

MISS MARTY BOYAJIAN

Parents Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. James Healy announce the engagement of their daughter, Marty Boyajian, to John Neely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Neely of Maupin. Miss Boyajian is a sophomore at Eastern Oregon College, and was graduated from Heppner High school in 1967. Mr. Neely attended Pacific University, and will graduate from EOC this June. The couple plans an April wedding in Heppner.

Card Club Meets At Jensen Home

Two tables of pinocle were enjoyed last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Lyle Jensen. Prize winners included Mrs. Bruce Griffith, high; Mrs. Omer Huston, low and Mrs. Jerry Dougherty, pinocle. Other players were Mrs. Len Ray Schwarz, Mrs. Carl Thorpe, Mrs. Don Stroeber and Mrs. LaVern Keithley.

Church Represented At Ontario Service For Bishop Spofford

Among the large attendance of persons at the consecration service for the Very Rev. William Spofford, Jr., new bishop of Eastern Oregon, in Ontario on Saturday, were the Rev. and Mrs. Dirk Enehart, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Prindle, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lowe, of All Saints' Episcopal church. Attending from Kinzua was Dale Ross, who served as head crucifer and led the procession.

Inclement weather kept attendance down somewhat from the 1500 that were originally estimated to attend the service, but failed to detract from the meaning of the ceremony, which was both simple and impressive.

Serving as chief consecrator in the service was the Most Rev. John E. Hines, the Episcopal church's presiding bishop from New York City. Two other consecrating bishops were the Right Rev. Lane Barton, whom Dean Spofford is succeeding, and the Right Rev. Norman Foote, Bishop of Idaho. Also taking part in the ceremony was Right Rev. Jackson E. Gilliam, Bishop of Montana and son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam of Heppner.

Bishop Spofford has served since 1961 as Dean of St. Michael's Episcopal Cathedral in Boise, Ida., and previously served a three-year period as rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church in Weiser, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy enjoyed visiting with their daughter, Karen, when she traveled here by bus from Portland. Karen is a senior at Oregon State University and is spending the winter term doing student teaching in a 2nd grade class in one of the Portland schools. She returned early Sunday, traveling with Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Smith, who had been here from Albany visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney.

New Lodge Officers Assume Duties After Recent Installations

Amid the snowflakes, both indoors and out, the joint installation of officers of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 and Willow IOOF Lodge No. 66, was held Saturday, January 18, at the Heppner IOOF hall. The flakes outside were provided by mother nature, and those within by courtesy of Ruth Assembly, Rainbow Girls, from decorations of their Christmas dance. Installation ceremonies were preceded by a delightful dinner, prepared by Mrs. Mary Bailey, chairman, and her assistants, Mrs. Jessie Furlong, Mrs. Betha Adkins, Mrs. Mildred Padberg, Mrs. Della Murray, Mrs. Hazel Bauman, Mrs. Alice Luttrell, Mrs. Mary McMurry and Mrs. Opal Cook. Following the dinner, Mrs. Cook expressed appreciation to all those who assisted in helping with all arrangements and decorations.

Entertainment for the assembled guests was provided by the four children of the Ronald Haguewoods, Kristi, Kelwayne, Kevin and Kimeelu, who presented several songs and piano numbers, and were well received.

Prior to installation, the new noble grand-elect of Sans Souci, Mrs. Cook, was presented a lovely orchid corsage by Mrs. Earl Seward of Lexington, who grows them in her home.

Grand Lodge officers were as follows: Randall Peterson, district deputy grand master; Mrs. Archie Munkers, district deputy president; John Wightman and Mrs. Cecil Jones, district secretaries; R. G. McMurry and Mrs. Joe Yocom, district treasurers; Herman Green and Mrs. Florence McMillan, district wardens; Ralph Beamer and Mrs. Frank Robinson, district chaplains.

Installing marshals were Cornett Green and Mrs. John Bergstrom, with Mrs. Dean Connor as installing musician.

Installed for the coming year were the following officers of Willow IOOF lodge: Jack Sumner, noble grand; Ronald Haguewood, vice grand; Durwood Tash, secretary; Leon Ball, treasurer; R. G. McMurry, warden, and Gerald Rood, conductor. Randall Peterson was installed as right support to the noble grand, with Ralph Beamer as left support; Bob Lowe is right support to vice grand and John Wightman is the left support. The newly appointed chaplain is Cornett Green; Lincoln Nash, inside guardian, and Orrian Wright, outside guardian.

