

Illness Claims Dr. Sweeney, 80, Retired Dentist

Dr. Patrick Jerome Sweeney, 80, died Saturday, January 25, at Pioneer Memorial hospital, following an extended illness. He had made his home in Heppner the past four years to be near his son, Jerry Sweeney, and family.

Recitation of the rosary was Sunday, January 26, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Patrick's church, with funeral mass on Monday at 9:30 a.m. The Rev. Raymond H. Beard officiated at the services. Vault interment was in the Heppner Masonic cemetery with Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, and Albert Mortuary, Condon, in charge of arrangements.

Dr. Sweeney was born in Helena, Mont., on February 4, 1888. He attended the Montana State School of Mines in Butte, Mont., and later worked as a civil engineer for the Federal Land office. He went east to enroll at Loyola University's College of Dental Surgery in Chicago, Ill., from which he graduated in 1919.

After returning to Montana, Dr. Sweeney practiced dentistry there until his retirement in 1953. His wife preceded him in death in 1959.

He was a life member of the American Dental Association, a member of Bishop McGrath General Assembly, 4th Degree Knights of Columbus at Pendleton; a life member of Elks Lodge No. 214 at Great Falls, Mont., and a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church and the Holy Name Society in Heppner.

He is survived by one son, Jerry, of Heppner; one daughter, Mrs. Patrick McCain of Little Rock, Ark., and six grandchildren.

Club Sees Movies

Two Tracker 4-H horse club held its monthly meeting January 7 at the fairgrounds. We discussed plans for the wildlife movie which we sponsored on January 22.

Two new members were welcomed to the club, John Kilkenny and Mark Mecham. We watched a good movie, "Mr. DeCatholon," furnished by the American Quarter Horse Association, then our meeting was adjourned.

Queener Services Call Relatives Here

Several out-of-town relatives traveled to Heppner for the funeral services of Mrs. Mary Tucker Queener on Friday, January 17, and visited at the Archie Padberg home.

Coming from Stanfield were Mrs. Queener's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Tucker; her five daughters, Mrs. Hulda Mortimore of Kent, Wn., Miss Elsie Tucker of Eugene, Mrs. Irene Atherton of Ontario, Mrs. Edith Castle of Marysville, Calif., and Mrs. William Wallace of Pomeroy, Wn. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry VanHolleberke of Kahlotus, Wn.; Mrs. Alice Sellards, Castle Rock, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tucker and son, Kyle, Salem; Richard Wilson, Lewiston, Idaho; Eldon Tucker, Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols and Linda, and Rev. and Mrs. Earl Soward, all of Lexington.

Dinner guests at the Archie Padberg home following the services were Mr. and Mrs. Pete McMurtry, Mrs. Bretta McFadden, Melvin Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. Alena Anderson.

Relief Plea Made To Assist Family In Biafran Country

IONE—A desperate plea for help for a Biafran family has been received by Mrs. Fredrick Martin from H. Ihenyi Anyaso, a Nigerian friend whom she met at a Junior High session at Camp Adams in 1962.

Anyaso came to the United States as a student and is now residing in San Francisco, until it is possible for him to return to Biafra.

He has lost many relatives and friends and asks for help for those who are left, in the form of money, food, clothing and medicines. Many are not in the relief camps and receive no assistance from the relief agencies.

Members of the United Church of Christ have contributed a liberal amount for this cause at their annual meeting last Sunday. It will be sent to Mr. Anyaso, 1463 Waller St., San Francisco, California, 94117. He will send it to his cousin, a Roman Catholic Priest in Paris, who sends them through church channels, of which he knows, to the Anyaso family in Biafra. Anyaso has pleaded for any organization or individual to help the cause of his people. All gifts, large or small, will be greatly appreciated and acknowledged. Gifts may be sent directly to him or by contacting Mrs. Martin, Rev. Mike Luedde or Father Raymond Beard.

Riverside Girl Named Winner In Homemaking

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Lorrie Peterson, senior, has been named 1969 Betty Crocker Homemaking of Tomorrow for Riverside High school on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude test on homemaking given senior girls here December 3.

Lorrie's achievement has made her eligible for state and national scholarships. She also has been awarded a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaking of Tomorrow.

A state Homemaker and runner-up will be selected from the winners of the schools in the state. The state winner will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica by Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. The runner-up will earn a $500 educational grant.

Mrs. Ralph Earwood was hostess for the Boardman Garden club Monday night of last week at her home. Roll call was answered by giving a New Year's resolution.

The club voted to make large bids for elderly patients in nursing homes. The annual family dinner was discussed and tentative plans were made to have it February 23 at the grange hall.

Charles Haug from the Deaton Company at Seattle, Wash., is expected here some time during the week of January 27 to discuss with the club grave markers for unmarked graves at Riverview cemetery.

Mrs. Arthur Allen received the door prize. Mrs. Rollin Bishop presented an article on turtle doves.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Allen on February 17.

Four tables of pinocle were in play at the card party held Tuesday of last week at the Greenfield Grange hall, sponsored by the Women's Activity Committee of the grange. Mrs. Leonard Bedord was hostess. High prize was won by Mrs. Steve Wilkie, and low by Mrs. Chub Warren. Mrs. Arthur Allen and Mrs. Bernard Donovan won the pinocle prizes.

