

Monument Couple Exchange Marriage Vows November 29

The Community Presbyterian church of Monument was the setting for the wedding ceremony on Friday, November 29, which united Mrs. Naomi Dahill and Emory Moore, both of Monument. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Gerald Emerson of Mt. Vernon.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahill and Mrs. Edna Moore, all of Monument. The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was attired in a pink luxury satin street-length dress, with bodice and cuffs of the sleeves trimmed with pink lace. Her veil was held by a headpiece of petals of pink pearls and lace. She carried pink and white carnations on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Jackie Moore of Monument, sister of the groom. She wore an aqua satin street-length dress, with matching carnation corsage. Dresses of both bride and maid of honor were made by the bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Dahill.

Gary Norden of Mt. Vernon attended as best man, and ushers were Jim Boyer of Monument and Robert Holmes of Pendleton.

Mrs. Merlin Jones of Monument was organist and accompanied Miss Peggy Plank of Fossil who sang "The Sweetheart Tree" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed in the church parlors, with Mrs. Steve Holmes and Mrs. David Dahill serving punch and coffee. Mrs. Stanley Boyer cut and served the cake. Miss Niki Miller was in charge of gifts and Mrs. Gary Norden registered guests. Pictures were taken by Miss Jean Hill.

The newlyweds will reside in Monument after the honeymoon.

Bazaar to Feature Country Store Theme

A "Country Store Bazaar," offering Christmas gifts, both large and small to the early shopper, will be presented this Saturday, December 7, at All Saints parish hall, starting at 11 a.m., sponsored by the Episcopal church women.

The bazaar is an annual event and will feature luncheon in the tea room for shoppers and businessmen alike. A wide variety of home made gifts will be offered, with choices to be made from fancy work items, homemade advent calendars, stick horses, aprons, a surprise table featuring children's gifts and many novelty items ideal for gift giving. Also offered will be a variety of homemade food items and choir members and acolytes will be in charge of the candy booth.

Mrs. Erwin Reviews Novel by Frenchman

Mrs. Harold Erwin presented a book review on the novel, "The Horsemen," at the last November meeting of the Heppner Bookworms club, held at the home of Mrs. Cornett Green.

The book was written by a noted French author, Joseph Kessel, who wrote about horsemanship competition in the country of Afghanistan.

Club members drew names for a gift exchange, which will be held December 10 at the home of Mrs. J. O. Turner. At this meeting each member will recite poetry and short stories about the Christmas season.

Crawfords Greeted By Large Gathering On 60th Anniversary

ONE — A large number of friends and relatives attended the reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Waite Crawford on their 60th wedding anniversary, which was held in the social rooms of the Ione United Church of Christ on Sunday, December 1.

The tea table was covered with a large white linen cloth, decorated with silver garlands and white paper bells. The wall behind the tea table was attractively decorated in the same motif. A large decorated sheet cake centered the table.

Mrs. Vern Crawford, Mrs. Harlan Crawford, Mrs. Arthur Crawford, and Mrs. Tad Miller served the cake at intervals during the afternoon. Coffee was served by Mrs. Herval Pettyjohn, Mrs. John Voorhees, Mrs. Milton Morgan, and Mrs. Delmar Crawford. Serving at the punch bowl were Mrs. Bill Nelson, Mrs. Keith Peck, Miss Suzanne Voorhees, and Miss Michelle Miller. Miss Peggy Voorhees, Mrs. Marlene Bush and Miss Anita Crawford were in charge of the guest book. Assisting around the room were Tara and Cyndee Crawford.

A money tree was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Crawford by Rev. Mike Luedde.

All of the Crawford's eight children attended, and 13 of the 18 grandchildren were present. The group included Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford, Rolla Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Tad Miller, Michelle and Nancy of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Crawford, Anita, Cyndee and Mrs. Marlene Bush of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Crawford, Tara, Tammie and Craig, of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Crawford and Janice of Helix, Mr. and Mrs. John Voorhees, Suzanne, and Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Peck and Natalie of Portland, Mrs. Herval Pettyjohn and three children of Yakima, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nelson of Payette, Idaho.