Incoming officers installed for Sans Souci lodge are as follows: Opal Cook, noble grand; Betha Adkins, vice grand; Adelle LaTrace, recording secretary; Della Murray, financial secretary, and Betty Rood, treasurer. The new warden is Bernice Nash and Ruth Bergstrom is conductor; Mary McMurry, color bearer; Esther Bergstrom, chaplain; Shirley Connor, musician. Inside guardian is Jessie Furlong, with Mary Bailey, outside guardian; Altha Kirk, right support to noble grand, and Ila Albert, left support; Alta Stevens, right support to vice-grand, and Mildred Padberg, left support; Jo Huston, junior past noble grand; Letha Archer, right aide, and Emma Cecil, left aide. Right aide for the chaplain is Lynn Haguewood and Velva Bechtolt, left aide.

The conductor escorted Mrs. Huston to the altar where Mrs. LaTrace presented her with the past noble grand's jewel, with a tribute for her year as noble grand. Jack Sumner then presented Bob Lowe with a past grand pin and thanks were extended for his year in office.

Jodi Kaye Adams delighted her grandmother, Mrs. Cook, with a presentation of a bouquet of long stemmed red roses from her family. Jodi Kaye is the daughter of Mrs. Cook's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harland Adams of Hermiston, who attended as honor guests.

Other visitors were the installing team and their wives and husbands, also Carl Troedson of Ione and Mrs. Alice Seward of Lexington. Newly installed noble grands dismissed the meeting.

Reception at Hoskins Home Honors Couple On 25th Anniversary

A 25th wedding anniversary celebration honoring Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr., was observed by friends and relatives of the couple at a reception given at their home for them by their children, Mrs. James L. (Gail) Boor of Bremerton, Wash.; Mac, who attends school at BMCC in Pendleton, and Marie who lives at home.

About 50 friends and neighbors of the honorees called at the Hoskins home throughout the afternoon to extend good wishes to the couple and enjoy refreshments of cake, punch and coffee. Adding to the pleasure of the day was the attendance of the Hoskins' only grandchild, eight-months-old Douglas Boor, son of their daughter, Gail.

Mrs. Francis Mitchell of Portland, sister of Mrs. Hoskins, served the anniversary cake, which centered the attractively decorated serving table. Others who assisted with serving were Mrs. Harry Hoskins and Mrs. Frank Parker, mothers of the couple, who served punch and coffee, and Mrs. Robert Hoskins and Mrs. George Griffith of Cecil, who assisted with arrangements for the party.

The couple has lived in Morrow county since their marriage and make their home now on

Celebration Combines Two Family Occasions

A combination birthday dinner and anniversary celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles on Thursday evening, January 23, honoring them on the occasion of Mrs. Ruggles' birthday and the couple's wedding anniversary.

Dinner guests included Mrs. Ola Ruggles and Mrs. Ida Farra. Other friends and neighbors of the couple who called later in the evening to share refreshments of cake and coffee were Mrs. Nora Turner and Mr. and Mrs. John Lane.

Cancel Meeting

Meeting of the Heppner Golden Age club, previously announced for Tuesday, February 4, has been cancelled, due to weather conditions. Next regular meeting is planned for Tuesday, March 4, at the Episcopal parish hall.

the outskirts of town where they are engaged in a farming and cattle operation. Mrs. Hoskins is a teacher at Heppner Elementary school and has taught in the Heppner schools for 15 years.

Lovgren Home Scene Of Frolics in Snow

Take a nice day, like Sunday, cold though it was, add about 16 to 18 inches of snow and several Ski-dos, and you have the makings for a day of fun. So it was at the Bob Lovgren home last Sunday when about 60 friends, relatives and neighbors of the couple showed up to enjoy a huge potluck dinner and a day of fun on several Ski-dos, which were brought over from Pendleton by friends. The many inches of snow covering the fields provided excellent traction for the powerful little Ski-dos, and grownups and kids alike spent the entire day sharing rides and having fun.

Ione Rainbow Girls To Install Sunday

Tanya Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker of Ione, will be installed new worthy advisor of the Ione Rainbow Assembly in ceremonies Sunday afternoon, February 2, at 2:30 p.m. in the Ione Masonic hall.

A reception following installation will also honor Teresa Stefani, grand representative to Texas, and Teresa Tucker, grand choir member. Parents and friends are invited to attend.
