

Youth Delegates Give Reports To Ione Legion

By EVA HAMLETT

IONE—The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion Hall on November 4 to set tables for election day dinner. At the meeting it was decided to have a potluck supper on November 14 at 6:30 p.m. for Legion and Auxiliary members and families. Special guests were to be parents of the boys and girls that attended Boys' State and Girls' State this year. Connie Emert and Teresa Tucker attended Girls' State, and Ronnie Palmer and Eddie Sherman attended Boys' State. These young people were to give their reports during the evening. Members were to bring gifts for the gift shop to this meeting, or leave at the home of Gladys Drake, or Bristow's store. These gifts are sent to hospitals where disabled veterans get them to give to their families at Christmas. If anyone in the community would like to help, the auxiliary would appreciate added help. The auxiliary has won two awards this year. One is the Unit of Distinction, which is given for outstanding work and service. Second, is the National Citation for Membership, given to units who meet their quota for the year. The next meeting will be at the American Legion Hall on December 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews spent Saturday, October 26, at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, participating in the festivities of Dad's Day and visiting with their daughters, Denise and Bernice. They also saw Denise perform at half-time of the football game, with the Wolfettes, OCE's dance and drill team.