Other relatives attending were Mr. Waite Crawford's brother, Rodney, and his son, Pete, of Portland. Coming from a distance to express their best wishes were Mrs. Mattie Ray, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brashears of Lyle, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Erling Thompson, of McMinnville.

Members of the Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ who assisted in the kitchen were Mrs. Helen McCabe, Mrs. Delores Barnett, Mrs. Geneva Palmer, Mrs. Katherine Lindstrom, Mrs. Helen Pettyjohn, Mrs. Dot Halvorsen, Mrs. Edith Matthews and Mrs. Lucille Rietmann.

New Bride Showered With Wedding Gifts

Mrs. Rick Johnston, recent bride, was honor guest at a miscellaneous bridal shower, held on Friday evening, November 29, at the home of Mrs. J. D. Hudson.

The honoree opened many gifts at a lovely gift table decorated with white net over a pink cloth, with small decorative white net bows attached. Other decorations included a large white wedding bell with contrasting pink trim which was hung directly over the gift table. Assisting with the gift opening were Misses Kathy Matthews, Mrs. Hudson and Pam Johnston.

Hostesses for the shower party were Mrs. Leon Ball, Mrs. Leon Magill and Miss Matthews, who served fresh apple cake dessert, punch and coffee to guests.

The newlyweds were united in marriage in Portland last Wednesday in the presence of family members. The bride is the former Susan Starks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Starks, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnston, all of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Thompson and three children enjoyed Thanksgiving day dinner and a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Schoen, at their home in North Bonneville, Wn. Mr. and Mrs. John Venard traveled to Madras Thursday to enjoy Thanksgiving day with family friends, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schoen.

Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Tibbles enjoyed a recent week-end visit in Portland at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tibbles. Also visiting the Tibbles family was Mrs. Lance Tibbles and son, Thad, from Buffalo, N. Y., who had been visiting at her parents home in Salem for two weeks.

To Present Recital

Music students, under the direction of Mrs. D. E. Hudson, will present a variety program of Christmas music to entertain their families and friends at 2:30 p.m., on Sunday, December 8, at the Legion hall.

Rainbow Girls Hold Initiation Ceremony

Three new members were initiated into Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at formal ceremonies on Monday evening, November 18, in the Heppner Masonic hall.

Those initiated were Louanne Kelly, Dianne Wright and Sally Winters. Presiding over the initiation were Teresa Harshman, worthy advisor, and her staff of officers.

During the business meeting, discussion was held on the annual Christmas Rainbow dance, scheduled for Monday evening, December 23, in Willows IOOF hall. Sue Melby, associate worthy advisor, will serve as chairman.

Reports were also heard on the success of the breakfast served Sunday morning, November 17, for out of town guests who attended the grand reception for Mrs. Dick Wilkinson on Saturday evening.

Birthday Observance Honors Mrs. Hager

Mrs. Emma Hager was special guest on Thanksgiving day for dinner and a birthday celebration honoring her on her 80th birthday. All of her children and their families were able to be present for the special event, held at the James Hager home.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hager and daughter, Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Evans, Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Evans and daughter, Chris, of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hager of Hermiston, and Col. and Mrs. Clayton (Harriet) Shaw and two sons, Robert and Steve, of Corvallis.

The large fireplace in the Hager home was decorated to resemble a large birthday card.

The honoree received many gifts and congratulatory cards and letters from friends and relatives and enjoyed the day visiting with friends and family members. Guests who called to visit later in the day were Mrs. Zetta (Hager) Brosnan and Jerry Brosnan of the Lena community.

Little Cherry Hager assisted her great-grandmother in blowing out candles on the large birthday cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Shaw.

Mrs. Hager was born November 29, 1888.

Family members present for the Thanksgiving holidays at the Leonard Toll home were his grandmother, Mrs. Gladys Frazier from Weiser, Idaho, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Richards from Spray, Tom Laird, and Nancy Joines from Pendleton. Mrs. Frazier was in Heppner to compete in the Old Time fiddlers contest, held Friday and Saturday. She won first in the Classic Old Timers competition and received a trophy and a cash award.
