

MISS DONNA KAY POTTER

Former Heppner Girl To Wed February 22

The engagement and coming marriage of Miss Donna Kay Potter to Randel Jon Quadros is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Potter of Fortuna, Calif., and former residents of Heppner, while Mr. Potter was county school superintendent. Parents of the groom-elect are Mr. and Mrs. John Quadros, Jr., of Walnut Creek, Calif.

Their wedding is planned for Saturday, February 22, in Fortuna.

Both of the young people have been enrolled at Oregon State University, Corvallis, where Donna is in her sophomore year in Home Economics and her fiancé is a senior in Forestry. Fulfilling his ROTC commission with graduation, the couple will leave for Virginia after their marriage, where he will be stationed. He is a member of Acacia fraternity, and Donna is a member of Chi Omega sorority at OSU.

She was a graduate of Heppner High school with the class of 1967.

Church to Welcome Bishop Gilliam Here

Members and friends of All Saints' Episcopal church will have a celebration and reunion this Sunday, January 26, at 10 a.m. family worship when the Rt. Rev. Jackson E. Gilliam, Bishop of Montana, will be guest preacher and celebrant.

Bishop Gilliam will assist at the consecration of the Very Rev. William Spofford, bishop-elect of Eastern Oregon, this Saturday in Ontario, and will then travel to Heppner following the service with the Rev. and Mrs. Dirk Rinehart.

Relatives (especially his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam of Heppner) and friends will be delighted to welcome Bishop Gilliam back to his home town and parish church.

A coffee hour in Bishop Gilliam's honor will be held in the parish hall following worship. The community is cordially invited to attend.

Minister Installs New ECW Officers

Members of the Episcopal Church Womens group of All Saints' church held election of new officers on Sunday, January 12, at a meeting following regular church services.

Elected to serve the group as president was Mrs. Ned (Kathy) Clark. Mrs. Mike Gray was elected vice-president; Mrs. Clayton Sweek, secretary; and Mrs. Milo Prindle, treasurer. The new officers were installed on Sunday, January 19, during church services by the Rev. Dirk Rinehart.

Society AND Clubs

Installations Held By Masonic Orders

New officers of Heppner Masonic Lodge No. 69, AF & AM, presided at the first 1969 meeting early this month. They were installed in December by Herman Winter, installing officer; Paul Jones, installing marshal, and Clarence Baker, installing chaplain.

Seated for the coming year were Hubert Wilson, worshipful master; Don Gilliam, senior warden; Robert Abrams, junior warden; Howard Bryant, treasurer; Harold Becket, secretary; Vern Nolan, senior deacon; Cecil Bill, junior deacon; George Simonson, senior steward; Claude Graham, junior steward; Clarence Baker, chaplain; Paul Jones, marshal, and Herman Winter, Tyler.

The above ceremony was followed by installation of officers of the Royal Arch Masons. Both were closed installations.

MR. AND MRS. JIM BARCLAY (Mary Elizabeth Boon)

December Ceremony Unites Mary E. Boon And James P. Barclay

St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner was the setting for the December 28 marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Boon to James Patrick Barclay.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boon of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Barclay of Lexington.

The 11 a.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. LeRoy Clementich of the University of Portland, in the presence of parents and close family members of the couple.

Serving the bridal couple as maid of honor was the groom's sister, Miss Judy Barclay, and John Van Winkle served as best man. Usher for the ceremony was Tom Boon, and Jim and Jerry Healy assisted as servers.

Immediately following the ceremony, the newly married couple, their families and members of the bridal party were guests for breakfast at the Wag-on-Wheel cafe.

A reception honored the couple later in the day at the Barclay family ranch home, located in the Sand Hollow area. About 150 friends and relatives called throughout the afternoon to extend best wishes to the newlyweds.

The serving table was attractively decorated in the holiday theme with tall red tapers and a bouquet of red carnations. A three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with tiny red roses and featuring a miniature bride and groom and wedding bells on top, centered the reception table.

