

Bands Entertain In Pops Concert

By EVA HAMLETT
IONE—The Winter Pops Concert presented by the lone school music department, under the direction of Darrel James, on December 2, was in four parts.
 The high school band played Guantanamera by Gasso; Windy by Friedman; Up, Up and Away by Webb; Happy Together by Banner and Gordon; There's A Kind of Hush by Reed and Stephens; Diversion by Grundman; and Time Out For A Jam Session by Handlon.
 The sixth grade band entertained during the second part, playing Alert and Onward Marches by Buchtel; Johnny Comes Swingin' Home by Johnson; Rocky Mountain Rock by Jasper; and Little League by Kinyon.
 Third part was Beau Geste by Buchtel; Michelle and Yesterday by Lennon and McCartney, played by the Junior High band.
 The high school band ended the concert with Mission Impossible Theme by Schifrin; The Shadow of Your Smile by Webster and Mandel; and The Sound of Music by Rodgers. The concert was thoroughly enjoyed by those attending.

Shower is Planned
 The public is cordially invited to attend a linen and kitchen shower for Mrs. Jim Gorman (Sharon Cutsforth) at the Legion hall, Saturday, December 14, at 2:00 p.m., sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. They are also having a birthday party for Andy Gorman, who was 5-years old the day before their house burned, and he lost all his gifts and toys.
 Mrs. Vida Heliker recently returned from a trip to California. She first went to Seattle, Wash., where she met her daughter, Mrs. Harriet Bolman. They flew from Seattle to San Francisco, where they visited friends and relatives in that area and also in San Jose. They spent most of the time visiting with the Earl Devine family in Indio, Calif.
 Ted Palmateer, Bonnie and Janet, Jodi Snow and Terry Cannon spent Saturday, December 1, at Mt. Hood Meadows, skiing. The seventh and eighth grade Sunday School class of the United Church of Christ will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Krebs on December 15. The class will make candy to be put in the welfare baskets for Christmas.
 Eldon Tucker is home again after spending some time in the Veterans hospital in Portland.
Special Program Planned
 All women of the community are invited to a Christmas luncheon and program sponsored by the Women's Fellowship of the lone United Church of Christ on Tuesday, December 17 from 12:00 to 2:00 p.m. Following the potluck luncheon, Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, who has just this past week returned from a trip to the Near East, will show slides and tell of her visit to the Holy Land. Special music will be furnished by the "Choralettes" of Ione High school. There will be child care and each child is asked to bring a sack lunch.
 The "Choralettes" of Ione High school sang at the banquet of the 41st Annual Oregon Wheat League Convention in Portland, Tuesday evening, as a part of the program. The girls stayed overnight at the Sheraton Hotel, where the banquet was held, and returned home the next day. Darrel James, director of the group, and Mrs. Adon Hamlett, chaperon, accompanied the girls.

Mustangs Trounce Grant Prospectors

Heppner High's basket ball team trampled Grant Union's Prospectors 54-39, at John Day Saturday night, in the Mustangs' season opener. The game was played in the Prospectors' brand new gym.
 The Horsemen jumped to a 16-6 lead in the first quarter and then went completely cold, while John Day came back to knot the score at 16-all. Heppner again started to move and opened up a six-point halftime lead. The Mustangs outscored John Day in all quarters, but the second, when they had eight points each.
 The thing that hurt Grant Union the most was that Dave Dieter, second team all-state last year, was held to only three points by the close checking of his opponents.
HEPPNER 54 — Calvin Ashbeck 4, McCabe 10, O'Donnell 13, Kemp 12, Larry Pettyjohn 4, Pat Sweeney 2, Pat Kilkenny 2, LaVerne VanMarter 7.
GRANT UNION 39 — Southwick 6, White 2, K. Bothein 2, M. Bothein 8, Lissman 18, Dieter 3.

A family gathering at the home of Mrs. Freida Slocum was enjoyed over the Thanksgiving holidays by her children and their families. Coming from Forest Grove were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Slocum and three girls; and Mrs. Dick Applegate and three children came from Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Nelson and son from Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Neher from Corvallis. Neher is in his senior year at Oregon State, where he is majoring in physical education. Also attending from Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clough and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ormer Huston and two boys.
Mr. and Mrs. James (Phyllis) Bell of Tacoma enjoyed spending the Thanksgiving holiday week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Nolan of Heppner. Others who attended dinner on Thanksgiving Day were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin (Beverly) Miles and two children, Donna and Glenn, from Clarkston, Wn., and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Nolan and family and Grace Hawk. Other relatives who called at the Nolan home throughout the day were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Peck, Mrs. Myra Peck of Lexington, mother of Mrs. Nolan, and a niece, Mrs. Edwin (Dorothy) Tucker from Salem.

Mrs. Joyce Ritch, special assessor, and Mrs. Barbara Devine, office clerk, traveled to Bend last week to attend sessions of the 1968 Personal Property School, sponsored by the Oregon State Tax commission. Meetings were held December 3 and 4 in facilities of the Central Oregon Community college. Members of the state commission were on the program to discuss various problems related to assessments of various types of personal property; inventory audit procedures; depreciation schedules; log assessments, and problems in general.
John Jepsen, Gordon White and Wayne Ball are attending a special instruction course on the OSU campus in Corvallis this week. The short course provides instruction on up-to-date methods and materials of pesticide application of chemicals, with which they work in the lone and surrounding areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Prindle of Heppner attended a meeting of the Oregon Logging Directors, held at the Rogue Valley Country Club in Medford, from Thursday through Sunday of the past week.
A large number of relatives and family members came to attend funeral services at the United Methodist church on Saturday for Bill Farra, who died Wednesday of last week. Among those present were Mrs. Flora Farra and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Anderson, all of Payette, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Weist of Sunnyside, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Sam Farra and Thomas Farra, all of Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Allen and family from Longneck, Mrs. Frankie Cason from Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hoffman of Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. David Adlard of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Shellman from The Dalles.

Recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Nikander was their 2½-year-old granddaughter, Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nikander of Portland. The couple brought their granddaughter home following a Thanksgiving visit at the Nikander home in Portland. Linda's parents and her brother, Robbie, visited in Heppner over the past week-end and returned with her to their home on Sunday.

Mrs. McClintock Taken by Death

Mrs. Tress (Bonnie) McClintock, 54, Rt. 2, Monmouth, former teacher in Morrow and Gilliam counties, died in a Corvallis hospital Sunday, December 8, after an illness of more than a year.
 Funeral services will be at the First Baptist church in Monmouth on Saturday, December 14, at 2 p.m. with the Rev. David Whiting officiating. Interment will be at Fircrest cemetery, Monmouth.
 Mrs. McClintock taught school at Hardman, as well as in Gilliam county and at Heppner as a substitute teacher. She also taught at Brookings, Parkrose and three years at Airle. Her husband operated a blacksmith shop in Heppner.
 She worked in special education, particularly in remedial reading, for three years in Polk county and for one year in Corvallis prior to her retirement in 1967 due to ill health.

Mrs. McClintock was born at Walker, Oregon, February 5, 1912. Her maiden name also was Walker. She received her bachelor of arts degree at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, and her master of education degree at Oregon State University, the latter in 1960.
 Mrs. McClintock was a member of the First Baptist church of Monmouth, of the Council of Exceptional Children, International Education Association, National Education Association, Corvallis Teachers Association, a life member of the Alumni Association of OCE, Kappa Delta Pi Alpha Omega chapter and the Corvallis Honorary Society.

She was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Arthur Dalzell of Ione, Mrs. George York of Mikkalo, and Bill McClintock whose ranch is at the Morrow-Gilliam county line.
 Close relatives surviving are the husband, Tress McClintock, Monmouth; three sons, James McClintock and Jay McClintock, both of Vancouver, Wash., and Gale McClintock of Pendleton; four sisters, Mrs. Echo Lane, Mrs. Sibyl Holbrook, and Mrs. Cella Fry, all of Portland, and Mrs. Mary Jane Spurlock, Camas Valley; a brother, Boyd

Doctor's Brother Dies in California

Dr. Percy Fitz-Gerald McMurdo, 88, of San Francisco, brother of Dr. A. D. McMurdo of Heppner, died in San Francisco on November 23, and funeral services were held there on November 25.
 Another brother, Keith McMurdo, 90, died in Pocatello, Idaho, about two months ago.
 Dr. Percy McMurdo, a surgeon, was a pioneer developer of a technique in blood transfusions. He had been a resident and practicing physician in San Francisco for almost half a century.

In the 1920's his development of the instrument for delivering blood from donor to patient in an uninterrupted flow was considered one of the most significant developments in medicine.
 Of five "grand old brothers," three now survive, Dr. McMurdo of Heppner, who is 86; Dr. Hew B. McMurdo of San Francisco, 83; and Aston McMurdo of Charlottesville, Va., who is almost 96. Their mother lived to be 93.
 Several years ago, the doctors returned to the University of Virginia together, including the two from San Francisco and Dr. McMurdo of Heppner, and were honored there as "patriarchs" of the University.
 A daughter of Dr. Percy McMurdo, Mrs. E. C. Horst, Jr., of San Francisco, also survives.

Walker of Walker; and six grandchildren.
 Contributions may be made in her memory to the First Baptist church of Monmouth or the American Cancer Society.

4-H Ski Club To Open Season

Dick McElligott, leader of the Morrow County 4-H Ski Club, announces plans to reorganize the club for the coming ski season.
 On Friday evening, December 13, at 7:30 p.m. a ski movie, "Ski Week" featuring Otmar Schnieder will be shown in the multi-purpose room at the Heppner Elementary school. At this time club members may re-enroll for the year, and new members may sign up for the club. The same movie will be shown in Ione on Saturday, December 14, at 2:00 p.m. with both enrollees and new members urged to attend. Ski club members must be at least 9 years of age.
 All new members or those considering membership from the two communities, and Lexington, are asked to attend one of these meetings with a parent, as McElligott would like to take this opportunity to explain the 4-H ski club program, costs and

Granges to Install Officers on Saturday

A joint installation of incoming officers of the granges in Morrow county will be held on Saturday, December 14, at Willows Grange hall in Ione. All officers of the granges in Boardman, Lexington, Rhea Creek and Ione are requested to attend.
 The morning meeting is scheduled to start at 10:00 a.m., with potluck dinner served at noon. Short afternoon session will follow the dinner.

responsibilities.
 The 4-H program has made it possible for the use of buses to transport the members to the hill, and has provided instruction for all young members of the club.
 Volunteer leaders and junior leaders have helped with the instructions. At this time, McElligott encourages anyone interested in helping with the 4-H club in Heppner to contact him at 422-7228, or the county extension office, 676-9642, for more information.