The Boardman and Hermiston Navy wives held their monthly coffee hour Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Lee Bendz at 9:30 a.m. The ladies plan to hold a coffee hour the third Tuesday of each month, alternating in Boardman and Hermiston. A potluck dinner is planned for the evening of February 14 at the home of Mrs. Jerry Meyer in Boardman, and a Valentine party will be held. The next coffee hour will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Vorce in Hermiston on February 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Arnin Hug and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash went to Pendleton Tuesday of last week to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg where Mrs. Hug was honored with a birthday dinner.

Mrs. Rollo Moore was hostess for a party at her home Wednesday of last week in honor of Mrs. Dennis Gronquist on her birthday. There were 18 present. Guests were members of the Wednesday morning Coffee Club.

Mrs. LaVern Partlow and her daughter, Mrs. Susan Kress and children Brian and Dee spent the week-end in La Grande visiting at the home of Mrs. Partlow's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Partlow. Mrs. Ronald Black has returned home from Tooele, Utah, where she was called by the death of her father, M. I. Oveson, on January 1. Her mother, Mrs. Oveson, returned here with her to spend the winter.

Mrs. Helen Busch left Sunday for her home in Butte, Mont., after visiting several weeks at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dalton.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root and daughter, Jane, of Wasco, were recent visitors at the home of Root's mother, Mrs. Leo Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbe Akers and son Danny of Ione were recent visitors at the home of Akers' sister, Mrs. Hazel Miller.

Mrs. Royal Rands of Hermiston visited last week at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rands. Week-end visitors were the Rands' grandchildren, Billie, Virginia and Susan Alleman, of Richland, Wash. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Alleman, came after them Sunday, and Mrs. Royal Rands accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chilman spent the week-end in Mezer Island, Wash., visiting at the home of Mrs. Chilman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gummarsall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Donovan and daughter Sharon, and Jim Barrick spent the week-end in Imbler visiting at the home of the Donovan's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill White. Sunday they attended the baptismal service of Trace Donovan White at the Zion Lutheran Church in La Grande. The Rev. Jim Berentson of the First Lutheran Church of Baker performed the service. Sharon Donovan was godmother.

Club Enrollments Of 4-H Members Due From Leaders

By BIRDINE TULLIS County Extension Aide

Several mailings of state wide events of interest to our 4-H members will be made from Corvallis from the ADP listing. One of particular importance to members is the announcement and application for State Summer School. We must have our completed list of enrollments to the state office by the end of February for our members to receive this and other such information.

Leaders are urged to get those completed enrollments to the county office just as soon as possible!

Leaders Meeting Set
All 4-H foods, clothing and knitting leaders are invited to attend a meeting at the Dorm Building, Heppner, January 29, 1:30 p.m. Mary Speckhart, county agent from Umatilla county, will be present to discuss any problems leaders may have with their 4-H programs. Also changes to be made in the Fair book will be made at this time. It is hoped that the Morrow County Fair activities and judging can be more in line with those at State Fair to help our young people when they go on to show at the state level.

Sew With Knits to Start
Classes are beginning in the Heppner and Pine City areas. Preliminary meetings on the very popular sew with knit classes are being held in both places this week. Sixty-four women are enrolled for the training.

Mrs. George Luciani and Mrs. Jasper Myers are giving the lessons in the Pine City area to extension unit members and other interested ladies. Mrs. Wallace Wolff and Mrs. Bill Heath will conduct a night class for those unable to attend the day classes in Heppner. Mrs. Merritt Gray, Mrs. Sybil Gallier, and Rachel Harnett will be conducting a day class in Heppner.

Preliminary meetings have not yet been scheduled for the Rhea Creek and Ione areas.

Council Plans Programs
Home Extension Advisory Council met Monday, January 20, at the Lexington school. Mrs. Roland Bergstrom of Ione and

Fire Destroys Boardman Home

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Fire of an unknown origin destroyed the old Clyde Tanehill house, which was moved from the old town of Boardman to Wilson road about a mile from the center of the new town, just before 11 p.m. January 17. The house was occupied by P. A. Timpy and his son, Mike, and Mickey Roe, who were not at home. They rented the house from MSgt. and Mrs. Richard Muhlolland, who live at the Mt. Hebron Air Force base near Tillamook, and who purchased it as an investment last year from Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McKenzie.

The house was gutted by the blaze, except for one bedroom. Contents of it were saved. But the men living in the house lost all their personal belongings. The house was covered by insurance, but not the contents. Both trucks made the run to the fire and apparently extinguished it, but Fire Chief Zearl Gillespie and other volunteer firemen had to make a second trip shortly after 1 a.m. when sparks were observed by some boys. The U. S. Navy contributed a truck full of water which was sprayed on the flames by one of the Boardman pumps.

Class to Entertain

Sixth graders in Mrs. Joan Thompson's class will present a group of three plays, in addition to a puppet show, for the enjoyment of their friends and families and the general public next Friday evening, January 31, in the grade school multipurpose room. The plays were written by students in the class and everyone is invited to come and see them, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. John Madison of Echo were appointed by the council to the Program Development Committee.

Representatives of both Morrow and Umatilla counties make up this committee, which is responsible for planning the program for extension units in both counties, make long range plans and studies of county needs and special problems, and make recommendations in all areas of extension work including 4-H activities.

Pat Brindle, assistant co-ordinator of the Neighborhood Center, was present at the advisory council meeting to explain the work of the center.

Evening Class Set In Adult Sewing

An adult sewing class, offered through the evening school of Blue Mountain College, will begin Tuesday, February 11, at Heppner High school, Dick Carpenter, principal, announces. Mrs. Roland Bergstrom of Ione will be the teacher.

Any who wish to participate but cannot be present at the first session are advised to call the high school (676-9138). Further information is also available from the high school.