Following the traditional first slice by the couple, the cake was served to guests by Mrs. Lee Foster. Others who assisted with serving throughout the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Barclay, grandmother of the groom, who served coffee, and Mrs. Lois Barclay and Mrs. Jerry Anderson, who served punch. Jack Van Winkle and Jerry Anderson served as innkeepers.

Out-of-town relatives who attended the reception included Mrs. Frank Barclay of Walla Walla, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Boon and Tom Boon, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tucker and Mrs. Lois Barclay, all of Pendleton; Jim Boule of Los Angeles, Calif., and Robert Boule of Seattle, Wash.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Barclay will make their first home in Portland where the groom is attending school at the University of Portland. They reside at 4237 N. Michigan St.

MISS THERESA MUNKERS

Munkers Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers of Lexington announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Theresa, to Dean Naffziger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Naffziger of Eugene.

Miss Munkers is a 1966 graduate of Heppner High school, attended Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, and is presently employed at the First National Bank in Heppner.

Mr. Naffziger graduated from the University of Oregon in 1967 and is presently employed as teacher and coach at Heppner High school.

A March wedding is planned.

Golf Club Elects At Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Willow Creek Country Club was held Tuesday evening, January 14, at the fair pavilion annex. Members enjoyed a potluck dinner, which was followed by a film on the 1968 Open Golf Tournament.

New officers, elected for the coming year, are Ed Schaffitz, president; Dick Carpenter, vice-president; Mrs. Beverly Gundersen, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Marylou Kelly and Bob Jepsen, directors.

Club Hears Report On Audubon Count

Members of the Lone Garden club met for their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, January 8, at the home of Mrs. Wallace H. Wolff, with Mrs. Orville Cutsforth assisting as co-hostess.

The small attendance at the meeting was attributed to inclement weather and illness among the members.

Members heard a report by Mrs. Wolff on the recent yearly Audubon bird count that Garden club members and high school students completed. She noted in her report that although half as many birds were seen as compared to recent years, many varieties of birds were in evidence.

The annual 12th night tree burning ceremony, held at lone on Monday, January 6, was reported by Mrs. Omar Rietmann.

Garden club members have received an invitation to attend a conservation meeting sponsored by the Echo school cafeteria on Monday, February 10. A potluck supper will be provided and husbands of members are invited to attend.

Featured speaker for the evening will be Claude Mills, nurseryman from the Milton-Freewater area, who is noted for his landscaping abilities.

The afternoon program for the meeting was presented by Mrs. Vida Heliker of lone, who spoke on deadly harvest, or poisonous plants. Many seeds and pits were on display for members to view that contained toxins or poisons. One of the seeds was of the notorious variety that appeared recently as decorations on some jewelry items that were sold nationwide.

It was announced that the next club meeting will be Wednesday, February 12, at the home of Mrs. James Driscoll, who will present an informative program on the growing and care of African violets.

In March the club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elaine Rietmann. Guest speaker at this meeting will be Mrs. William Sipfle, whose program topic will be on the growing and use of herbs.

Monahan-Hoffman Engagement Told

The engagement and coming marriage of Miss Teresa Monahan to Ronald B. Hoffman is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan of Heppner. Parents of the groom-elect are Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hoffman of Pendleton.

Their wedding is planned for August at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner.

Miss Monahan is a 1966 graduate of Heppner High school and is in her second year at Blue Mountain Community college, Pendleton. Her fiancé, a graduate of Pendleton High school in 1963, has completed two years at BMCC.

Former Lone Girl Married Last Month

Of interest to friends here is news of the recent marriage of Miss Kathy Marie Christopherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Christopherson, to PFC Daniel Becker. The couple exchanged wedding vows December 23, in Vancouver, Wn., and will make their first home in Alaska, where the groom will finish his term of military service.

The Christopherson family resided in the lone area until about four years ago, when they moved to Aurora, Ore., to make their home.

MISS THERESA MONAHAN

After spending nearly a week in St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton for medical care, Dr. A. D. McMurdo returned to his home Tuesday. He is making gains from injuries received in a fall here early last week, but is still in some pain, according to his wife, and will continue to be confined at home for some time.
