer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Pointer, gave her talk on soil and water conservation. Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Gonty showed their rock collection and gave a descriptive talk on these. As this was the combined Booster meeting with church service program and the regular meeting, there were about 60 guests present for the afternoon, among them visitors from Willows and Greenfield Granges. Among visiting ministers were Rev. Secretary Jean Nelson; treasurer, Delpha Jones; lecturer, Mildred Davidson; chaplain, Marie Steagall; steward, Edward Hunt; gatekeeper, Cecil Jones; assistant steward, Joe Yocum; lady assistant steward, Hilda Yocum; Pomona, Nora Turner; Ceres, Frances Smouse; Flora, June Christopherson, and executive committee, Edward Hunt, Eugene Majeske, and Norman Nelson. Also, the increase in dues was discussed. Due to the raise in so many things, it costs more to run the Grange, and following discussion at the last two meetings it was decided to raise dues to $7.50 a year per member.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were present from Hermiston. Thorpe is the Morrow county deputy for the Granges.

Mr. and Mrs. Bab Davidson were Portland visitors a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Bill Gienger of Monument was a caller at the Roy Martin home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Martin are the parents of a baby daughter born Wednesday, November 6, at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton. She weighed 6 lb., 14 oz., and has been named Susan Elizabeth. Maternal grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. Everett J. Smith of Chicago, great-grandmother is Mrs. Catherine Deutch, also of Chicago. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin of Lexington; great-grandmothers are Mrs. Percy Ceell of Heppner and Mrs. Hortense Martin of Portland. Mrs. Smith was to arrive on Wednesday of this week to make the acquaintance of her new granddaughter, coming from her home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and children of La Grande were Sunday visitors at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., returned home after spending the week at the Carl Marquardt home, helping care for the Marquardt children, while Sherrie Marquardt has been confined to Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Donald Papineau has returned home from a stay in Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Steagall and baby daughter of Portland spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall. Also present on Sunday for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crowell and family of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steagall and family and Mrs. Jerry Dougherty and children.

Potter Interment Held November 6
Lee Potter, former Heppner resident, died Sunday, November 3, at the Ponderosa Rest Home in Klamath Falls following a lengthy illness. He was 71 years of age.

Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Ted Miller, and one brother, Linley Potter, both of Klamath Falls.

Potter was born November 30, 1896, to David and Anna Potter, who preceded him in death in 1914 and 1949 respectively. He was an army veteran of World War II.

Following funeral services in Klamath Falls, a graveside service was held in Heppner on Wednesday, November 6, with the Rev. Melvin Dixon officiating. Sweeney Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Father's Death Calls Roods to Medford
Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rood returned Saturday, November 2, from Butte Falls, Ore., where they were called by the sudden death of Mrs. Rood's father, Arthur B. Meyers.

Mr. Meyers was an avid hunter and spent much time hunting prior to his death. He was 83 years of age.

Funeral services were held Friday, November 1, at Siskiyou Memorial Park in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson and two children from Albany spent last week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bloodsworth and family.

DON MARTEL

Meetings Slated On Landscaping

All interested persons in Umatilla and Morrow counties are invited to attend a special interest meeting on landscaping. Don Martel, professor and chairman of the Oregon State University Landscape Architecture Department, will talk on the principles of basic landscaping in Umatilla and Morrow counties on November 18 and 19. The same program will be offered in three locations.

Dates and locations are as follows: Monday, November 18, Pendleton, 7:30 p.m., Vert Club Room; Tuesday, November 19, Milton Freewater, 2:00 p.m., Club Room, Community Building; and Tuesday, November 19, Boardman, 7:30 p.m., Commons Area, Riverside High School.

Martel will show colored slides and films to illustrate his points. The presentation is a follow-up to the Extension unit lessons on basic landscaping presented last year by Dave Burkhardt, Milton Freewater, county extension agent.

Molly Saul, Umatilla County Extension Agent, emphasizes that the meetings will be open to the public. The programs, sponsored by the County Extension Service, will be of interest to all men and women interested in gardening and their home, added Mrs. Saul.

Mrs. Ron (Faye) Olson and two daughters, Karen and Sheri, of Pasco, Wn., spent the past week-end here visiting friends and relatives while staying at the home of her sister, Mrs. Vesta Kilkenny and family.

Russell Kilkenny also spent the week-end visiting his family, coming from Eugene, where he is in his freshman year at the University of Oregon.
